IS MORGAN AFTER THE INGLIS JOB?

President Al Goldsmith Just From New York, Says Multnomah Man Is.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 23.—Al Goldsmith, president of the P. N. A., returned from New York city yesterday and was much surprised to learn that E. E. Morgan had organized an anvil chorus in the Multnomah club, with the object of forcing W. M. Inglis, of Seattle, to resign his position as secretary and chairman of the registration committee of the P. N. A.

Mr. Goldsmith was also very much surprised to read that James Sullivan, the head of the A. A. U., had written a letter to Portland men suggesting that Mr. Inglis be forced out. Mr. Goldsmith saw Mr. Sullivan in New York city just eight days ago, and the New York man did not say a word about Inglis not being eligible to serve as secretary, and in fact he did not intimate that Mr. Inglis' fitness for the position had ever been questioned.

"Of course we all know why Ed Morgan is kicking," said Mr. Goldsmith. "He wants the job of secretary now held by Mr. Inglis. It is Seattle's turn to have the officers, and all the members of the organization recognize that fact except Multnomah.

"It seems just a little bit irregular to me that Mr. Sullivan should write a letter of that kind to Portland men, when he had a chance to talk the matter over with me in person in New York city a little more than a week ago. I am the president of the P. N. A., and it seems to me that if Mr. Sullivan had any complaints to make, he should take the matter up with me and not write to a man who is not even an officer in the association.

"If the Multnomah fellows demand a special meeting, they can have it, but the request must be made to me. They will then find that there was nothing irregular about the election of Mr. Inglis and myself, and if we care to stand for the offices, we can be elected again without trouble. There is absolutely nothing that the Multnomah men can do in the matter except growl, and Ed Morgan seems to be working overtime at that.

"The whole thing is silly and Mr. Sullivan would not have been dragged into the matter had he rightly understood it."

JERSEY LILY GOES IN ON HORSE RACING GAME

London, Jan. 23.—Lady de Bathe, better known as Mrs. Lily Langtry, intends to make a strong bid for turf honors next season, so I am creditably informed. Her ladyship now has in training 17 youngsters, most of them bred by herself. She has at the head of her breeding establishment the two stallions, Merman and Aurum, both of which performed creditably in her colors before they were sent to the stud.

While they have not as yet made any great reputation as sires, they are splendidly bred, and Lady de Bathe is confident when her youngsters go to the races they will reflect honor on their sires, their breeder and their trainer.

She has, by the way, changed trainers. Up to last season W. Donohue, once a famous jockey, had charge of her horses, but now they are in charge of a son of Sam Darling, who was one of the most successful trainers on the English turf. Young Darling is said to have inherited much of his father's skill in getting horses to the post in winning form. So Lady de Bathe's confidence may not be misplaced.

Kruse Rolls High Game.

Kruse of the White Rivers secured the highest score and Capen of the same team annexed the highest average for the three games between the White Rivers and the Rose City team on the Oregon alleys last night. Incidentally the White River five captured two of the three games. Kruse knocked down enough pins in one game to give him 234 points and Capen's average was 203.

Following is the result:

ATTELL NONCHALANT ABOUT F. NEIL SCRAP

Champion Fails to Show Up for Training—Berger Is Ready.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—Sammy Berger, with his Washington Athletic club, is now ready to consider boxing matches for the month of March. The police committee passed out the desired permit. Samuel will now negotiate for the best card in sight, provided the board of supervisors as a whole grant the permits that have already been issued.

Abe Attell did not show up at Berger's gymnasium yesterday afternoon for the usual training and no one seemed to know just what are Abe's plans. Considering that the fight is not more than 10 days off, it would appear that the champion could consistently show more interest in the fight than he is apparently doing. While it is probably true that both fighters are in good condition, they owe it to the club to display more enthusiasm.

Jimmy Coffroth is due back from Los Angeles tomorrow and will settle once for all the question of whether the Scaler-Frayne match is to go on, in view of the fact that Scaler has signed to fight Johnny Murphy, the preliminary to the Attell-Nell contest.

SPORTING NOTES

Local and Otherwise.

Packy McFarland is willing to meet Battling Nelson at any time for a limited number of rounds, and has posted a $500 forfeit. Packy wants to fight at 133 pounds three hours before the contest. Nelson, who says he is sore at McFarland, brands the $500 forfeit as cheap. Bat says he will consider nothing but a $2,500 side bet. Nelson once picked Packy as the coming "chapp," but has changed his mind recently.

Notwithstanding the fact that Catcher Billy Sullivan of the Chicago White Sox has just come into $80,000, he will shine again on the major diamond. Sullivan called on President Comisky the other day and signed a 1908 contract. Sullivan has rounded into shape again and will start the first practice in the best of condition. No, Billy didn't fall heir to the coin, it was his wife.

