

TO HILLSBORO COUNCIL'S SLOGAN

City Dads Determined Electric Road Shall Be Completed to Suburb.

At a meeting of the street committee of the city council yesterday afternoon the matter of the proposed United Railway company's franchise was discussed section by section, with the result that on only one point were the councilmen and the company officials at odds. This was in regard to the question whether the company should be allowed to operate its cars on the completed portions of its lines.

LOST GOODS FOUND WITH HELP OF JOURNAL

Do the people read The Journal? Several days ago The Journal printed a story to the effect that several articles lost in the postoffice had been taken into the office of Postmaster Minto by the persons who found them. One of the packages had been there 10 days.

STIEPP FAMILY TAKES BACKWARD STEP

Alleging that her husband has $5,000 worth of property in Alaska and other property in the state of Washington, but that since 1905 he has contributed nothing to her support, Ina Stepp has begun suit for divorce from Joshua E. Stepp. They were married in Portland in 1889, and the wife says she was deserted without cause two years ago. She asks alimony of $75 per month and permission of the court to resume her maiden name of Ina Lane.

CAPURING THE WILL THE VITAL EFFORT

Dr. Foulkes Speaks on Evangelist's Work in Effecting Complete Surrender.

Hundreds of people were out last night to hear Fred Butler sing at the revival services being conducted at the First Presbyterian church. Tonight will be his last appearance as he is obliged to return to his home in Seattle sooner than expected. He will sing tonight "The Holy City" and "If God So Clothe the Grass." Dr. Foulkes' services will continue until Friday night, his preaching on "Storming the Fort" last night and said in part: "Oh, Jerusalem, how often I would have come unto you and ye would not! It is the message of the challenge of Jesus Christ that I want to preach to-night. He is the captain of our salvation, the victor of the citadel of the human heart. Humanity has considered itself arrayed against him and following the points of good strategy has put up on the fortifications of the flesh, besides numerous outposts.

TRANSFER ROSES TO WINDOW PANES

A color scheme offered by the Meyercoor company, Chicago, manufacturers of decalcomania transfers, has been accepted by the Rose carnival committee for the official shield. The Meyercoor company has taken a contract to manufacture decalcomania transfers of the design for windows, and it is expected that 5,000 to 10,000 of these will be purchased in Portland and placed on windows between this date and the opening of the festival next June. The opalescent window pictures of the Lewis and Clark expedition design were on the same order.

Carnival Committee Adopts Color Scheme to Advertise June Fiesta.

The theatrical mechanics' association held its annual benefit performance at the Marquam theatre yesterday afternoon. All the members of the profession in the city were there in street clothes and the seats they didn't occupy were filled with those anxious to see what an actor looked like off the stage. They all got their money's worth and more too.

THEATRICAL MECHANICS' ASSOCIATION

Well, after everybody had finished looking around the house, there was a special wait of 15 minutes just on purpose—the curtain went up on the combined orchestras, which played "Our Anthem," while the house stood, and then the orchestra to "Tancred." Fred Richter, who composed "Our Anthem" led. Evans & Lloyd started the ball rolling with a very fine up-to-date sketch by courtesy of the Grand theatre. They sang a song in which hal-lalujah rhymed with pursued her. Then Felix Haney, who is Alderman Phelan "The Man of the Hour" for some jokes. Felix has been a politician for some time, and at the last number Mina Crolius Gleason almost dropped the torgette.

Terrible Liquor Craving

How Orrine Destroys All Desire for Whiskey and Beer.

The terrible craving for liquor is a symptom of disease and to overcome it the disease itself should be treated in a scientific way. When one has used whiskey, beer or other stimulants for a long time, the nerve cells have become accustomed to the effects of the stimulants and liquor is order to perform their duties. If the nerve cells are properly treated, the craving for liquor will be destroyed.

Orrine is in two forms, No. 1, which can be given secretly in food or drink, No. 2 in pill form costs $1 per box, and both are sold under the liberal guarantee that your money will be refunded if Orrine fails to cure.

A Talk on the J. M. Acheson Company's Clearance Sale

During the past days of our clearance sale we have been encouraged to continue our unprecedented offer of our entire stock at such a reduction of prices as to cause our patrons, both old and new, to express their thanks for such remarkable values, and many wonder how it may be done. This is an easy problem when such large assortments are purchased as to exhaust the output of Eastern houses on certain lines, thus making our house an exclusive house on the coast for garments of quality and style. This also makes the J. M. Acheson Company's patronage sought for by great exclusive bargains being offered. Then, too, the fitting and work are above criticism. The garments to be offered tomorrow—Thursday—are such as will at once appeal to those who are looking for values in quality and style. Note following garments and prices. SPECIALS:
