MODEL LICENSE IS RUM'S PLAN

President of Liquor Dealers' League Explains Scheme to Combat "Dry" Crusade.

New York, Jan. 17.—T. M. Gilmore, president of the Model License league of Louisville, Kentucky, an organization which claims a membership of over 300 brewing and distilling firms, met representatives of the local wholesale and retail liquor dealers today at the Waldorf-Astoria and set before them the league's plan for combating the prohibition movement of the anti-Saloon league and other prohibition organizations.

Gilmore suggested legislation which would make the license in the nature of a contract between the state and the licensee, the contract to be revocable only in case of default on the part of the licensee. For a second offense the license would be canceled, and its holder prohibited from ever doing business in the state.

DELINQUENT TAX TOTAL DECREASES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Jan. 17.—That the total of delinquent taxes in Umatilla county is growing less year by year is shown by the annual tax statement submitted by Sheriff T. D. Taylor.

The total amount of delinquent taxes for the year 1906 was $12,978.63, of which $5,886.76 is personal tax. The annual amount delinquent for the present year up to and including October 7 is but $11,824.99, or $2,450.64 less than last year.

THIS DOG WHINES AT BAD GRAMMAR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Curwensville, Pa., Jan. 14.—Professor John Wells is the owner of a most remarkable dog. Nothing superhuman is claimed for the animal, and the professor wants it understood that there is no truth in the common belief that his pet can talk.

But that "Boojum," the name of the dog, goes to school regularly, and when the pupils use ungrammatical expressions he whines in a most dismal fashion.

There was one boy who persisted in using the word "air" and could not be broken of the habit. It was no jarring on "Boojum," that the dog nearly went mad.

One afternoon "Boojum" attacked the lad and bit him on the leg so wickedly that the youngster promised Professor Wells that he would never again offend.

Because of "Boojum's" fine sensibilities he is seldom seen on the street. He is also an enemy of tramps and other persons who use bad language.

BAY CITY MARKET

Fourth and Yamhill Streets

for Sunday Dinner

Take one pound of mashed potatoes, several tablespoons of milk, an ounce of butter, a half teaspoonful of salt and one of pepper, two eggs, five tablespoons of bread crumbs and a pinch of cayenne.

Melt the butter in a saucepan and after adding the milk, bring them together to a boil. Through a sieve pass the potatoes and add the liquid mixture.

The entire mixture should then be beaten and when very hot the pan should be removed from the fire. Add the salt and pepper, likewise the cayenne. Drop in the yolk of the eggs and stir until the latter are dried.

Roll the mixture into balls of small size, a little flour being used to prevent sticking to the hands. Beat up the white of the egg and into this roll each ball. Upon a table place the bread crumbs and roll the balls in them until covered. They should then be put into hot fat or lard and fried for three minutes until brown.

Eggs are cheaper because of the larger supplies. A short time ago most of the eggs sold here came from the east because of the shortage of home eggs.

Butter is unusually high this season because of the short catch on the sound. Eastern eggs are now hard to sell at any price although the quality this year is unusually good for storage stock.

Chickens are cheap again at retail and you can get turkey today at a material reduction from the figures that ruled during the holidays.

Wild geese are again in market and are quite scarce.

Perhaps you've noticed that the cheese is not so good this year as formerly. This is due in a measure to the climatic conditions that ruled in the spring and summer months. Prices are not so high on this account.

Columbia river smelt are coming faster to market. The real winter run appeared in the Cowlitz the other day and the price has not yet advanced in the retail markets. They are not cheap enough to eat at any time, but just now are the cheapest articles on the bill of fare.

Fresh salmon is again very scarce and the markets are only supplied with regular prices. It should likewise be prepared in the same way.

Sprouts are coming from the south in abundance and are finding an increasing demand from the retailers. They report a larger demand for sprouts than ever before. They resemble small cabbages and have a taste peculiarly their own. They should be prepared for table by boiling and then seasoned with butter, salt and pepper.

Some are again in good supply. Some from the south is of large size but as regards quality, it is not as good nor fresh as the stock grown nearby. Prices range from 19 to 15c a head according to size.

Oregon is noted as a producer of some of the best potatoes grown in the United States, but there are not many households who utilize them more than two or three times a year. They are delicious and are thus prepared.

KILLS HOG NAMED FOR HER; SHE SUES

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 17.—Because Lewis Foote of Absecon killed "Jenny," a pet hog that had been named after her, Mrs. Jennie Lewis sued Foote today for $150 damages.

Foote acknowledged having taken the pet to board, but testified that he had killed it in the morning and demanded the keys of the strong room, in order that he might see that everything was in order.

The officer in charge, suspecting nothing, handed over the keys, only requesting the visitor to sign a book. By chance other commissioners appeared soon after to fetch money from the strong safe. It was then found that the arsenal safe was locked and the key gone.

On the door being broken open it was discovered that the "official" had taken over $1,000 in notes and two savings bank books. It has since been discovered that after leaving the arsenal the thief drove to the savings bank and withdrew the greater part of the sums deposited. This was easy, as the savings bank authorities consider the person in possession of the book as owner of the money.

The thief is believed to be a non-commissioned officer, "wanted" since September for desertion and appropriation of money. The day before yesterday he bought a uniform and sword from a dealer in old clothes. The police are making diligent search, and confidently expect to capture the thief soon.

HUSBAND AND WIFE HAVE DAILY BATTLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Geneva, Jan. 15.—Jacob Maurer and his wife, of Zurich, were described by the judge as the "most curious couple in Switzerland" when he sentenced the husband to six months' imprisonment for desertion.

The wife had married Maurer, a powerful physique—and had first fight almost daily for 23 years.

In 1905 the wife got a divorce, but in 18 months she met by chance and married again. The wedding breakfast, however, ended in a fight, but the couple stayed together in the old way, sometimes the husband and sometimes the wife winning the day's fight.

Some months ago the wife took $200 and fled from the house. The husband pursued her, beat her, and flung her in a river, but she was rescued. At the trial, she pleaded for leniency to her husband, and burst into tears when she heard the sentence.

BERNHARDT'S RAG DOLL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Paris, Jan. 15.—Madame Sarah Bernhardt, who is to appear as Prima Charming in a new rendering of "The Sleeping Beauty" on Tuesday evening, hunted for weeks for a doll which should not look like a baby.

Permission having been given to Madame Sarah Bernhardt to borrow the doll, she carried it off in her arms, promising that it should sleep in her own bed-room every night during the run of the play, and that it should be returned safe to its little mother.
