Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, D. D., pastor of the White Temple, begins tomorrow morning a series of seven sermons based on the seven expressions used by Christ while upon the cross. These sermons are intended to deal with many of the difficult problems of life that find their only solution "In the Shadow of the Cross." Dr. Brougher says that it is his purpose to make the sermons as popular and helpful as possible. The special topics are as follows: 1, "Forgiving Our Enemies"; 2, "A Thief Breaking Into Paradise"; 3, "Mother and Son"; 4, "Heartbreaking Loneliness"; 5, "Unquenchable Thirst"; 6, "A Completed Life"; 7, "The Spirit's Departure."

Thirty-six old soldiers and citizens of St. Johns have petitioned the county court for the establishment of a new justice of the peace district, with St. Johns as the center. They have also asked the appointment of O. R. Downs, an old G. A. R. man, to fill the office. The court will probably consider the matter informally this afternoon. The law provides that the boundaries of justice districts may be marked out at the January term of the county court, and residents of St. Johns argue that the growth of the peninsula population and the inconveniences of traveling a long distance to court entitle them to a justice of the peace this year.

The following officers of Golden Rule encampment No. 28, I. O. O. F., were installed Thursday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall, corner Grand avenue and East Pine street by J. V. Swan, D. D. G. P.: P. A. Woodyard, C. P.; S. V. Fuller, H. P.; L. G. Reynolds, S. W.; Robert Andrews, recording scribe; E. E. Holcomb, financial scribe; A. K. Currier, treasurer; C. R. Haworth, J. W.; Henry Allen, guide; V. L. Leisure, I. S.; O. E. Shafer, O. S.; P. Perrine, first W.; I. C. Anderson, second W.; Victor Carlson, third W.; A. W. Little fourth W.; W. E. Bellamy, first G. of T.; J. A. Litt, second G. of T.

All street signs not complying strictly with the law will be torn down on an order from City Engineer D. W. Taylor or Chief of Police Gritzmacher if the recommendation of the street committee of the city council is adopted by the main body. Especial attention will be paid to electric signs which have been erected and which the owners fail to illuminate. City Engineer Taylor is opposed to granting any more permits for street signs than are absolutely necessary, and was allowed greater powers in the matter of deciding whether such permits should be granted or not.

A plea for the careful training of children was made before the Mount Tabor Home Training circle yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Millie Trumbull. Her subject was the "Purposes of the Mothers' Congress." Mrs. Trumbull took occasion so speak of many things that relate to childlife and urged extreme care in raising children. The meeting was held in the West Avenue schoolhouse, Mrs. E. H. Tate presided.

The Woodlawn Mothers' club met yesterday afternoon in the Woodlawn school and elected officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Harry Coleman was chosen president; Mrs. McKnight, vice-president; Mrs. Bruce, secretary, and Miss Kirkpatrick, treasurer. It was decided to reorganize the club on the plans of the Home Training circle of Portland and make it a part of that organization.

F. B. Jack, who worked five days as an accountant for the Oregon Trust & Savings bank last August, and says he is the only one of the old employes who has not been paid, has filed an application in the circuit court calling attention to the fact that he was overlooked, and asking the court to order $19.33 paid to him.

Mrs. L. W. Sitton of the board of education addressed the Montavilla Home Training circle yesterday afternoon on "Manual Training and Domestic Art." She explained the plans for extending domestic training in the public schools and exhibited samples of the work being done in some of the schools of the city. The meeting was well attended.

Articles were found on streetcars yesterday as follows: Two lanterns, 1 medicine case, 1 suit case, 1 cook book, 1 pair spectacles, 2 purses, 1 watch charm, 1 pair gloves, 1 fur tip, 1 leather apron, 2 lunch boxes, 2 packages, 13 umbrellas. Owners call at room 4, Oregon Water Power building, First and Alder streets.

Matters and Things

Fulton says to Heney: "You get up and shoot your wad!"
And Heney says to Fulton: "I've a mind to bust your pod!"
And Manning says: "I think I'll send the whole shebang to jail!"
And father says we "mustn't buy the other fellow ale."

And Louis Wilde ejaculates: "I'll throw the business up!"
And Inman tells the council: "Nay, not on your pizened pup!"

Ships are sailing outward, and ships are sailing in,
Freighted with golden eagles—you listen to the din;
And in the Union Laundry we are singing all the day,
Like the robins in the springtime, it's a constant roundelay.

SAFE BLOWERS HAVE EASY JOB

Safe crackers opened the safe in the office of Gardiner & Nigers, general machinists, 301 Water street, last night getting away with $16.40 and $2 worth of stamps. The safe was apparently left unlocked when the office was closed last night, as it bore no marks of having been broken open.

