

NORDICA TO WED COMPANY ANGEL

Multi-Millionaire Backing San Carlo Opera to Be Third Husband.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Jan. 25.—Madame Lillian Nordica boarded the twentieth century limited yesterday to start upon her visit to New York. There was much playful talk among the friends who escorted her to the station about rice, old shoes, white ribbons, etc.

HOP SALES AT INDEPENDENCE

Fitchard Buys 718 Bales at 6 1-8 to 7 1-2 Cents—Has Shipped 2258.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Independence, Or., Jan. 25.—C. L. Fitchard, a hop dealer of Independence, has just closed a deal with W. W. Percival for his 1907 crop, 486 bales, at 7 1-2 cents per pound.

BURBANK SMILES AT GOVERNMENT CRITICS

(Heart News by Longest Leased Wire.) Santa Rosa, Cal., Jan. 25.—Far from being perturbed by the bulletin issued by the United States department of agriculture decrying his spineless cactus, Luther Burbank was inclined to smile this morning.

POLICE ARREST ALLEGED FORGER

Gustav Snider, the alleged forger who escaped from the office at police headquarters Friday afternoon, was arrested at 10 o'clock last evening in the Primo saloon, Fifth and Alder streets, by Detective Eddy. Snider is charged with forging the name of R. L. Froudford to a check for $18, which he afterward cashed on a barber named Frank Love.

LAST PICTURE TAKEN OF KING OSCAR.

This unique picture of the late King Oscar of Sweden was taken as he was lying on his deathbed a few hours before his death. Permission was given when it was realized that there was no longer any hope and one of Sweden's foremost sculptors will make a bust of the king from the photograph.

INSANE PATENTS TREATED BADLY

Illinois Physicians Declare Maniacs Are Not Properly Taken Care of.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Jan. 25.—That conditions at the state asylums at Elgin, Kankakee and Bartonville are just as bad as those unearthed at Lincoln by the Illinois legislative investigation committee, is the report of Dr. Frank Billings, chairman of the state board of charities.

RAGSDALE HAD NOT MURDER IN HIS HEART

Jury Calls Killing of "Dusty" Dean Involuntary Manslaughter—Recommends Mercy.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Jan. 25.—"Guilty of involuntary manslaughter," was the verdict of the jury in the case of George Ragdale, on trial for killing "Dusty" Dean with a blow of his fist. The jury recommended the defendant to the mercy of the court.

CARNEGIE TO SAVE COAL MINERS' LIVES

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Jan. 25.—Arthur A. Hamerschlag, director of the Carnegie technical school, Pittsburgh, to which Andrew Carnegie has given $6,000,000, called upon the Mauretania today, commissioned by Carnegie to study the most approved methods of mining coal abroad, also as to the machinery used and other methods taught in the great technical mining schools of Europe.

LIEUTENANT JONES CLEARED BY COURT

(Heart News by Longest Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 25.—Lieutenant T. A. Jones, of the Fourth Artillery corps, whose courtmartial on charges of perjury and conduct without coming an officer closed last Monday, after a hearing lasting many days, stands acquitted.

KILLS HIMSELF AT FEET OF HIS BRIDE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Boston, Jan. 25.—Calling his bride of a few months from an adjoining room tonight, Joseph Truett shot himself and fell dying at her feet. The transaction occurred January 24, 1907. Snider succeeded in eluding the police for more than a year until he was pointed out by Lowe to Patrolman Nelson at Fourth and Morrison streets, Friday afternoon.

BANK LOOTED

Officials of Knickerbocker Trust Company Borrowed Depositors' Money.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Jan. 25.—Two hundred thousand dollars borrowed from the Knickerbocker Trust company on a note by E. B. Wirt, cashier of the National Bank of North America, was used by Charles W. Morse in his steamship dealings. The note was made February 15, 1907, and guaranteed by Morse. It has now been paid and the receivers of the Knickerbocker Trust company have announced his inability to pay, saying that a receiver of these cases has not negotiated for his benefit and that he did not share in the $200,000.

ROCK ISLAND CLUB TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS

Articles of incorporation have been taken out for the new Rock Island Club, which will be located on the club house at $25,000, and which will turn the place into one of the most attractive country clubs on the coast.

