Grand "Vaudeville"
Lyric "Jack Wells of Wyoming"
Star "The Moonshiner's Daughter"

The United Scandinavian revival services now held in the city are growing in interest. Large crowds attend the services and conversions are reported at every meeting.

Members of the street committee of the city executive board placed themselves on record yesterday as favoring the abolishment of the 10 per cent rule but withheld decisive action because Mayor Lane was not present.

The young people of St. David's church presented a comedy in the Woodmen of the World hall, East Sixth and East Alder streets, last night, entitled, "Behind the Scenes."

A general invitation has been extended to Republicans of the Sixth ward to organize the Sixth Ward Republican club. The meeting will be held at Jones hall, Front and Gibbs streets, tomorrow night.

A man named J. Beemer was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Hellyer and Maloney and is being held pending advice from Arizona, where it is thought he is wanted in answer for complicity in robbery of a postoffice.

Major Joseph Faulkner, divisional officer for Oregon and Idaho, will conduct a special meeting in the Salvation Army hall, 249 Madison street, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, subject, "Plea of Broken Hearts."

London, Or., Jan. 27, 1908.—Pioneer Paint Co., Portland, Or.—Dear Sirs: Would like 100 pounds of the Japanese Anti-Dust Compound shipped at once.

A series of special gospel meetings is to be held in the Third Presbyterian church, East Thirteenth and Pine streets, to be led by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Montgomery.

In its new quarters to be occupied in the Commercial club building the Portland board of trade proposes to establish a produce exchange, similar to that in Chicago and other eastern cities.

At a meeting last night of the Initiative and Referendum League in the Carpenters' union hall, East Pine and Grand avenues, it was decided to invite Francis J. Heney to deliver a lecture before the organization at an opening meeting to be held in the near future.

Members of the civil service commission decided yesterday that only lieutenants and captains will be allowed to compete for the position of battalion chief which will be vacant upon the resignation of Chief Lee Holden in February.

This is the night of the entertainment at Centenary church, on the corner of East Pine and Ninth streets. Music by male choruses and ladies' quartet. Debate on "Women's Suffrage" by William R. McGarry and Dr. Clarence True Wilson.

W. W. Babbidge and W. H. Sanford successfully completed a civil service examination for the position of pilot of the fireboat. Babbidge has been acting pilot temporarily for several months.

At a meeting of the civil service commission yesterday the following men were passed as stokers for the fireboat and fire engines in the fire department: Albert J. Hauser, Edward O. Dunlap, J. H. Campbell, Jesse Tharp, Fred E.

MAKES LIFE MISERABLE

Troubles That Keep Half the Portland Doctors Busy.

For the sake of your personal welfare, just think a moment about the process of digesting food. There are certain secretions called gastric juices that act upon the food after it is swallowed and change all the nutrition in it into life-giving blood.

From now on, build up the strength and health of the stomach with Mi-o-na tablets. You will soon find yourself strong and never know the meaning of indigestion.

Half of the prescriptions the Portland doctors write are for troubles that result directly from a weakened stomach. Strengthen the stomach muscles, increase the secretion of gastric juices, and you will find that common ailments—indigestion, with its headaches, dizziness, depression of spirits, spots before the eyes, nervousness, sleeplessness and general debility—have been overcome.

If Mi-o-na did not have an unusually certain effect on a weakened stomach, it could not be sold on the guarantee given by Woodard, Clarke & Co. To refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it is an absolute and unqualified guarantee with every 50-cent box of Mi-o-na that the money will be refunded unless the medicine has taken the whole risk, and you certainly can afford to get Mi-o-na from them on this plan.

AT THE THEATRES

Seats for "George Washington Jr." Seats are now selling at box office of the Hellig theatre for George M. Cohan's musical play, "George Washington Jr.," which will be the attraction at the above theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, February 3, 4 and 5.

Daniels in "The Tattooed Man." The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for three nights, beginning next Thursday, February 4, will be the famous American comedian, Frank Daniels, in Victor Herbert's latest comic opera, "The Tattooed Man." Seats are now selling at box office of the Hellig theatre for George M. Cohan's musical play, "George Washington Jr.," which will be the attraction at the above theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, February 3, 4 and 5.

"Way Down East" Matinee. Tomorrow there will be a matinee performance of "Way Down East" at the Marquam and the closing performance of the engagement will be tomorrow night. This famous American classic, the most popular pastoral play on the stage today, is filling the Marquam nightly, for the drama is one which advertises itself.

"Red Feather" Coming. Cheridah Simpson, one of the most popular of light opera prima donnas, is coming to the Hellig theatre for a night with "Red Feather." This opera has visited Portland several times and it has never disappointed.

"The Country Squire." Sunday afternoon and evening the attraction at the Marquam will be "The Country Squire." This play is the vehicle of the young American actor, Lee Willard, a local favorite. For several years Mr. Willard has been visiting Portland with excellent attraction.