The lock on the cash vault was broken with a hammer, secured by the cracksmen in the adjoining machine shop. Everything in the nature of books and papers was removed from the safe and carefully replaced, and the safe locked, by the obliging burglars.

The cracksmen, evidently entered the building by means of a skeleton key, as no trace of a forced entrance could be found.

PROMISES TO BE GOOD AND PAY ALIMONY

If Charles Hesig, of 731 Marion avenue, Sellwood, behaves himself and pays his wife $10 a month for the support of herself and their two little children, he will not have to serve a 90-day sentence on the rockpile. Such was the decision of Judge Cameron in the municipal court this morning after he had heard how Hesig had been arrested for beating his wife and refusing to give her enough of his earnings to support herself and the children.

The judge said some other things to Hesig, some of them having to do with the whipping post and other forms of punishment provided by law for the benefit of pugnacious husbands. Hesig promised to be good, however, and signed a paper to that effect in order to escape a more intimate acquaintance with Kelly's Butte.

STEEL ENGRAVING OF REVOLUTIONARY DAYS

L. A. Hall, 618 Commercial building, has in his possession an interesting steel engraving of the signing of the declaration of independence. The picture is well preserved and believed by Mr. Hall to be the only one on the Pacific coast. It shows the inside of the hall where the document was signed and the crowded gallery filled with men and women in the peculiar garb of 1776. Every face is distinctly shown.

Mr. Hall values the picture highly and says that one like it not so well preserved sold recently in the east for more than $500. It is on exhibition in a window on Washington street near Sixth.

A Beautiful Art Studio.

One of the best collections of high-grade oil paintings and pastels in Portland is on exhibition at the art studio of A. K. Berger, at 544½ Washington street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth. Mr. Berger received his early training in art abroad and has studied continuously for the past 18 years.

Mr. Berger is not only well-known as a painter of landscapes, but also as a portrait painter from life, and from photographs. He has, since his arrival in Portland, nearly a year ago, and where he plans to reside permanently, painted a number of her noted men. Amongst whom are Hon. Judge H. Williams, Consul Dr. William Eisen, Hon. O. P. Hoff.

It is hoped that the people of Portland will fully realize that in encouraging western art they are supporting and building up western culture; especially when we have capable artists among us.

Mr. Berger receives quite a number of orders from tourists visiting here from the eastern and middle states, among which is a 5x10 oil painting of the "Good Shepherd," which he now has ready and will soon be shipped.

SKETCHES OF PORTLAND PASTORS.

Rev. J. Bowersox was born near Middleburg, Snyder county, Pennsylvania, on September 22, 1837, and spent his youth on the farm.

Besides his attendance at the public schools, and the academy at New Bloomfield, he acquired his education mainly at Union seminary, New Berlin, Pennsylvania.

For several winters he taught public schools. He was also employed as clerk in the store. As minister he preached his first trial sermon in September, 1861. In March, 1863, he entered the active ministry of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Evangelical church. In 1865, at Williamsport, by his conference he was ordained a deacon; and in 1867 to the order of an elder.

During his seven years ministry there he served on Lock Haven and Block House circuits, and in the cities of Lewisburg and York with good success. Having accepted a call from the missionary board of his church as missionary to Oregon, with his family he arrived here in May, 1870. They spent their first Sunday in Portland.

Thereupon he entered upon his missionary labors at Salem and other points. During his five years pastorate a parsonage was built and the church members largely increased.

From 1875 to 1880 he served Albany and contiguous points. A church and parsonage were built and the work organized and strengthened. In 1880 to 1882 Corvallis was served. With the organization of the Pacific conference, now Oregon conference, he was elected presiding elder, which office he held 18 years.

Moving to Salem in 1882 a number of years were given exclusively, others partially, to the district work. The territory traveled stretching to San Francisco and Los Angeles, through Oregon, and north to Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, in Washington. During his second pastorate in Salem a new church was built on Cottage street.

In 1897-9 he served La Fayette; in 1899-1903 he served the Dayton charge; in 1903-7 he served the Second United Evangelical church of Portland.

Since last April he entered his pastorate at the United Evangelical church at Ockley Green, this city, and enjoys a good degree of prosperity.

If spared two months he will complete his 45 successive years of labor in the active ministry. For several years he shared the distinction of being the only minister of the Evangelical church in Oregon. During a number of his visits east as representative to the highest councils of his church, or otherwise, he had so fully adopted the people and state of Oregon that he had no desire to return east, but to live, labor and die in the country where rolls the Oregon.