Tonight Dr. Roller, the big Seattle wrestler, will meet Farmer Burns on the mat in that city, and the sound man is confident that he can put the Iowa man on his back. Roller will weigh an even 200 pounds, seven less than when he stood off Champion Gotch for an hour last year.

* *

Friends of Jack Hill, the old-time pugilist, who will be tendered a benefit tomorrow night, will flock into Merrill's hall at 8 o'clock. The hall promises to be crowded for the occasion. Among those who will take part on the program are: Billy Smith vs. Charley Yost, Tommy Tracey vs. Martin Denny, Gene Sullivan vs. Kid Yorke and a number of other former crack boxers. Vaudeville turns will also figure in the program.

* *

James R. Keene has reported to the Jockey club the death of his famous brood mare, Ben-My-Chree, dam of a number of well-known horses, including Cap and Bells, the only American bred horse that ever won the Oaks at Epsom, England.

It is stated in Yale graduate circles that "Tad" Jones, this year's quarterback, will be head coach of the Yale football team next year. It has always been the custom for the captain of the team to return the following year as coach, but Captain Bigelow has decided to give up athletics altogether. Jones will graduate in June, but will return to college as director of the Y. M. C. A. of the Sheffield Scientific school, and will be able to act as head coach without interfering with his other duties.

* *

Bruno Soderstrom, the Swedish and English pole-vaulting champion, will shortly make a trip to this country for the purpose of studying American athletic methods, and incidentally to get a line on what America will have at the London Olympiad next July. Soderstrom, who defeated all in the pole vault at Athens except Gouder of France, is one of the greatest vaulters in the world. He finds it no trouble at all to do 12 feet consistently.

JOE GANS TAKES BACK CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

New York, Jan. 23.—Joe Gans dropped in yesterday afternoon. Joe looked like a Bermuda millionaire in his fur-lined coat and diamond studded tie.

"I want to say," began Gans, after sitting down, "that I'm back in the ring. I've changed my mind about giving up that championship. I thought for a while that I'd have to sit back and take it easy because there wasn't any one for me to fight, but I see that McFarland is coming up and Nelson has beaten somebody and wants to fight me again. So here I am."

"Are you tired of resting," was asked."

"Yes, sir," said Gans. "I thought I'd like it, but I find the game a little better. I'd rather fight than lay off, if there is only somebody for me to fight. Jeffries and I have the same trouble. Jeff can't get matches because he is so big and strong. I can't get any one to fight me in my class because I have too much knowledge of the game. I'm the only one left of the old timers who is still in good fighting shape."

HOQUIAM TEAM COMES FOR BASKETBALL GAME

After two successive victories in the Northwest league series, the Portland Y. M. C. A. will tomorrow night line up against another Puget Sound basketball team, the visitors on this occasion being the Hoquiam quintet. Hoquiam is one of the strong teams of the north and the contest should prove an exciting one.

Following the league game the second Y. M. C. A. five will meet the Hill Military academy players.

Marshfield Boy Chess President.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 23.—T. T. Bennett, '08, of Marshfield, Oregon, has been chosen president of the Stanford Chess club for the semester. The club will meet the University of California in the annual intercollegiate tournament late in April.

The Red Cross basketball team, composed of the students of the University of Oregon medical college, will meet the East Side Athletic club team in Ringler's gymnasium tonight, the game being called promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

CAPTAIN GAY NOW IN CHARGE OF BOAT CREW

Astoria Girl Signs for Practice on Cardinal Basketball Team.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 23.—L. R. Gay, captain of the 'varsity crew, arrived on the campus this morning after a two months' trip to Hawaii. Gay saw the Cardinal squad for the first time this afternoon and will take charge until the arrival of Coach Murphy. Gay announced that until the squad was reduced in size all work would be done at the university and that the men who show up best in preliminary work will be sent to Redwood in about a month.

Lake Lagunita is as yet without water but the work on the flume which supplies it is almost completed and water should be plentiful enough within a week to allow for a half-mile row. In the meantime the men are at work on the machines and are running cross country.

President Turner of the Boat club went to San Francisco this morning to arrange for Coach Murphy's removal to Palo Alto. The old discussion as to the advisability of having an eight-oared freshman race has again arisen and the Stanford members of the intercollegiate Athletic committee, who will meet the California representatives in San Francisco Saturday evening have been instructed to recommend that the size of the crew be left to the discretion of the graduate managers of the two universities.

Girls Become Active.

Athletic activity showed itself in an unexpected quarter last night when 39 women signed up for the basketball team at Roble gymnasium. Among the number are some good players. A new rule was adopted which calls for "light training" two months previous to an intercollegiate contest.

