Prisoner Begs to Be Excused From Answering Leading Questions.

"I beg to be excused-I have nothing at all to say," declared George Brown yesterday afternoon when he was before Judge Bronaugh in the circuit court for sentence. Deputy District Attorney Haney had asked him whether he had served a term in the penitentiary at Walla Walla for robbery, the same crime of which he was convicted here. Brown shifted uneasily from one foot to the other and "begged to be excused."
