

GUANACOS TO GO TO WASHINGTON

Rare Animals From South America to Remain at the Zoo.

BROUGHT HERE ON BARK ELGINSHIRE

Portland Gains Reputation as Port Through Which Strange Specimens of the Animal Kingdom Find Way to Menageries.

The two guanacos brought here by Captain Stott on the British bark Elginshire from Caldera will be sent to the national zoo at Washington, D. C.

Guanacos are more popularly known as wild llamas, and few specimens are said to have found their way beyond the borders of their native land.

FLIES BRING DISEASE.

Captain Simon of the Reinbek Brings Strange Tale.

Captain Simon, master of the German bark Reinbek, relates a strange experience in Santa Rosalia, lower California, and to which he attributes the fact that vessels coming from that port have had more or less cases of typhoid fever on board.

One of the crew of the Reinbek expired from the disease shortly after reaching Astoria and the chief officer has been out of the ship's hospital only a few days.

A few days before leaving Santa Rosalia for this port a tremendous lot of flies swarmed in upon the harbor of Santa Rosalia, said the captain, and they must have brought the typhoid germs, because during the next three or four days every ship in the harbor was afflicted with fever.

COMING FOR WHEAT.

Steamer and Sailing Vessel Reported Under Charter.

Two more vessels were placed on the route list this morning, both to carry wheat to Europe. The British steamer Baron Cawdor is the larger vessel of the two and she will be here soon in ballast from Honolulu.

WITH THE WHEAT SHIPS.

One Clears and Another Is Reported on Enroute List.

The French bark Thiers cleared this morning for the United Kingdom with 120,753 bushels of wheat, valued at $103,677. She is expected to leave down tomorrow morning.

CONCERT FOR SEAMEN.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The steamer Alliance left last night for Coos Bay. The steamer Breakwater, Captain Macgregor, arrived here from Coos Bay last night after a pleasant voyage.

The steamer Roanoke from San Pedro and way ports arrived at Martin's dock this morning. The steam schooner Northland will arrive from San Francisco this evening.

The British bark Lady Wolseley will be in the harbor tomorrow. She comes to load wheat. The small Comings-Europe collision investigation was resumed this morning before the local inspectors, Edwards and Fuller, but the session was adjourned after the lookout on the steamer had given his testimony.

THE CASE OF THE TRAMPS STEAL LUNCH BOXES

Hoboes Break Into School Hallway and Rob Children of Their Dinner.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Connell, Jan. 14.—Tramps have been more numerous the last few months than they have for years in this vicinity.

The lunches of the school children were stolen from the halls during school hours last week. Five of the prisoners confined in the jail here gained their freedom last night by a little clever work. A break for liberty was made at the jail during the absence of Deputies Ulrich and Moore resulting in the liberty of five of the occupants.

Supreme Court Hears Contentment of Portland Laundry Proprietor.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Jan. 14.—The question involving the constitutionality of the Oregon statute forbidding the employment of any female help in mechanical establishments, factories or laundries more than 10 hours during any one day is being argued today in the United States supreme court.

The outcome of this hearing is awaited with keen interest all over the country, as in many states it will regulate the working hours of this class of employees. Besides several eastern states, the other ones that have statutes similar to Oregon's are Nebraska, Washington, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota, Oklahoma and Kansas.

The case before the supreme court was brought there by Curt Miller, a laundry proprietor of Portland, Oregon, who wants to know if the law is constitutional.

CHINESE OFFICIALS FEAR REVOLUTION

Certain Members of Government Doubt Success of Repressive Measures.

Peking, Jan. 14.—The Chinese government has been persuaded to sign the projects for the Tientsin Chinking and Chekiang railroad loan, and it is an unspoken thing that it will go through while the agitation in these provinces, which has attended the "rights recovery" movement, is in temporary abeyance.

The recent edicts from the throne against the agitation have not had a conclusive effect, but they have brought about a change for the better in the tone of the comment appearing in the native press. Certain members of the government are doubtful of the ultimate outcome of the measures adopted by the throne; they resent some of them, and they are not convinced of the sincerity of the government in extending the repressive measures to the provinces.

STAGE KISS LASTS TWENTY-FIVE SECONDS

Mary Garden and Charles Dalmores Thrill Gotham With Novelty.

New York, Jan. 14.—A stage kiss that lasts 25 seconds by the watch, almost half a minute, is the latest novelty to thrill New Yorkers. It is called the "Louise kiss" and was imported from France by Mary Garden and Charles Dalmores.

The kiss opened for the first time in the opening of act III of "Louise." Dalmores is seated "down stage" reading. Enter Miss Garden. She steals upon the unsuspecting ten and before she knows it the lucky man is in a dreamy half-nelson. Down goes the book (what chance has literature, anyhow?) and the scene is interrupted by an ardent struggle hold.

Then the kiss begins. There is nothing platonic, nothing fraternal, nothing pertentory about it. The audience begins to grow interested. Pulses trained to sedate, operatic tempo get clear out of time and scamp off at a furious gallop. The noise is stopped. The girls glance speculatively at their staring escorts. The matrons eye their interested husbands with an unspoken rebuke. "Home" was never like this," murmurs one railbird sadly.

At the end of 25 1/2 seconds the stage lips part and the agony of the audience is over—till the next time.

MAN DISAPPEARS FROM SOUTH BEND HOME

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) South Bend, Wash., Jan. 14.—John L. Rhodes was mysteriously disappeared. Mr. Rhodes was secretary of the Socialist party at this place and was well known. He had been seen in the city last night by several people in South Bend about 12 o'clock. His clothing, private letters and other personal effects were left unremoved in his room and nothing was thought of his absence until several days had passed, when his friends became uneasy and inquiry was brought to trace of him. Those who knew Mr. Rhodes do not consider suicide probable, and he was not known to have any enemies, so the foul play idea is considered likely.

Gulf States Drainage. (United Press Leased Wire.) Beaumont, Tex., Jan. 14.—A convention of the Gulf States drainage association began its session in Beaumont today with delegates present representing the entire Gulf coast region of Texas and Louisiana. The purpose of the convention, which will be in session two days, is to discuss arrangements for the formation of drainage districts and the issuing of bonds to defray the cost of the necessary improvements to keep the surplus water off the coast country.

New Notaries. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Jan. 14.—Governor Chamberlain has appointed notaries public as follows: George Young and A. W. Lambert, Portland; Thomas Howell, Oak Grove; C. E. Pugh, Sweet Home; W. Wyatt, Beavercreek; Grace Home, Union; H. H. Russell, La Grande; R. F. Vanell, Freewater; H. E. Hendry, Grant; M. O. Mager, Astoria; Joseph H. Wright, Astoria; F. O'Leary, McKenzie Bridge; M. A. Mather, Clackamas.
