At the theatres "Woodland" at Hellig tonight. Henry W. Savage offers Pixley and Luder's bird fantasy musical comedy "Woodland" at the Hellig theatre.

"Arizona." The word "Arizona" is sufficient. So well known is this drama and so popular that the title in itself tells the story and no lengthy comments are needed for explanation.

"The Crisis" at the Baker. The largest audiences of the season are witnessing the Baker Stock company's beautiful production of Winston Churchill's famous drama, "The Crisis."

Child to Get a Teddy Bear. Some bright tot who attends the Empire matinee Saturday afternoon will come away hugging a nice big Teddy Bear.

"A Man's Broken Promise." This week the Allen Stock company has scored the biggest kind of a success in the thrilling melodrama "A Man's Broken Promise," which has been the talk of the town since its European performance last Monday night.

Acts from Europe. There are several acts from Europe on the program at the Grand this week. One of the specialties of Tom and Edith Almond, the woman plays musical instruments and the man does dancing on roller skates, in long shoes and on ice skates.

"A Man of Mystery." Detective plays are always popular with the public and the current attraction at the Star theatre is a new play in which a detective solves some strange mysteries.

SEARCH FOR BRADLEY FRUITLESS EFFORT. Detectives Baty and Hellyer returned last evening from an extended trip to the logging camps of southwestern Washington, where they prosecuted a search for Melville Bradley, the murderer of Policeman Gittings.

HUSBAND WITH RIFLE FRIGHTENS WIFE. People living in the vicinity of Division and South Thirty-fourth streets complained to the police last evening that a man named John Waffer had been abusing his wife and that he was afraid to go to bed.

BURGLAR IDENTIFIED BY INTENDED VICTIMS. Last evening Patrolman Egerton arrested a man who was identified as the person who last night attempted to break into the residence of W. L. Dalton, 188 Thirtieth street.