No player can represent her college unless she has appeared for practice at least two months before the game. Games have been arranged with San Jose Normal and Mills college. Practice games are to be held with Palo Alto High school, San Jose and Redwood High schools. The intercollegiate contest will take place in the Easter vacation, the first to be held at Berkeley on March 8 and the second here March 15.

Among those who signed is Miss Winfred Higgins of Astoria, Oregon.

DALLES BOXER WILL MEET JACK DOLAN

Davis Insists on $50 Forfeit Being Posted by Kid Ervin.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

The Dalles, Or., Jan. 22.—The announcement in Tuesday's Portland Journal that Kid Ervin wished to arrange a glove contest between Jack Dolan of California, and E. N. Davis of this city, is the absorbing topic in sporting circles here.

Davis is a clever boxer and has a host of friends here. He recently defeated Kid Hamilton and he is ready to enter the ring with Jack Dolan or any man of his weight.

When seen this morning regarding the possibility of the match, Davis said: "I am ready and willing to meet Jack Dolan under the auspices of The Dalles Athletic club as suggested, provided Dolan or his backer sends a forfeit of $50 here or places it with Tommy Sullivan in Portland. I will insist on Dolan's representative coming here to sign articles of agreement.'

COUNTRY'S SPORTS FLOCK TO SEATTLE

Roller Victory Will Put Wrestling Physician in Reach of Championship.

Seattle, Jan. 23.—If Dr. B. F. Roller, practicing physician of Seattle, defeats "Farmer" Martin Burns in the wrestling contest at the Grand opera house tonight, he will be considered by sporting experts throughout the country as within reach of the championship of the United States.

No one knows better than Roller, however, that it is going to require faster work than he has ever been required to do. "Farmer" Burns is the cleverest wrestler in America today. For more than 20 years he has successfully met wrestlers of all nationalities and it is his boast that with the exception of Jenkins he has put to the mat the shoulders of every man with whom he has contested.

The house is already sold out. Sporting men from all parts of the country are here.

PORTLAND BOY WILL TRY TO RETAIN BELT

Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 23.—The first scheduled game of the handball championship tournament at Stanford university will not take place until February 8. A committee composed of E. G. McConn, of Los Angeles, A. B. Cox, of Joplin, Missouri, and W. M. Masters, of Portland, Oregon, has been appointed to arrange the other dates.

The entries are now open and drawings will not close until February 4. The winners of the tournament will be presented with the Story belt. W. H. Masters of Portland, Oregon, is the present holder.

Big Shoot at Pinehurst.

Pinehurst, N. C., Jan. 23.—The large number of crack shots who faced the traps here today at the opening of the annual midwinter trap shooting tournament assures one of the most successful events of its kind ever pulled off in this section. A program has been arranged for the tournament covering three days. A large number of events are provided for, with $1,000 in added money for trophies. Interest centers chiefly in the preliminary event and the handicap, for which two handsome sterling cups and various medals are offered as trophies. Included among the contestants are a number of the foremost trap shooters in the country.

Curcio Hanged.

Scranton, Pa., Jan. 23.—Saverio Curcio, the slayer of Nicholas Ferreras, was hanged this morning. He went to the gallows in a weakened condition due to his various attempts to commit suicide.

JORDAN'S BOAST DOWNED BY KELLY

Charges Against Yost Not Supported by Sprinter's Absence From College.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 23.—Out of the discussion following the charges against Michigan university by President Jordan of Leland Stanford, that Coach Yost hired Heston, Rose and Gregory to represent Michigan on the athletic field, the story of Dan Kelly, 100-yard champion of the world, comes as a pleasant surprise and compliment to the Ann Arbor university.

Kelly matriculated at Michigan last fall, as a member of the freshman law class, to the joy of the student body and the athletic association, for Kelly was and is the athletic wonder of the day, the only amateur with a mark of 9 3-5 seconds for the 100 yards; 21 1-5 seconds for the 220 yards; 24 feet 2¼ inches in the broad jump; he had shown a 440 in less than 50 seconds on a cinder path and equaled the best American record for 50 yards indoors.

That's the sort of phenom Dan Kelly is. His records are authentic. His amateur standing has never been questioned. When he entered Michigan no one hinted he had been paid to do so. As a matter of fact, Kelly chose Michigan because the law school is the best in his opinion, and because as a Michigan man he would meet the best eastern and western college athletes in competition.

But things did not break well for Kelly. He entered school upon an allowance from his father. Financial reverses cut off this allowance, and the sprinting wonder was forced to seek employment. He secured a position in a cigar store and billiard room in Ann Arbor and continued his studies. But the remuneration was not enough and Kelly had to leave school.

Just now Kelly is working in Detroit, saving his money until such a time as he can return to college.