ADMEN RETURN FROM OAKLAND WITH PRAISES OF SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY.

"The largest and most enthusiastic convention in the history of the organization, which was entertained with the old time California hospitality," is the way C. R. Black, who returned yesterday from the annual meeting of the Pacific coast admen's convention which met in Oakland last Monday for a three days session.

BOGUS PHYSICIAN WILL GO ON TRIAL

The trial of "Dr." J. D. Dunn on a charge of committing a criminal assault on a woman, was set for trial in the circuit court today. The complaint against Dunn is sworn to by Mrs. Winnie Lewis, who alleges that she was assaulted by Dunn at his office in the West Park street.

HAD PLACES FOR TWO HUNDRED MEN

B. H. Davis of the United States Reclamation service in charge of the work at the big irrigation dam at the Portland yesterday, having to come here for the purpose of securing laborers to be employed on the dam. About 200 men are employed on the job. Many of them are Greeks and Italians and after working several months they usually quit in gangs and start on their nomadic jaunts again.

SENATOR DAVIS MAY NOT MARRY FIANCEE

Washington, Jan. 25.—Henry Cassa-davis, former senator from West Virginia, who is reported to be a married man, is confined to his apartment in the Shoreham hotel and is attended by a trained nurse. A physician has been a frequent caller. He is seriously ill, it is the opinion of his fiancée, Miss Maudie Ashford, of this city.

COMPANIES FEAR TWO VESSELS ARE LOST

Boston, Jan. 25.—Although the rough weather of the last few days gives excellent reasons for the increasing anxiety felt for the safety of two ships now 10 days overdue. The decision of the court in the case of the ship Fowey, England, with a cargo of 8,000 tons of China clay, allowing for rough weather, if she met with no accident, she should have arrived here a few days ago, and it is feared her machinery has broken down and she has been drifting helplessly about in the North Atlantic.

FAMILY POISONED BY OVERDOSE OF ARSENIC

Union Hill, N. J., Jan. 25.—The police are investigating an attempt to poison an entire family through the placing of arsenic in their milk. Mrs. Eva Gaschwind, widow of John Gaschwind, her daughter and sister-in-law and servant were the victims of the poisoning. The family recovered, only the fact that an overdose was given saved their lives. After the children were today all were taken sick and the illness was diagnosed as arsenic poisoning.

PERSONAL

H. C. Nutt, general manager of the Northern Pacific, will arrive at the Hotel Portland Monday morning.

DOES NOT STAND IN WAY OF REORGANIZATION SCHEME, BUT HOLDS STOCK.

All former stockholders in the Oregon Trust and Savings bank have assigned their stock to the receiver and relinquished every claim in this connection, with the exception of E. B. Lytle who was a stockholder in the amount of $20,000. It is said Mr. Lytle has written to his Portland attorneys, Snow & McCannan, directing that he be given protection before he yields consent to the reorganization plan, and they have written a letter to the receiver to that effect.

HUMANITY'S WRONGS BEFORE JUSTICE BAR

One Pleads Guilty to Larceny—Dozen Others Protest Innocence.

Edward Lee entered a plea of guilty to the charge of larceny before Presiding Judge Cleland in the circuit court yesterday afternoon and next Tuesday was fixed as the time for sentence. He took a number of tools from the shop of Arthur A. Arndt, at the corner of East Twentieth and Salmon streets, on January 4.

GAMBLING STOPPED BY STEAMER CAPTAIN

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Jan. 25.—Tales of a big gambling game, in which much money was lost, which was stopped by Captain Knuth and the winners, professionals, made to give the money back, were brought to port today by the Hamburg-American liner America. The chief losers are declared to have been Count Dentis Frago and Louis Camp Jr., son of the St. Louis brewer. The game broke up when Captain Knuth, learning of the passengers losing large amounts of money, ordered the room closed. "I'm tired of this professional gambling," said Mrs. R. C. Perfield, wife of a New York broker, lost a large sum.

SYRIANS MIX IN FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

A free-for-all rough house and fight among a crowd of Syrians in a cigar store and poolroom at Seventh and Flinders streets, was in full progress last night about 10 o'clock and was resulting in bleeding heads and a rapid demolition of the fixtures of the store when interrupted by the arrival of an officer who arrested Charles King, Sam Gaudy, Tom Zidu and Nicola Baro for disorderly conduct and creating a disturbance. Charles King was in bad shape, with a fractured rib and a scalp wound, which required the services of H. C. Parker, the deputy city health officer, to sew up.

