WEATHER REPORT

A disturbance of apparently decided character is approaching Vancouver island, and storm warnings were in consequence ordered displayed at 6 p. m. at all display stations in this district. Moderate rains were falling this evening at time of report over western Oregon and western Washington. East of the Cascades cloudiness was general, with light rain reported from Spokane. A high area overlies California and Nevada, and fair weather prevails over those states. No marked changes in temperature occurred except at Walla Walla, where it was 16 degrees warmer than last evening.

The indications point to rain Sunday over the district west of the Cascades, while rain or snow is expected east of the mountains, excepting in southern Idaho, where fair weather is probable.

FORECASTS.

Portland and vicinity: Sunday, rain; fresh southerly winds.

Western Oregon: Sunday, rain; fresh southerly winds.

Western Washington: Sunday, rain; brisk southerly winds.

Eastern Oregon, eastern Washington and northern Idaho: Sunday, rain or snow; fresh southerly winds.

Southern Idaho: Sunday, probably fair.

Maximum temperature, 50 degrees; minimum temperature, 42 degrees; river reading at 8 a. m., 7.6 feet; change in last 24 hours, —0.5 foot; total rainfall (5 p. m. to 5 p. m.), .13 inch; total rainfall since September 1, 1907, 18.32 inches; normal rainfall since September 1, 1907, 20.32 inches; deficiency, 2 inches; total sunshine January 3, 1908, 3 hours, 48 minutes; possible sunshine January 3, 1908, 8 hours, 45 minutes; barometer (reduced to sea level), at 5 p. m., 30.16 inches.

Ready Money

Ready money is ready medicine. If you want to convert your realty into ready money you can make the change quickly through the medium that reaches the most people—The Journal.

There is a reason for The Journal making the majority of the real estate sales. It's the great purchasing power behind The Journal's big local circulation that makes it the best advertising medium in Oregon. The Journal is an independent newspaper for all the people, and its circulation is not limited like that of party organs.

To advertise in The Journal is to reach all the people, and to get superior results. Journal advertisers are all prosperous.
