FESTIVAL PLANS ARE BLOOMING

River Pilots Notify Association That They Will Participate in Celebration.

Plans for the river carnival next June during the Rose Festival are coming along in good shape and today Harbor-master Speer notified the Rose Festival association that the Association of River Pilots' pilot boat from Astoria, with about 100 passengers, will take part in the carnival. It is planned to have the boat handsomely decorated with bunting, flags and lights. Many other boats from Astoria will also come up the river so as to take part in the festival. Astoria is taking a great interest in the water carnival and is anxious to reciprocate for the favors shown her by Portland during recent weeks. President Whitmore of the association has appointed W. Wynn Johnson chairman of a committee to see that the public school children are visited to the festival association for the Rose Festival. The brewers who intend contributing to both celebrations have agreed to give the lump sum to the Rose Festival and all other contributions will be held for the gala week in June. W. Harper, the constructor of floats who will have the floats for the big parade in charge has left St. Louis for Portland and should reach here tomorrow morning. He will begin work immediately arranging for the various parade features. Charles T. Early of Hood River, manager of the Mount Hood railroad, is at the Imperial. G. C. Flavel and family of Astoria are at the Portland.

PAPOOSE CLINGS TO WOOLLY IDEAS DESPITE MODERN DRESS

The modern ways of the American Indian as some of them are today were illustrated at the Portland postoffice this morning. An Indian squaw dressed in the height of fashion walked through the postoffice corridors toward the stamp window. She purchased $5 worth of the little red stickers. There was plenty of money left. The squaw brought her papoose. But it was not huddled up in a little basket on her back. No, indeed. The young one was in the arms of the modern squaw's nurse girl. The nurse was also an Indian. And even the nurse carried the baby in modern style—in her arms. All were dressed after the style of the whites. There was no indication of the Indian about them—except their features and the dark, red skin of the first and original settlers of the continent which has been taken over by the white man and civilization. The only indication of the longing of members of the tribe for the wilds was to be seen in the baby itself. While it had on modern shoes, clothes, coat and cap, in its arms it carried a little brown teddy bear which appropriately corresponded with the complexion of the Indians themselves.

ST. JOHNS HOTEL BRINGS GOOD PRICE

Many Realty Transfers Are Entered of Record by Purchasers Today.

Transfers of realty valued at $39,716 were filed for record yesterday. The most important new sale reported was that of the St. Johns hotel, which was purchased by an eastern investor for $17,500. The property consists of a two-story brick, and was put up about four years ago. It has always been operated as a first-class hotel and has been a paying proposition. Otto W. Nelson has sold to Katie Mitchell a house and lot on East Eighth street, between Davis and Everett. The lot is 43x100 feet and is occupied by a small cottage. The consideration was $3,150. Caroline Grant has purchased from P. H. Woodman, a 40x125 foot lot at the northeast corner of East Nineteenth and Ellisworth streets for $1,400. A quarter-block at Irvington Heights, located on East Nineteenth between Mason and Skidmore streets, has been sold by Herman Wittenberg to A. Hamel. The consideration is given as $1, but the actual value of the property is about $2,500. W. H. Congdon has purchased from A. Myers 14 acres on the Demasous

AT THE THEATRES

"The Man of the Hour" Tonight.
The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and every night this week with special price matinees tomorrow and Saturday, will be the much-talked-about drama on the graft situation, "The Man of the Hour." Seats are now selling at theatre for the entire engagement.

"Brown of Harvard," Coming.
Beginning next Sunday night, January 19, the attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, will be the clever young star, Henry Woodruff in the greatest of all college plays, "Brown of Harvard." This play will continue Monday and Tuesday nights with a special price matinee Tuesday afternoon. Seat sale opens next Friday.

Special Price Matinee at Hellig.
A special price matinee will be given at the Hellig theatre tomorrow afternoon. The famous political play, "The Man of the Hour," which is being sold at theatre. Phones Main 1 and A-1122.

