

COURT'S FINDING ANGRERS STATE

Press Criticizes California Jurists—Poem on Subject by Waterhouse.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
San Francisco, Jan. 17.—The decision of the court of appeals in the Schmitts case is being made the subject of scathing criticism by the press of the state. In this connection A. J. Waterhouse of the Sacramento Bee, who was at one time a resident of Oregon, has written a poem that is attracting state-wide attention. The poem follows:

By A. J. Waterhouse.
(The first district court of appeals has decided that Schmitts—and Ruff, by implication—is guilty.)
Gilty as hell? Of course, my friend;
There's never a doubt at all.
For they grafted and stole to the shameful end
And theirs was the hoodlums' haul.
They made their city a byword and jest,
A thing for the rabble to scout,
And with stolen chattels they feathered their nest,
And never a mortal may doubt.
But honor to Justice! the funny old dame!
And 'rah for the beautiful law!
For this court it sat, and it sat, and it sat,
The case had a technical flaw.
Gilty as hell! Oh, never your mind;
That isn't the question at all.
The question of questions, as you will find,
Relates to the technical wall.
Oh, a man may filch, and a man may steal,
And a traitor to country he,
But he's safe if he keeps, with an eye to weal,
From the technical jungle free.

So it's hey for the courts; and it's ho for the courts!
And whoop for the things in their craw!
For the judges they sit, and they sit, and they sit,
Till they in their wisdom—quit scoffing at it—
Discover a technical flaw.

Guilty as hell? Why, many a man wears stripes for less than they did. Our Schmitts and our Ruff, the rascally pair,
Whose foulness will never be hid, let courts work injustice, let law be wheel game
And let the arch-villain do well, but the great people's verdict will still be the same;
They are guilty, and guilty as hell.

Then weep for the courts with their technical sports,
And weep for the bed-ridden law,
For judges who labor, but labor in vain,
Since they, after anguish and travail and pain
Give birth to a technical flaw.

BEGGS PARDON OF MAN WHO HAD HIM FINED

George Park Says He Did Not Know That He Assaulted Banker.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Jan. 17.—S. S. Spencer, president of the Merchants' bank of this city, was viciously assaulted on the street Monday night by George Park, a speculator, while the latter was drunk. Park was arrested and brought up in the police court yesterday on the charge of assault and battery. Judge Dorris sentenced him to pay a fine of $100.

Park says he did not know what he was doing and knew nothing of the affair until some one told him of it the next morning. When leaving the courtroom he took Spencer by the hand and asked his pardon. They have known each other since boys. There was no provocation at all for the assault. Park stepping up to Spencer and striking him without saying a word.

CHURCH CARPET IS STOLEN AT SEATTLE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Jan. 17.—Furnishings taken from the First Methodist church when raven-haired and distinctly pretty, according to Japanese standards, Miss Yoshino Mitau, a maiden of Nippon who came here in the British ship Onufu to meet her husband, about a year ago, eyes out at the prospect of being sent back home, unmarried and forlorn. She came at the behest of her Japanese lover, who was to marry her as soon as she arrived. She has heard nothing of him since the ship's coming, and now believes him a chameleon. Japanese here have tried to secure her admittance, but that requires a husband, and none of them cares to act in the Benedick role on such short notice.

JAP MAIDEN TO GO HOME HUSBANDLESS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 17.—Slant-eyed, raven-haired and distinctly pretty, according to Japanese standards, Miss Yoshino Mitau, a maiden of Nippon who came here in the British ship Onufu to meet her husband, about a year ago, eyes out at the prospect of being sent back home, unmarried and forlorn. She came at the behest of her Japanese lover, who was to marry her as soon as she arrived. She has heard nothing of him since the ship's coming, and now believes him a chameleon. Japanese here have tried to secure her admittance, but that requires a husband, and none of them cares to act in the Benedick role on such short notice.

UNNAMED WOMAN IS AN ASYLUM SUICIDE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 17.—The wife of a prominent business man of Seattle, whose name Coroner Stewart of Pierce county and Superintendent Calhoun of the Western Washington Insane hospital at Shelton refuse to give, committed suicide last night by leaping from the roof of the asylum by hanging herself. The woman was committed from Seattle two days ago. She was 34 years of age and in life very handsome.

SEVENTEEN MILLIONS FOR LUMBER OUTPUT

Post Falls, Ida., Jan. 17.—It is now estimated that of the 400 sawmills in eastern Washington and northern Idaho there will be cut this year 1,800,000,000 feet of lumber, having a commercial value of $17,000,000. About 45 per cent of the local product will be marketed in local territory.
The lumber is chiefly white pine, red fir and larch. The mills of Politech, Idaho, turn out 350,000 feet a day. This mill is in close proximity to what is claimed to be the largest white pine stand that has been left on the continent.

ONE CAR OF PIANOS LEFT

Eighteen Sold Since Thursday—Factory Says Close Out Remainder in Next Four Days.

The public is quick to take advantage of a genuine bargain. This has been shown during the past few days at 103 Front street where two carloads of the very highest grade pianos are being offered at about one half the price that dealers here would charge for them. All of one carload of these pianos were disposed of the second. These instruments were shipped to one of the dealers here who met with misfortune. They were left upon my factory's hands and I was sent here with instructions to dispose of them to the best advantage in the quickest possible time.

