their minds, and do they want to go back to the old system, even if some of them think the right man was not chosen in 1906?

Now there is just one way in which to accomplish this result, to continue this system of direct election, and that is by adherence to the part of all members of the legislature to Statement No. 1 of the primary law.

REGISTER! DO IT NOW! THOUSANDS of voters in Oregon will be regretting next April and next June that they did not register.

A CONFUSED CITIZEN. WRITER in a local contemporary, discussing the next representative in congress from this district says, first: "The office is distinctly political, therefore, a Republican should be chosen."

Then this citizen proceeds to give 21 qualifications for the right sort of a member of congress, among which are: Immediate revision of the Dingley tariff; immediate and absolute free trade between the United States and our insular possessions; exclusion of Chinese and Japanese coolies; opposition to ship subsidies and all other trust grabbing measures; ample facilities for the transportation of passengers and freight at rates that would yield only a fair interest on the actual investment in the railroads; a federal parcels post; a graduated inheritance tax; election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

Every ward striker, every political heeler, every petty gangster and machine banger-on will have his name on the registration rolls. The decent citizen, the man who believes in good government and in honest administration of public office is all too often forgetful of this important duty. To him we say: Register! Do it now!

NO IMMUNITY FOR RUEF. ABE RUEF, professional politician, boss and grafter, who has been playing for immunity from punishment, is reported to betray signs of fear and dismay because now the prosecution proposes to try him and convict him if possible, and not to grant him the expected immunity.

BE RUEF, professional politician, boss and grafter, who has been playing for immunity from punishment, is reported to betray signs of fear and dismay because now the prosecution proposes to try him and convict him if possible, and not to grant him the expected immunity. Through his lawyer he complains that he is not being treated right, that he is a victim of broken promises and misplaced faith. As to that we do not know, but it is possible to convict this arch grafter, and inflict deserved punishment, then he should receive no immunity. In whatever he has told he had no thought of serving the public welfare, he was only trying to save himself and his loot. Immunity to one or more conspirators or gang of criminals may in some instances be necessary or politic, but immunity to so bold yet cunning a grafter as Ruef should be withheld unless without granting it the prosecution must wholly break down—and Ruef's actions and appearance indicate that he fears and expects conviction.

IN HIS annual review of our foreign trade, Mr. O. P. Austin, chief of the federal bureau of statistics, estimates the value of our exports for 1907 at about two billion dollars, and that of our imports at a billion and a half. As this estimate contains the complete figures for eleven months of the year, only December being estimated, it is very close to the facts. The figures include commerce with our island possessions, but even if deductions are made for these, the totals are very large and show a comfortable "balance of trade" in our favor of about half a billion dollars. The gain in exports for the first eleven months of 1907 over the corresponding period of 1906 was nearly $109,000,000, and the gain in imports $145,000,000. The totals are much larger than for any previous year. Of foodstuffs the imports were $255,650,000, gain $36,652,000; exports $480,209,000, increase $4,821,000. Of manufacturers' materials the imports were $436,204,000, gain $26,000,000; exports $499,157,000, gain $55,436,000. Partly manufactured goods and finished articles show a great volume of movement and similar increases. This great volume of commerce, and especially of exports, is especially encouraging considering that for some six weeks of the time included the country was laboring under the depressing financial stringency. Mr. Austin's report shows that in its commerce the United States has gained ground during the past year in every grand division of the world. Yet we are not getting what is fairly due us in South America or the Orient. There are even greater commercial conquests to make, and they will no doubt be won, even though Japan is putting forth great exertion to become a great maritime commercial nation.

are also against the primary law. But there is no evidence that the rank and file of the voters are against the law, or this provision of it. Bryan is not saying much about government ownership of railroads these days, but he is doubtless observing a good many things concerning them that will furnish him with arguments if he should decide to urge that policy at some future time.

The reported plot to destroy the American fleet at Rio Janeiro probably originated in the same quarters as the story of the declaration of war by Japan. Yet the Maine is remembered.

A divorce court docket of 160 cases at Oregon City does not furnish any argument in favor of more liberal divorce laws.

A person need be no socialist to consider it his duty to aid the unemployed, if he can do so.

It's only six months till June, when that great Rose Fiesta must be successfully pulled off.

A reformer is always a disturber of existing conditions and interests.

Running Shots

By Fred C. Denton. Mayor Lane never lets up on the people who gobble the public streets. If a city council ever could be gotten together that could pull together, perhaps the street grabbing patriots could be disposed of, and the river front grabbers reduced to common citizens subject to law.

The business of an Oregon delegation to congress, my son, is to arrange public patronage and call on another larva. To open waterways, obtain appropriations for harbor development and propose laws for the betterment of the people of Oregon are mere side duties. The business of passing federal pie to friends and relatives. One other duty looms up, and that is to be re-elected.

The Willamette river is being slowly but surely closed to navigation because the people of western Oregon care more for party labels than their own interests. If Oregon wants distinguished legislative leadership, she needs a Democrat to congress once in a while, and in other ways to give recognition with other Pacific coast states the party in power cannot count on the state as a bonded chattel.

Lawson, the great Wall street bluffer, has succeeded in getting his price, and will stand on his feet, especially if he is an ex-president, as long as he holds that sure insurance job. Some day, says the St. Paul News, men will stand on the moon. If all the stars of that satellite are true, they would be fools to stay there long. Tim Woodruff, a candidate for vice-president, would be a significant figure if we think the Republican party is now above nominating him—or too wise.

