The convention decided to unite all the temperance forces, including the Good Templars, the W. C. T. U., the prohibitionists, and the Anti-Saloon League, and temperance men in the county, in a grand combined effort to carry Marion county dry. The convention was presided over by F. H. Neff, Salem, and G. O. Oliver, secretary, of the Anti-Saloon League. Rossdale, is treasurer, and G. A. G. Moore, vice chairman.
Resolutions were adopted to commit the organization to a campaign for carrying Marion county dry as a whole at the coming June election, also to carry it by groups of precincts, and by precincts, the plan being to hold all dry precincts and get as many more as possible if the county cannot be carried.
In 1905 on the question of adopting the amendments proposed by the Liquor Dealers' association, Marion county voted: yes, 2,384; no, 2,864. This was virtually a majority in support of the local option law. But when the local option question was up on a direct vote Marion gave a large majority against the law.
Instructions to Hawley.
Resolutions were adopted instructing Congressman Hawley to support the Dooliver-Hepburn act, the Littlefield act or any other act aimed to restrict the interstate shipments of liquor. It was stated in the convention that the dry counties were being swamped with shipments of liquor by common carriers in Oregon.
General Knowell was placed in charge of the campaign in Marion county. He will direct the battle in person. Tom M. Johnson, 411 Commercial building, Portland. Committees were appointed on organizations, registration, speakers and literature, legislation and election and colonization.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., Jan. 8.—At the regular meeting of the city council Dr. Henderson was elected president of the council, Asmus Briz and C. C. Utlinger members of the board of assessors.
Dr. F. Mohn tendered his resignation as city physician, which was accepted and Dr. Clara Reames was elected to fill the vacancy. A large amount of routine business was gone through.
The members of the health and police committees stated that in future when applications for renewals of liquor licenses are submitted to them, they will call upon the police department for a report as to whether or not the saloon in question is an orderly conducted house, and in instances where saloons are shown after investigation, to be disreputable no renewal of license will be recommended.

Are You Sick?

Much sickness is due to a weak nervous system. Yours may be. If it is, you cannot get well until you restore nerve strength. Your nervous system is nature's power house; the organs of your body get their power from it. If the power is not there, the action of the organs is weak, and disease (sickness) follows. Dr. Miles' Nervine cures the sick because it soothes the irritated and tired nerves and gives the system a chance to recuperate. Try it, and see if you do not quickly feel its beneficial effect.
It was given up to die by a leading doctor. Got one of Dr. Miles' books and found that Dr. Miles' Nervine fit my case. From the very first dose I took I got better. I am better now than I have been for years, and do all my own work on the farm. That's what Dr. Miles' Nervine has done for me, and I am glad to recommend it to others.

MAYOR EXULTS OVER REFORMS

Astoria's Executive in Annual Message Reviews the Wave.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., Jan. 8.—In his annual message to the city council, read at a special meeting Monday, Mayor Herman Wise reviewed at great length the progress of the reform wave which has so largely submerged the more notorious manifestations of vice in this city. He set forth what he alleged to be the ancient Astoria attitude in historical form as follows:
The charge that Astoria is the toughest city in Oregon can no longer truthfully be made. About forty years ago, when Astoria was a mere village and the salmon industry first assumed important proportions, most of the fishermen came here from the Sacramento river every spring, and at the close of each season they were wont to return to California. It was then said, "These strangers, with pockets full of gold, are sure to become the prey to the pitfalls now flourishing in San Francisco, we might as well black them first." Thus the "business" originated and it grew in importance until most of us came to believe that it was one of Astoria's chief industries—without which the business and professional world could not prosper, nor the city pay its running expenses.
He traced the past year's events through the anti-vice campaign and triumphantly proclaimed that under the morally improved conditions "the earth has been purified, the streets have not ceased to shine, and the city of Astoria still lives, an independent, prosperous municipality."
He showed that the tax levy for the coming year, with its per capita of $2.50 is lighter with one exception than any other city of like class in Oregon, the range being as high as $1 per capita. The city tax levied for next year is $37,451.12.
The total running expenses of the city last year, exclusive of street improvements and other special charges, were $68,919.29. The total expenses of the school district last year were $52,324.83. During these months the city has argued away any contention that it was any more necessary to resort to the raising of revenue from infamous sources than the official for school purposes, and he challenged any citizen who would want such a taint in the educational system.
Mayor Wise concluded this portion of his message with the estimate that the cigar machines, slot mills and other gambling devices had collected off the public $400,000.
The mayor recommended ordinances to restrict the liquor traffic, to practically prohibit the vending of hot air, to prohibit the vending of gas franchise and grant a new one under such terms as to insure regulation by and revenue to the city.