This case in itself is sufficient to make fair-minded persons hesitate about accepting Jordan's statements relative to Yost. Had Michigan been prone to hire men of athletic ability, the opportunity offered in Kelly's case would have been snapped at. The legitimate dodge of giving him an easy position around the school, with a fair salary, could have been adopted and the Michigan team would have been strengthened greatly.

But instead, Kelly was permitted to slip away. He will return when he can afford to. Michigan wants him. He wants Michigan, but both want each other only upon grounds of unquestioned athletic honesty. It is safe to say that a hint given by Kelly, to some of the big universities in the east or west of his predicament and desire to enter, would result in this phenom of the cinder path being offered a sinecure for the next four years.

Dan, who while a student at the University of Oregon, ran the 100 yards in 9 3-5 seconds and is now hailed as the champion amateur sprinter of the world, is going to run in the meet of the Pastime Athletic club in New York city January 27. Dan fell down badly in the championship games in Jamestown last summer, finishing a bad third in a heat which was won in 10 1-5 seconds, but his friends have always claimed that the climate of Virginia knocked him out. In this meet in New York city he will have a chance to redeem himself.

CITY LIGHT PLANT IS MAYOR'S HOBBY

Either This or Competition With Company Now Supplying the Current.

A municipal lighting plant for Portland within the next three years is the slogan advanced by Mayor Harry Lane at yesterday's council meeting and the matter was referred to the lighting committee with the understanding that it is to report on the proposition at the next regular meeting of the council. The proposition came up when Councilman Annand introduced a motion to instruct the city executive board to advertise for bids to contract for city lighting for the next five years.

Councilman Rushlight objected to tying up the city for so long a period and asked that the time be limited to two years. Oskar Huber, consulting engineer of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, stated that his company would not enter into a contract for less than five years. He said that if his company secured the contract it would be necessary to install about $450,000 worth of machinery to handle the city's business and such a large expenditure would not be warranted by a contract for less than five years.

Councilmen Rushlight and Kellaher objected to Annand's motion and after a discussion it was finally amended so as to read "not to exceed five years."

Mayor Lane then spoke from the chair and said that the people would surely own their own lighting plant in the course of two or three years.

"We ought to have our own lighting plant if we can get the power and even if we cannot we may be able to get competition for the city's lighting from some other source. The city will be put to an annual expense of about $200,000 for its street lighting in a few years—that is, if the streets are properly lighted, and the matter is worthy of serious consideration.

Councilman Annand explained that the company's contract with the city expires December 31, 1908, and he did not want to see the city left without street lights. Mr. Huber said if his company is to get the contract for city lighting it must have at least 10 months to install its additional machinery.

Councilman Kellaher then moved to have the matter referred to the lighting committee to report at the next regular meeting of the council. This committee in its annual report favorably mentioned the proposition of a municipal lighting project and it is probable that its next report will be replete with figures and statistics bearing on the proposition.

NEW JAIL SITE HARD MORSEL TO DIGEST

Committee's Report Turned Down — Further Investigation Ordered.

The report of the ways and means committee at yesterday's meeting of the city council on the new east side jail was the cause of a warm discussion which resulted in turning down the committee's report and sending the matter back for further investigation by the committee on health and police.

Insinuations of graft were made by William Reidt, whose property at Eighth and Hancock streets the ways and means committee recommended for purchase and Councilman Menefee who took the remarks to himself retorted hotly, accusing Reidt of tacking a bonus to his price of sale because he was selling to the city.

The police committee of the executive board recommended the purchase of a site for the new jail at Union and Hancock streets, to cost $4,170. The ways and means committee thought they had found a bargain in the Reidt property at $3,000. The latter covers one-half block and is more easy of access to the city barns, while the property selected by the executive board contains but one lot.

In an impassioned speech Reidt addressed the council, but was called down by Mayor Lane who told the irate property owner that no one in the council chamber was deaf. Reidt stopped short but proceeded in milder tones.

WEAKNESS

If other physicians have treated you for so-called "weakness," you were helped only temporarily, if at all, and the reason is very apparent when the cause of loss of power in men is understood. "Weakness" isn't a weakness at all, but is merely a symptom of chronic inflammation in the prostatic gland, brought on by early dissipation or some contracted disorder. Our system of local treatment removes this inflammation and is the only treatment that has ever restored or ever can permanently restore strength and vigor.

Our Fee $5 to $30

Of contracted disease we treat thoroughly cured; our patien have no relapses. When we pr nounce a case cured there is no particle of infection or inflamm tion remaining, and there is the slightest danger that the d ease will return in its origin form or work its way into the ge eral system. No contracted d order is so trivial as to warra uncertain methods of treatme and we especially solicit tho cases that other doctors have be unable to cure.

OUR FEE NEED NOT BE PAID UNLESS CURED.