Evidently a lot of voters are not going to register. This is regrettable. Every qualified voter should register, and vote, somehow. This is a civic duty. Klamath Falls Herald: In Sunday's Journal appeared a sketch of John Shrotsky, a Russian immigrant, who is pictured as holding an ichthyosaurus, and it would appear as if it is a plain case of libel.

Detroit News: The humane strategy of the police in driving employees into the streets in droves in order to recruit an army of discontent that will talk against the administration policies, seems to be working out the other way. All the revolvers taken from prisoners at Portland, Oregon, were melted up and made into a stove for the police station.—Detroit News. Even if the idea of the hot iron had not been taken up on his own account, and eventually turned out the safety pin that is in use today all over the world.

Oregon Sidelights. Residences are going up all over Eugene. One Prohibition voter has registered in Baker City. Saturday there was no prisoner in the Clatsop county jail. Eastern Oregon farmers expect great crops again this year. The Sumpter American picks Geer as the winner of the congressional race. Big shipments of fat cattle have been made from Klamath county, mostly from Merrill.

The Harrisburg election "passed off quietly." We expected this, especially as there was only one ticket in the field. An extensive poultry raiser near Pendleton says that owing to the best poultry and egg market in the Pacific northwest. The Drain Nonpareil complains that worthless dogs will take the town if the dog tax is not collected more strictly. There is a making boom at Merrill in consequence of a gold nugget as the first specimen discovered in a chicken's craw. Sheriff Shurt of Morrow county has come out publicly in favor of Prohibition throughout that county, and it is likely to carry. A number of Wisconsin capitalists have arrived in Klamath county and equipped themselves for winter investigation of timber lands. The Independence Town Talk severely criticizes a teacher for requiring a pupil to chew a piece of gum that had been chewed by another pupil. Official reports show that the death rate in Salem last year was only about eight to the thousand, which is about the same death rate as in Portland. The Clatsop county judge has sold the old county buildings at the following prices: For old courthouse building, $5; woodshed, $5; sheriff's office, $5, and the building in which the county court meets, $5.

Lord Vivian's Birthday. Sir George Vivian's Birthday, who whose name recently figured in the cable news from across the Atlantic, was born January 21, 1878, and comes of one of the oldest families in Cornwall. He succeeded to the title in 1892 on the death of his father, Hussey Crespien, who held several important places in the diplomatic service. He was British Ambassador to Rome at the time of his death. Baron Vivian was educated at Eton and was formerly a lieutenant in the Seventeenth Hussars. He served in the South African campaign and was severely wounded. Two of his sisters, Lady Violet Mary and the Hon. Dorothea Maud, are maids of honor to Queen Alexandra, and the latter was maid of honor to the late Queen Victoria. Baron Vivian has a handsome home, and an estate of over 3,000 acres in Cornwall.

Small Change

But perhaps Governor Hughes has nothing to say. Winter is rather a dull affair, as to weather in Oregon. Jupiter Pluvius has about caught up. Now for an east wind. The man who has no higher ambition than to wait will always serve. It is rather easy to start a war rumor, but it takes money to carry on a war. Hughes is being variously handled; now Shaw has declared for him. It isn't the lady, but the money that the European titled spendthrifts care about. Prohibition partisans are about as scarce as ever. Yet prohibition gains ground rapidly. At least George Ade hasn't sprung the joke of being a candidate for the presidential nomination. Isn't winter as much as summer the "dilly season"? Consider those war rumors for instance. We make no pretensions to being a fowl expert, but should think that this is good duck weather. What a chance to make people happy! Justice McBride has 60 divorce cases pending at Oregon City. Shouldn't congress also take a mid-winter vacation? How tired it must be, over all the hard work accomplished. Walter Wellman seems determined to deal in hot air and project strange flights, even in his political correspondence. Oregon and Portland seem to be doing better than the Republicans have not in every instance elected their candidates. The fleet is safe from attack as soon as nations that there are some 40 airplanes on board. Harriman still shows activity and financial ability in building railroads to Alaska or at least that scarcely benefit Oregon. "No continuous aspirant ever becomes a president," says the New York World. But something new or different frequently happens. It is said that in prohibition states people are not so scared that they run away from a man who puts his hand in his hip pocket. Mrs. Phoebe Cousins thinks J. Ham Lewis should be hung by his whiskers. She says that she won't get even on Phoebe in that way. Mr. Cleveland certainly can't want the country to take care of him because he is an ex-president, as long as he holds that sure insurance job. Some day, says the St. Paul News, men will stand on the moon. If all the stars of that satellite are true, they would be fools to stay there long. Letters from the People

Then the Millennium. Portland, Jan. 30.—To the Editor of The Journal.—Aerial navigation may be made a grand success, and this notwithstanding all the absurd and futile attempts of the past with gliding machines, kites, aeroplanes, aerodromes and gas lifted airships which, so far, have proved only the uselessness of such devices, and met with many disasters. But an airship can be made that will navigate the air in the full meaning of the term and gratify our highest desires in performance, and all that is required to do so is the common sense use of materials that we have in plenty and experienced mechanical skill to put them together. As soon as the first airship is built and partly intimated in The Journal on the 15th inst. and the practical doubts and prejudices against it as a visionary dream will vanish, and then there will be a grand rush of idle capital to the new enterprise, and it will be demonstrated by crossing the continent in a single flight, at good speed and carrying a fair load, and if it then crosses the ocean in its next flight, all doubts and prejudices against it as a visionary dream will vanish, and then there will be a grand rush of idle capital to the new enterprise, and it will be demonstrated by
