Dr. Cottel's famous "quack doctor" rdinance was recommended for passge by the license committee of the ity council yesterday afternoon after everal months' delay. The measure reuires each person practicing medicine r surgery in Portland to take out a liense annually and keep the license on isplay so that it can be seen by any ne who enters the physician's office. t is expected that with the aid of the ew ordinance the police and medical ocieties will have no difficulty in supressing all fake doctors who are enaged in bilking the unwary in the Rose ity. The City and County Medical soiety approved the ordinance, which arries a fee of $2 with it.

Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, elected a full set of officers to rve for the ensuing year at a meeting f the order held in the Woodmen of he World hall last night. Father J. M. Farrell addressed the 200 members ho were present. Officers were elected s follows: President, E. H. Deery; ice-president, Martin Ginty; financial ecretary, D. W. Lane; recording secreary, D. Madigan; treasurer, John O'Farell; sergeant-at-arms, P. Dougherty; entinel, Dan Smith. At the conclusion f the business meeting the ladies of he division served refreshments.

Sam Mazourvsky was denied an auconeer's license by the license commite of the city council yesterday afteroon on a tie vote. As a consequence azourvsky will appeal to the council n a minority report. Mazourvsky was epresented by Municipal Judge Camron, who told the committee that reorts regarding Mazourvsky's trouble ith the police were untrue. Mayor Lane recently denounced a man engaged in the auctioneer business as a beat and cheat, and it is said that Mazourvsky is the man his honor referred to.

Members of the liquor license committee of the city council will thresh out the question of revoking saloon licenses of men who are complained against by Chief of Police Gritzmacher at its next meeting, two weeks from yesterday. Deputy Auditor Joseph Hutchinson was instructed to notify Chief Gritzmacher to have his complaints in writing before the committee so that the men whose licenses are to be revoked can be notified to be on hand to defend themselves against the charges.

Judge Gantenbein has ended the hopes of fame and fortune which once surrounded George W. Brower by denying a new trial of his suit against H. W. Lemcke. Brower is an inmate of a soldiers' home in California and had an invention which he expected to revolutionize the street railway industry. He made a contract with Lemcke, but the deal was not carried out as planned. Brower sued for heavy damages, and Judge Gantenbein awarded him $1. He wanted another trial, but this the court yesterday refused.

Answering the suit brought by the Krebs Hop company, E. J. Smith, a New York hop buyer, admits that he is under contract to purchase the crop from a 400-acre place for a term of years, but declares that the company has this year offered him hops of an inferior grade, a portion of which were not grown on the farm mentioned in the contract. He alleges similar violation of the contract in other years.

The ways and means committee of the city council yesterday decided to wait upon the police committee of the city executive board and hold a joint conference in regard to the purchase of a site for the proposed new east side jail. Both committees have received bids on sites near Union avenue and East Eighth street and it is expected the conference will result in the selection of a site.

Active work on the Rose Festival will be resumed tonight when the various committees will convene in the headquarters of the Portland Rose Festival association in the Swetland building and discuss plans for the campaign for funds. The committees will meet at 8 o'clock and the situation will be gone over thoroughly.

Beal & Co. gave its annual banquet Monday night to the stockholders and employes of the company at the Commercial club. Mr. Beall presided as toastmaster, and many clever speeches were made. Plans for the coming year's work were discussed. The officers of the company are John Beall, president and general manager; Ralph Hoyt, vice-president; E. L. Thompson, secretary; L. E. Trent, assistant manager.

Members of Multnomah Typographical union No. 58 will give an informal reception and luncheon in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization in Woodmen's hall, East Sixth, near Washington street, this evening. Dancing and cards are also on the program.

R. L. Sabin, receiver for August Kratz, has submitted his final report to the county clerk. The total receipts were $12,805, all but $50 of which was expended in pro rata payments to creditors, the debts aggregating $51,766. The creditors received almost 14½ per cent of their claims.

There is a balance of $86,236 in the estate of Amanda W. Reed, according to the seventh semi-annual account filed in the county court yesterday. In June, at the last report, there was only $22,045 on hand. Since then the receipts have been $57,080 and the expenditures $42,889.

D. A. Grout, S. E. Holcomb and Edward Carlson, appraisers of the estate of the late Gustaf Peterson, for many years leader of the Swedish colony at Mount Tabor, have reported that his property is worth $14,195. It consists of several tracts of real estate.

Articles were found on streetcars yesterday as follows: 2 packages, 2 satchels, 1 book, 1 Bible, 1 shovel, 1 bucket lard, 1 music roll, 1 egg beater, 1 lantern, 13 umbrellas, 1 purse. Owners call room 4, O. W. P. building, First and Alder streets.

The will of William Kiley was admitted to probate in the county court today on petition of John F. O'Shea, who is named as executor under the will. The property is valued at $6,000 and is bequeathed, share and share alike, to a sister and niece in England.

Have you seen the famous R. & B. flat opening loose-leaf ledger used by the largest firms in Portland? Outfits $13.50 and up. Pacific Stationery and Printing Co., 203-205-207 Second street.

The first social of the new year will be given on next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Andrew's hall, corner of Fifteenth and Alberta streets. An enjoyable evening is promised.

The Oregon State Nurses' association will hold their annual meeting and election of officers Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home at 374 Third street.
