Cheap Meats.—The Beef Trust markets right down near the Smith Meat company are offering any cut of beef in the house for from 5c to 8c per pound. This is an excellent opportunity for people to stock up on porterhouse steaks, porterhouse roasts, mirlon roasts, etc. Watch the scales and see that you get full weight. The butchers throughout the city should also take advantage of this generous offer and get their supplies there at much cheaper prices than at the wholesale house. Smith will sell 2,000 pounds of fine Sweet Oregon Beef for 5c per pound and Roasts of Pork for 10c per pound.

The first quarterly and district meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Oregon conference will be held in the parlors of Grace church, Taylor street between Twelfth and Thirteenth, January 30, for the purpose of reorganizing the district and hearing reports from different auxiliaries. operator at 35 cents an hour for an eight-hour day in the government printing office, Washington, D. C. Also for the position of laboratory assistant in timber tests in the forest service, examination to be held March 11. The salary is $600 per annum.

The Women's Union Label League will hold an open meeting Monday, February 10, at 205 1/2 First, between Taylor and Salmon streets, on the occasion of the third anniversary of the organization of the local league. Speeches on appropriate subjects, music and luncheon will make the evening attractive. To the women of the household the union label is a guarantee that the wages earned under union conditions are expended upon union products and for the maintenance of union conditions. By demanding the union label the housewife extends her influence from the home to the workshop. The invitation to the anniversary meeting has been extended to all the trade unions of the city.

Several of the leading Republicans in precinct 45, in the Seventh ward, have issued a call for a meeting to be held in the old school house on East Twenty-sixth street and Powell road next Saturday night for the purpose of organizing a Republican club. Preliminary steps looking to the organization of the club were taken last Sunday. At the Saturday night meeting officers will be elected and a constitution and by-laws will be adopted.

After hanging fire for many months, the case of the state against Thomas B. Lambert has been dismissed, the action being taken on recommendation of Deputy District Attorney Seabrook, prosecutor for the juvenile court. Lambert was accused of beating his little step-daughter so severely that she ran away and hid in the woods, and the case was tried in October before Judge O'Day, the jury failing to agree. Lambert claimed that the punishment of the girl was not unreasonable.