DR. BROUGHTER CLOSES REVIVAL MEETINGS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) McMinnville, Or., Jan. 25.—Dr. J. Whitcomb Broughter of Hillsboro closed a two weeks series of revival meetings at the First Baptist church last night. Great interest has been manifested, and a view of life has been changed. The large auditorium and Sunday school rooms have been crowded.

AGED PIONEER DIES AT MILTON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Milton, Or., Jan. 25.—Charles Hagan, aged 86 years, died at his home in Hillsboro yesterday. He was one of the early pioneers of this place, having lived in Milton for 30 years. He has no relatives nearer than Illinois and just before his death he refused to give their address. He will be buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery here today. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of death.

FEAR RAILROAD WILL GO BROKE

Lawyer Argues Cost of the Right-of-Way Threatens to Bankrupt N. P.

Fear that the Portland & Seattle line will be bankrupt in paying for its right-of-way was expressed by Attorney Charles H. Carey yesterday in arguing for a new trial of the condemnation suit of the railway against George W. Marshall and others, who own property in North Portland, near the Northern Pacific Terminal company's yards.

ADMEN RETURN FROM OAKLAND WITH PRAISES OF SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY.

"The largest and most enthusiastic convention in the history of the organization, which was entertained with the old time California hospitality," is the way C. R. Black, who returned yesterday from the annual meeting of the Pacific coast admen's convention which met in Oakland last Monday for a three days session.

OUR OWN PRIVATE STOCK

which consists of everything in furniture or housefurnishings, we will sell you privately at any time and the price we will name. We have a large stock and see, we surely have what you want. Because we buy anything on this earth at the

PORTLAND AUCTION CO.

211 FIRST ST. Can't handle all the second-hand furniture in Portland, but you would think we were doing it if you could ONLY COME ABOUTS and see what we have and how it is sold at our regular

PORTLAND AUCTION CO.

At each sale you will see NEW FURNITURE, OLD FURNITURE, ARTICLES YOU WANT, articles you don't want, pretty, delicate pieces, like new, you must have. They are just what you have been looking for, and we MUST SELL the best and the worst of all at the same sale, because the owners of these goods wish it to be done, that's why they send them to us to be sold.

PORTLAND AUCTION CO.

S. L. N. GILMAN, Auctioneer. Special announcement of auction sale of very fine household furniture by order of lady going east, at rooms, No. 411 Washington street.

TUESDAY JANUARY 28th AT 10 A. M.

Buyers of nice household effects are invited to sale. Now on view. S. L. N. GILMAN, Auctioneer.

SYRIANS MIX IN FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

A free-for-all rough house and fight among a crowd of Syrians in a cigar store and poolroom at Seventh and Flinders streets, was in full progress last night about 10 o'clock and was resulting in bleeding heads and a rapid demolition of the fixtures of the store when interrupted by the arrival of an officer who arrested Charles King, Sam Gaudy, Tom Zidu and Nicola Baro for disorderly conduct and creating a disturbance. Charles King was in bad shape, with a fractured rib and a scalp wound, which required the services of H. C. Parker, the deputy city health officer, to sew up.

DR. BROUGHTER CLOSES REVIVAL MEETINGS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) McMinnville, Or., Jan. 25.—Dr. J. Whitcomb Broughter of Hillsboro closed a two weeks series of revival meetings at the First Baptist church last night. Great interest has been manifested, and a view of life has been changed. The large auditorium and Sunday school rooms have been crowded.

AGED PIONEER DIES AT MILTON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Milton, Or., Jan. 25.—Charles Hagan, aged 86 years, died at his home in Hillsboro yesterday. He was one of the early pioneers of this place, having lived in Milton for 30 years. He has no relatives nearer than Illinois and just before his death he refused to give their address. He will be buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery here today. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of death.