"A $10,000 Beauty."
Those who want fun and melody will find plenty of it at the Marquand this week in "A $10,000 Beauty." This is a musical show with a number of pretty girls who can sing and dance. It is the first burlesque that has been seen at the Marquand in years, and as burlesque, when well played, is always popular, "A $10,000 Beauty" is giving eminent satisfaction. Saturday matinee.

"The Other Girl" at the Baker.
Foolish, romantic women in high society have been known to elope with their coachmen, butlers and other underlings, but the only one known to take a wild fancy for a gentlemanly pugilist is the heroine in Augustus Thomas' play, "The Other Girl," which the Baker company is making a big hit with this week.

Matinee at Empire Tomorrow.
A typical melodrama of wild life in the great state of Texas when lawlessness reigned supreme is "A Texas Outlaw," which is pleasing patrons of the Empire this week. It is a tale of the desperate struggle between two determined men for the hand of a young and pretty girl.

Gymnasts From Arabia.
Ameen Abou Hamad, may his tribe increase, has six fellows in his vaudeville act at the Grand this week. They build pyramids and other difficult #### acrobatic feats. It is one of the finest acts of its kind ever seen outside of a circus. "Turning the Tables" is the added attraction, in which Lisette Evans and Jefferson Ford appear. It is a glimpse of what could happen in the west between a western girl and a tenderfoot.

Night Riders.
Those who have been reading in the newspapers of the night riders in Kentucky as well as of the trial of the Goebel murderer will be interested to know that a play founded on these conditions in Kentucky is now being played at the Star theatre by the French stock company. The title of the drama is "The White Caps," which is the name by which the night riders are most generally known.

Hall Caine's Great Drama.
The attraction at the Lyric this week is the intensely dramatic human-interest play, "The Land of the Midnight Sun," dramatized from Hall Caine's famous novel, "The Bondman." The Allen company has made a new record for excellence in this play and the public is enthusiastic over the performances that have been given. Matinees Thursday, Saturday and Sunday.

MUSIC FEATURE OF EXERCISES

The evangelistic meetings at the Mississippi Avenue Congregational church drew another good audience last night. The chorus choir and the solo singing were attractive features of the meeting. Several instruments have also been enlisted in the campaign and the singing of the new and old songs by the choir and congregation stirred the enthusiasm of the audience. Mr. Thomas directed the singing and his solos were especially well rendered. He sang the piece used so successfully in the Torrey and Alexander meetings in this country and abroad, "Tell Mother I'll Be There," and the congregation joined in the chorus. Tonight he will sing "The Sparrow Song." Mr. Clapp preached on the topic of "The Barren Fig Tree," showing that the one thing that the Master requires of his people is that they should bear fruit for the kingdom.

Found Drunk on Beat.
At the request of Chief of Police Gritzmancher, William G. Morgan, a special policeman, has turned in his star and in future will have no authority from the city to make arrests. This action was taken because of the fact that Morgan was found intoxicated on his beat some nights ago. Morgan was at one time chief of police of East Portland.

J. A. Patterson, a Heppner druggist, is at the Imperial.

Steel Ranges at Cost

We will gladly waive all profit on $1,000 worth of high-grade Steel Ranges, all sizes, to reduce our large overstock. $30—LARGEST AND BEST STEEL RANGE—$30 Building contractors delayed the opening date of our NEW STORE two months; then came the business depression; hence our Range contracts—made last summer—far exceeded our necessities. Therefore we prefer cashing in $1,000 of same rather than carry all of our immense stock.

You Can Save $20 on a Range

$30.00—Best Steel Range—$30.00

The body made of a high-grade Cold rolled steel, asbestos lined, making triple walls. Oven is large—18x20x13 inches. Burns coal or wood; large firebox, takes water coil. Bakes quickly; requires little fuel.

$30.00—Best Steel Range—$30.00

A more satisfactory Range cannot be bought at any price. We have smaller Ranges of the same grade at lower prices, and other Ranges of the same size at lower prices. But $30.00 cash gets the largest, best, highly nicked-finished Range, like cut. We occupy one-half of our own building, collect rent on the balance and can sell FURNITURE 30 per cent cheaper than if we paid big rents—rents that are demanded in the city's business center.