These instruments are the best my factory ever made. They are brand new and you will see in them many excellent patented features not found in other upright pianos. These pianos have been sold right here in Portland by the dealer who formerly handled them for $450.00, $500.00 and $550.00. Dozens of them are in fine homes in this city and their owners will speak of them with highest praise.

These instruments are going at actual factory cost. I must leave for the east with a little delay as possible and my orders are to forget profit entirely. While the prices are so low, should be for all cash. I am still willing to arrange for reasonable payments, as favorable as could be secured from any local dealer. These pianos will be accompanied by our factory's five-year guarantee and I will arrange to keep the pianos in tune after they are sold.

This is a bona fide offer and an opportunity that seldom comes. When you see these fine, high grade pianos and appreciate what a most extraordinary saving is possible now, I am sure you will not need to be urged to buy. Remember the location, 103 Front street, between Washington and Stark, in the warehouse of the City Transfer & Storage Co. Please come between 9 in the morning and 5 in the afternoon—not later, because I have no lights. F. Ramacciotti, 103 Front street.

POLITICAL GAME ON IN WASCO COUNTY

Hot Contest Will Be Waged at Election for the Clerkship.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., Jan. 17.—The first skryocket of the campaign in the Republican camp was fired when J. B. Golt of The Dalles filed his declaration of candidacy for the county clerkship. Golt has a considerable following and since he has been chief clerk in the assessor's office it is generally believed he would aspire for that office, now held by Asa Stogsdill.

That the office of County Clerk Stogsdill will be the object of a hot political contest now appears to be no longer in doubt. F. R. Angle, present deputy clerk, is being mentioned as a successor to Golt, and Glenn O. Allen, now deputy under Sheriff Christian, and L. N. Blowers, mayor of Hood River, are also in the race.

Among the Democrats it is expected that John Hampshire, who gave Jim Bolton such a tight race two years ago, will make another attempt to capture the plum.

CANADIANS AFTER DUNSMUIR'S SCALP

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Victoria, B. C., Jan. 17.—Following the opening of the legislature yesterday by Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir, Hawthornthwaite, the Socialist from Nanaimo, endeavored to introduce a resolution calling for the impeachment of the lieutenant-governor for having disallowed the anti-Japanese legislation of last session.

The speaker ruled that the motion was not sufficiently urgent to introduce at the opening session of the house preceding the usual formal motions to which the opening day is usually devoted.

The resolution stated that it was shown at the recent inquiry that Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir, in his private capacity had contracted with the Canadian Nippon company of Vancouver to procure 500 Japanese for work in his mine, while publicly he disallowed the measure tending to prevent the immigration of such Japanese laborers.

Many Killed and Wounded.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Paris, Jan. 15.—By telegrams received in this city it is known that an encounter has occurred between the army in Liepore and the German army, with the result of many killed and wounded. By persons arrived from Liepore it is known that Colonel Tasta, one of the king's aides-de-camp, has resigned his commission and that several regiments, whose loyalty is in doubt, have been furnished with arms. Some interesting experiments have been made here with dogs, during the exercises of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth regiments of the line. During the sham battles several men simulated death and wounds. Then the instructed dogs were sent forth to find those needing hospital aid and pushed their hunting into some woods, with the result of finding all those who had apparently fallen in the battle. The result has been received with great enthusiasm.

Do You Enjoy Your Meals?

One of the Most Important Questions to Consider in the Search for Happiness and Health.

The burning question, to you, is, "Are you getting out of life all the pleasure and the health you are entitled to?" If not, why not? It may matter very much to you, and to the state of health and strength, if your stomach is in any way disordered, and you are going to be "yourself." You are going to be a worried, out-of-sorts, nervous or sullen individual, whose actions will reflect your condition inside, and people will naturally avoid you.

The world wants to smile and be cheerful, and unless you are cheerful, at least, occasionally, you will have few friends, fewer opportunities, no success, and you will go down in defeat—defeated by dyspepsia and a bad stomach.

A good and thorough digestion has a quick, wonderful reaction upon the brain. You must have noticed, pretty often, for the brain and stomach are as intimately connected as a needle and its thread, one can hardly be used without the other. If your stomach is slow and lazy in digesting your food, it will produce at once a slow, lazy and lousy influence upon your brain. Mark it! If your stomach has absolutely quit work, and fermentation is poisoning your vitals as a result, surely your brain is going to be sluggish and correspondingly depressed. No one need tell you that.

But why continue to suffer all the misery and torment that a disordered stomach brings you?

If your stomach cannot digest your food, what will be the relief? Where's the cure?

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the relief and the cure. Why? Because, as all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to thoroughly and completely digest 1,000 grains of any kind of food, doesn't it stand to reason that these little Dyspepsia Tablets are going to digest all the food and whatever food you put into your stomach? Science nowadays can digest food without having to use the stomach for it. And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the result of this scientific discovery. They digest and digest thoroughly and well, anything and everything you eat.

So if your stomach refuses to work or can't work, and you suffer from eructations, bloating, flatulence, indigestion, or dyspepsia of whatever form, just take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and see the difference. It doesn't cost you much to prove it. Then you can eat all you want, what you want, whenever you want, if you use these tablets, and you can look the whole world in the face with a beaming eye and you will have a cheerful spirit, a pleasant face, a vigorous body and a clear mind and memory and everything will look and taste delicious to you. That's life.

Get a package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store on earth for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address to-day and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address P. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
