

LOAFERS BARRED FROM TUMWATER

Man Who Fails to Provide for Family Deported by Citizens.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Olympia, Wash., Jan. 17.—Deported from home, friends and family through the interference of a vigilantly committed last night, Joe Hannah, a former resident of Tumwater, today finds himself cast out on the cold mercies of the world and unable to return to his home for fear that his life might be taken by the committee which warned him away.

PERU WELCOMES ALL AMERICANS

Professor Rowa Is Cordially Entertained While Visiting South Republic.

Lima, Peru, Jan. 17.—Dr. L. B. Rowa, a professor of the University of Pennsylvania, has just completed a visit of scientific value to the west coast of South America, where he has been most cordially received and handsomely entertained by the learned men of the university.

Headache?

If it does, you should try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Why not do so. They will relieve the pain in just a few minutes. Ask your druggist. There are 45,000 druggists in the U. S. Ask any of them. A package of 25 doses costs 25 cents. One tablet usually stops a headache. They relieve pain without leaving any disagreeable after-effects— isn't that what you want?

"My son Frank Snyder has used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for a long time. He never had a thing to help him so much for headache. A year ago he came home, and I was down sick with such a dreadful nervous headache. He gave me one of the Anti-Pain Pills, and after while I took another and was entirely relieved. I always keep them in the house now, and gave many away to others suffering with headache."

MRS. LOUISE LEWELLYN, Powell, South Dakota.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and we authorize him to return the price of first package (only) if it fails to benefit you.

GYPSY RULER OFFERS $20,000, WITH GIRL

"King North" Wants Daughter to Quit Wandering Life, and Has Big Dowry.

Appleton, Wis., Jan. 17.—There is $20,000 waiting for the man who can win the hand of Winifred, the beautiful daughter of "King North," the chief of a band of gypsies, which has just broken camp on its way to Missouri.

The daughter is a native-born gypsy, and has spent her 20 years roaming about the country with the band which her father heads. The parent has tired of seeing his daughter lead the romantic life, however, and desires her to settle down in a civilized career.

With that object in view, and with a hope of getting some person for her husband who will be big King, he has made the offer of $20,000 for the one capable of winning her.

Fire Sale at Hub.

On November 13, 1907, the stock of A. Gordon of Chicago, was damaged by fire, and a big slice of that stock has been secured by our buyers, said the manager of the Hub Clothing company this morning. A Gordon was in business for 20 years and carried an exceptionally fine stock. We bought $50,000 worth of the goods, the damaged part at 11 cents, and the undamaged at 27 cents on the dollar. It is the finest stock of the kind we have ever been able to secure and bought at a less price than any we ever closed out. Thirty days earlier it could not have been bought for this money. When money was plentiful it would have cost us three or four times as much as we paid for it. Tomorrow morning we throw this on the Portland market at retail sale. The prices are little short of sensational as the reader will see from our half-page issue.

JUDGE SNELL WOULD GOVERN WASHINGTON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Jan. 17.—Judge William H. Snell of the superior court of this county is a candidate for governor of the state. The judge's friends have been urging him for some time to announce himself, and he now admits that he is seriously thinking of doing so within the next few days. Judge Snell is one of the rock-ribbed Republicans of the county and a strong campaigner.

SAYS COLLEGES BREED DIRTY POLITICIANS

Professor Blames Pennsylvania Corruption on Bad Practices in Athletics.

Washington, Jan. 17.—According to Professor Wilbur Jones Kay of the chair of rhetoric at Washington and Jefferson college, the political corruption in Pennsylvania is due to the politics in practice at the state's institutions of learning.

Professor Kay made his statement in a speech to the students in response to a request for his opinion of the one-year residence rule for athletes.

"The principal difficulty at Washington and Jefferson," said Professor Kay, "is the political machinations of the undergraduates and their corrupt methods of manipulating college affairs."

"These evil influences of college days are responsible for the political corruption in the state of Pennsylvania. Many of the state's political leaders, graduates of Washington and Jefferson, have carried into office the corrupt practices they have learned here."

BLOODED HORSE MAN BUYS RANCH IN CROOK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Prineville, Or., Jan. 17.—S. M. Moore, a capitalist of Portland, has leased a 800-acre tract of road land in Crook county for the purpose of operating a horse ranch. Mr. Moore is a fancier of blooded stock and will confine himself exclusively to that branch of the business. He has a fast one now on the Vancouver track, and it is believed the salubrious climate of central Oregon will enable Mr. Moore to produce some world-beaters. Last week Alexander Hamilton, superintendent of S. H. Parsons, L. M. Christensen, Sam and Big Olmstead arrived in Prineville to begin operations. They will clear some of the land for cultivation, build fences and get the place ready for several hundred head of young stock that will be sent here during the spring.

Forced Realization Sale.

"During the panic when money was at a premium in the east, I bought an immense stock of general merchandise at my own figures," said Mr. Strain this morning. "At that time I had no idea of a slump in Oregon, and consequently loaded up the Boston store for flush times. Now this old and well patronized store at First and Salmon streets is practically overstocked. Money must be realized on the merchandise, hence we will open tomorrow a Forced Realization sale that will mean more than the name implies. The ready-made wearing apparel for men and women we have in stock can be sold as low as 25 cents on the dollar. Doubtless our half-page announcement in today's Journal will prove interesting reading matter."

HISTORIC PORTRAIT IN VILLARD HALL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 17.—The portrait of Dr. J. H. Johnson, the first president of the University of Oregon, which has been presented to the university by the Oregon Alumni association, acting with Dr. Johnson of Boston, a son of the former president, has been received and hung in Villard hall. The formal presentation will occur during commencement next June and until that time the portrait will be veiled.

BLACK HAND BLAMED FOR BIG EXPLOSION

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Jan. 17.—The "Black Hand" is held responsible for an explosion which occurred yesterday in a tenement house in East Twenty-ninth street. The front of the building was blown out and nearly every window in the building was shattered. It is thought that it was the purpose of the dynamiters to kill the family of Pietro Onarto, a coal dealer. The latter says that he ignored a request of the "Black Hand" to place $1,000 in a certain place or be killed.

TEACHER OF HELEN KELLER GOING BLIND

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Jan. 17.—Advice from Wrentham, Massachusetts, says that Mrs. John A. Macy, formerly Anne Sullivan, who for 20 years was the companion and teacher of Helen Keller, is going blind. Mrs. Macy took charge of Helen Keller when the latter was 7 years old and remained with her as tutor and companion until the wonderful girl graduated from college.