FAMILY POISONED BY OVERDOSE OF ARSENIC

Union Hill, N. J., Jan. 25.—The police are investigating an attempt to poison an entire family through the placing of arsenic in their milk. Mrs. Eva Gaschwind, widow of John Gaschwind, her daughter and sister-in-law and servant were the victims of the poisoning. The family recovered, only the fact that an overdose was given saved their lives. After the children were today all were taken sick and the illness was diagnosed as arsenic poisoning.

FEAR RAILROAD WILL GO BROKE

Lawyer Argues Cost of the Right-of-Way Threatens to Bankrupt N. P.

Fear that the Portland & Seattle line will be bankrupt in paying for its right-of-way was expressed by Attorney Charles H. Carey yesterday in arguing for a new trial of the condemnation suit of the railway against George W. Marshall and others, who own property in North Portland, near the Northern Pacific Terminal company's yards.

ADMEN RETURN FROM OAKLAND WITH PRAISES OF SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY.

"The largest and most enthusiastic convention in the history of the organization, which was entertained with the old time California hospitality," is the way C. R. Black, who returned yesterday from the annual meeting of the Pacific coast admen's convention which met in Oakland last Monday for a three days session.

OUR OWN PRIVATE STOCK

which consists of everything in furniture or housefurnishings, we will sell you privately at any time and the price we will name. We have a large stock and see, we surely have what you want. Because we buy anything on this earth at the

PORTLAND AUCTION CO.

At each sale you will see NEW FURNITURE, OLD FURNITURE, ARTICLES YOU WANT, articles you don't want, pretty, delicate pieces, like new, you must have. They are just what you have been looking for, and we MUST SELL the best and the worst of all at the same sale, because the owners of these goods wish it to be done, that's why they send them to us to be sold.

PORTLAND AUCTION CO.

S. L. N. GILMAN, Auctioneer. Special announcement of auction sale of very fine household furniture by order of lady going east, at rooms, No. 411 Washington street.

TUESDAY JANUARY 28th AT 10 A. M.

Buyers of nice household effects are invited to sale. Now on view. S. L. N. GILMAN, Auctioneer.

TUESDAY JANUARY 28th AT 10 A. M.

Buyers of nice household effects are invited to sale. Now on view. S. L. N. GILMAN, Auctioneer.

SYRIANS MIX IN FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

A free-for-all rough house and fight among a crowd of Syrians in a cigar store and poolroom at Seventh and Flinders streets, was in full progress last night about 10 o'clock and was resulting in bleeding heads and a rapid demolition of the fixtures of the store when interrupted by the arrival of an officer who arrested Charles King, Sam Gaudy, Tom Zidu and Nicola Baro for disorderly conduct and creating a disturbance. Charles King was in bad shape, with a fractured rib and a scalp wound, which required the services of H. C. Parker, the deputy city health officer, to sew up.

DR. BROUGHTER CLOSES REVIVAL MEETINGS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) McMinnville, Or., Jan. 25.—Dr. J. Whitcomb Broughter of Hillsboro closed a two weeks series of revival meetings at the First Baptist church last night. Great interest has been manifested, and a view of life has been changed. The large auditorium and Sunday school rooms have been crowded.

AGED PIONEER DIES AT MILTON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Milton, Or., Jan. 25.—Charles Hagan, aged 86 years, died at his home in Hillsboro yesterday. He was one of the early pioneers of this place, having lived in Milton for 30 years. He has no relatives nearer than Illinois and just before his death he refused to give their address. He will be buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery here today. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of death.

FAMILY POISONED BY OVERDOSE OF ARSENIC

Union Hill, N. J., Jan. 25.—The police are investigating an attempt to poison an entire family through the placing of arsenic in their milk. Mrs. Eva Gaschwind, widow of John Gaschwind, her daughter and sister-in-law and servant were the victims of the poisoning. The family recovered, only the fact that an overdose was given saved their lives. After the children were today all were taken sick and the illness was diagnosed as arsenic poisoning.

Auction Sale

T. J. WILSON AUCTIONEER Monday, Wednesday, Friday 10 A. M. Each Day, at Sales rooms, 208 First St.

On three days we will sell from valuable assortment of Parlor and Dining Room Furniture, also fine Carpets, Rugs and Linoleum, select Steel Grates, Gas Stoves, Cook and Heating Fixtures in rosewood case, one corner one Bartone horn, Portiere, Curtains, Pictures and other householding effects. Buyers will find plenty of desirable furnishings to choose from.