LIEN COUNCIL KEEPS UP ITS OLD FIGHT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., Jan. 8.—At the last session of the Lien council, Patrons of Husbandry, in which nine granges were represented, a resolution against the use of state grange funds for special purposes was referred to a special committee. W. L. Shaw was chosen to present the matter to the state grange officials.
The annual election of officers resulted in the choice of the following: President, D. H. Bodine; vice-president, M. F. Wood; lecturer, Asa Lewelling; chaplain, Cyrus H. Walker; treasurer, Eugene Palmer; secretary, Max Palmer; gatekeeper, C. D. Cornett; business agent, H. C. Powell; press correspondent, Cyrus H. Walker.
The committee of the state railroad commission has been invited to discuss 2-cent passenger rates at the next meeting. The state engineer will also be invited to discuss the preservation of the state's water resources, which are rapidly passing into the hands of great capitalized interests. It is expected the grange will take action toward preserving these resources for the people.
The committee of the University of Oregon referendum was indorsed and a great deal of attention was given to the grange matter of the entire state discussed.

Yeoman's Case Up Again.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Providence, R. I., Jan. 8.—The case of Chief Yeoman Buentez of the United States army who while in uniform, was denied admission to a dancing pavilion at Newport in the summer of 1906, came up for hearing today in the grand court of Rhode Island. The case attracted much attention at the time. Many naval officers and enlisted men contributed toward the expense of the court action which followed, and President Roosevelt also took a personal interest in the matter. In November, 1906, the superior court gave a decision affirming the right of the defendants, the owners of the pavilion, to exclude from their public place any one they desired to exclude. The case now comes before the supreme court on an appeal from that decision.
The officers elected are the following: President, Julius Wilder; vice-president, R. Anderson; secretary, Christ Anderson; treasurer, Jens C. Larsen; treasurer, Peter Boedker; trustees, C. Sand, A. Jakalson and T. Rasmussen; leader, C. Martensen; inside guard, P. H. Peterson; outside guard, P. J. Mosegard.

Italian Queen's Birthday.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Rome, Jan. 8.—Flags flew from all the public buildings throughout Italy today and salutes were fired and bells rung in honor of the 35th birthday of Queen Helena, who was born January 8, 1873, the daughter of Prince Nicholas of Montenegro. Ever since she came to Rome, nearly 15 years ago, as the bride of the prince of Naples, now King Victor Emmanuel III, her royal highness has steadily gained in favor among all classes of the population. This popularity was vastly increased by the birth of a son and heir to the throne in 1904.

LIFE TUG WILL PATROL SOUND

Senator Piles Secures Boat to Be Stationed Off Dangerous Cape Flattery.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, Jan. 8.—Senator Piles of Washington has procured the promise that a tug will be stationed off Cape Flattery, Puget sound, temporarily until the new life saving tug is completed to go into service about July 1. The new life tug, the Snohomish, which is being built with money appropriated under the terms of Piles' bill, will be the finest life tug in the world.
The necessity for having such a life tug is accentuated by the official figures, which show that in 20 years up to February, 1906, there had been 51 wrecks off Flattery, of which 39 were total losses, in 11 of which 22 lives were lost, and the property destruction aggregated more than $1,000,000.
The tug is to patrol the north coast from Gray's harbor northward to Vancouver island, 190 miles. The federal tug must keep watch of the south end of Vancouver island, notwithstanding that island is a British possession. It was opposite Vancouver island the ill-fated Valencia went down with fearful loss.

JAP DISARMAMENT MOTION NOT PRESSED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 8.—The motion to disarm the Japanese was not formally received by the police commissioners at their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, so no discussion took place. The city solicitor states that the city cannot take such action as searching houses, and therefore the resolution is ineffective. As the elections take place tomorrow the motion served as a fine voice catcher for the interest behind it. Japanese Consul Morikawa was to have left for Japan this week, his successor having been appointed, but he will remain in Vancouver for a month. He being acquainted with the situation, it is thought by his government advisable to have him remain on the ground until danger of trouble is over.

Jakalson and T. Rasmussen; leader, C. Martensen; inside guard, P. H. Peterson; outside guard, P. J. Mosegard.

OKUMA NOT SEEKING INDIAN REBELLION

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tokyo, Jan. 8.—Count Okuma today publicly repudiated the published version of his speech which has caused an uproar in England and is disturbing the Japanese government.
Okuma says he cannot understand how one possessing the wildest kind of imagination could construe any part of his speech to mean that Japan desires a rebellion in India. He declares that India is an excellent field of trade and that he simply urged his people to enter it for the purpose of carrying on friendly competition with the English.

LIVESLEY COMPANY LOSES CASE AGAIN

Famous Hop Squabble Will Be Carried to Supreme Court for Third Time.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Jan. 8.—A noted hop case was brought to a termination if a jury trial can settle anything, by a verdict yesterday afternoon for J. W. Myer, a Polk county farmer, for the amount asked on a hop contract, $3,185, for which amount he sued Livesley & Co. of this city. This case has been to the supreme court twice on legal points involved and will probably be appealed there again, although the jury was only out 10 minutes.
It was admitted that Myer made his crop under a void lease, and for that reason the buyers tried to evade payment. The point involved was whether a sub-lease could recover for money expended in making a crop, when his title to use of the land was in question. It is a case that has attracted a great deal of attention among hop growers and buyers.