SPECIAL GROCER AND FIXTURE SALE

Tuesday, January 28, at 11 A. M. 400 Main Street, Vancouver, Wash.

We have instructions to sell at PUBLIC AUCTION the F. W. Stone store Groceries, Provisions and Fixtures. Fixtures comprise two Computer Scales, five Show Cases and Counters, Shelving, Bowditch, Coffee, Store Truck, Cash Register, Roll Desk, etc. The groceries comprise general stock of staple and fancy groceries. Everything will be sold in cash. J. T. WILSON, Auctioneer.

Auction Sale

On Tuesday Next, at Baker Auction House, Corner Alder and Park Sts.

Auction Sales

Mr. Howell has instructed us to sell the almost new Furniture, Carpets, a fine Machine, etc. of residence, coming up-to-date Dining Room Suite, golden oak, viz: TABLE, CHAIRS, BUFFET, a SEIDEBOARD, GREAT and KITCHEN, in genuine quality; PARLOR SUIT of three pieces silk, DAMASK, ROCKERS, UPHOLSTERED IN GENUINE LEATHER, other rockers in Golden Oak, PARIOR TABLES, WEATHERED OAK BOOCASE (purchased at Brecken's), a fine Saxon Chair, oil painting, a local scenery, good Lounges with construction, Parlor BRUSSELS CARPETS, IRON BEDS in latest design, TRESEDS Feather Pillows, BIRDSHAWK MAPLE PRINCESS DRESSEB, CHEIFFONIER to match, other Dressing room furniture, and mahogany fine Swinging Rockers, Heaters, Drop-It Beds, etc. You are welcome to inspect the goods TOMORROW (Monday), TUESDAY at 10 o'clock.

ON THURSDAY NEXT

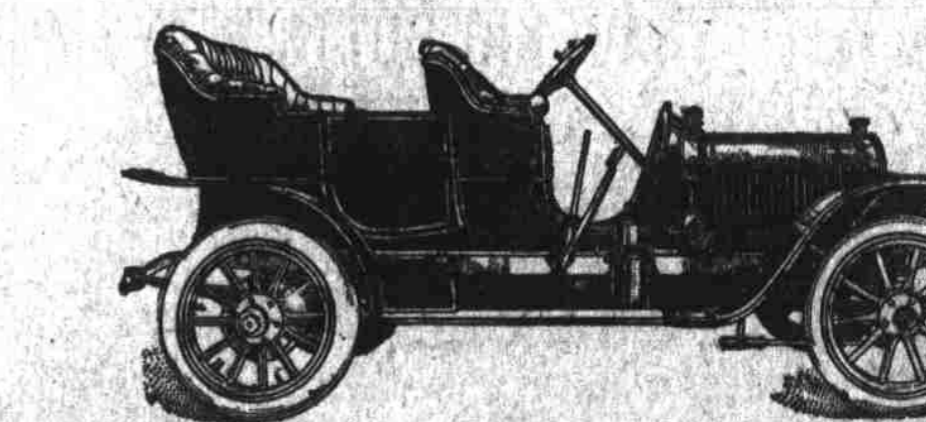

We have our regular weekly sale consignors. In this sale you will find good clean household goods, carpets, etc. Sale at 10 o'clock. BAKER & SON, Auctioneer.

Special & Peremptory Auction Sale

On Premises Tomorrow (Monday), January 27, at 10 o'clock A. M.

All the furniture and fittings of the rooms at 200 1/2 RUSSELL STREET between 4th and 5th, including SUITES furniture, large lot of bed, en, etc., including the furnishings of ROOMS. DEALERS and others will well to attend the sale 10 A. M. MORROW, MONDAY. S. L. N. GILMAN, Auctioneer.

1908 Pope-Hartford Are Here

It is time for talk to cease. Come and have demonstrated to you the 1908 Pope-Hartford. As we all know the 1907 Pope-Hartford is the recognized champion of hillclimbers. The 1908 Pope-Hartford is even better. This within itself is saying a good deal—however, we will convince the most skeptical. All we ask is a chance.

H. L. KEATS AUTO CO.

80 and 82 7th STREET PORTLAND, OREGON Agencies at all important Centers