"A Milk White Flag." No more popular farce was ever written and shined than "A Milk White Flag," and its repetition this season has proven even a greater success than last. William Hillis, Howard Russell and Fred Glendon in those excellent funny characters of the man who feigns dead to defraud the life insurance company, the regiment and the undertaker, succeed in a perfect as imagination can conceive.

"David Harum" Next Week. All the thousands of readers of Edward Noyes Westcott's noted novel, "David Harum" will rejoice to know that the greatest Crane production of the play is to be presented at the Baker all next week with the veteran character actor, William Gleason, as David.

"Peck's Bad Boy" Next Week. "Peck's Bad Boy," which will open at the Empire next Sunday matinee, is of course nothing but a bundle of fun and nonsense. And it is a bundle of fun made people laugh, both in book and play form, for, to these many years, it comes again this season with a strong company theatre to relieve the city, the groceryman, tramp and a whole lot of others too numerous to mention here.

Child to Get Big Teddy Bear. Tomorrow matinee at the Empire performance of "Big Teddy Bear," another of those big Teddy Bears, such as Benton Vaughn got a few weeks ago, will be given away to the child under 12 who guesses nearest to the correct number of persons in the audience. Tonight, tomorrow matinee and night.

"The Train Robbers." All the coming week the attraction at the Star theatre will be the French stock company in "The Train Robbers." This is a new sensational melodrama, with comedy mixed in it. "The Train Robbers" will have its first local production Sunday afternoon. The play depicts conditions of other days. The seat sale is now in progress.

"Jack Wells of Wyoming." Have you seen the cowboy play at the Lyric this week? If not, you have missed one of the season's treats in the way of theatrical offerings. The play strikes a new note in western drama and its very realism and naturalness make an appeal to the theatre-goer.

"The Wolves of New York." The attractions at the Lyric next week, commencing Monday night, will be the thrilling comedy-drama, "The Wolves of New York." It deals with present-day conditions in the metropolis and abounds in comedy, action and sentiment.

Nello Coming. The great Nello, one of the best of the juggling profession, has been engaged by Sullivan & Considine to head the new vaudeville program at the Lyric theatre next week. He will be surrounded by other strictly up-to-date vaudeville features.

Great Artist at the Grand. Abd'el Kader, assisted by his three wives and son, in a novelty painting act, is the headline act at the Grand. Any one fond of this class of art will appreciate it. The special added attraction is a comedy cycling act by the St. Onge brothers. Fred St. Onge of this act is the man that taught Helen Keller, the famous blind girl, to ride a bicycle. Remember the Sunday evening closes the current bill.

Will Juggle Some. The great Nello will juggle some at the Grand next week to prove that there is nothing but a bundle of fun and nonsense in his business. He will be assisted by Mademoiselle Nello, and the other acts of the program will be of choice assortment of clean, clever vaudeville specialties.

SONGSTERS PLEAD FOR BITE TO EAT A bird lover suggests that The Journal call the attention of the children to the condition of the birds at this time. When the ground is frozen it is difficult for the birds to find anything to eat and a few crumbs scattered in the yards will draw an appreciative company of the feathered creatures.

LARGE CROWD WILL HEAR CARRENO The Marquam lobby was filled early this morning with an impatient mob of musical enthusiasts waiting for the Carreno seat sale to open, and every indication points to a tremendous house for the great pianist on Monday evening next. Carreno always rouses freethinking and applause wherever and whenever she plays, and her path this season has simply been strewn with ovations and acclamations. Carreno it has been said that no other living pianist can obtain a more sonorous tone from her piano; she seems to wrest the maximum of sound from the strings, yet her playing never appears to be noisy and if she makes the piano thunder she can also elicit the most melodious of whispering from it. The recital at the Marquam Monday evening is under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn. Carreno and seats are now on sale at the box office.

NEW FOUNTAIN TO FACE CITY HALL Through the efforts of the women a public fountain has been purchased in New York to be set up in front of the St. John's city hall. It was purchased of the J. L. Mott Iron Works, New York city. The fountain will be erected on the three-cornered block in front of the newly completed city hall. The fountain is a fine piece of art, and the ground basin is nine feet and six inches in diameter. There are two pipes above the ground pan making a double fountain. It is the intention to have it illuminated at night so that it will show up to the best advantage. The installation has been in charge of the city council and the city will maintain the fountain after it has been installed.

MME. TERESA CARRENO

Teresa Carreno, whose fame as a pianist, whose art and life are now at their greatest, will appear at the Marquam Grand, Monday evening, February 3.

Carreno is always a person of exceptional interest; and of this extremely fascinating woman and artist it has been often said that she is one of those richly endowed and satisfying women whom to know is to love, and to know intimately is a liberal education.

Neither her personal beauty nor the beauty of her art has faded. On the contrary, her charms have mellowed like the tone of a glorious violin that comes to its fullness as the years pass. Many artists are sadly dissatisfied by her father from this, and under his instructions applied herself to routine exercise work—and later, but when quite young, she had composed several pieces; and it was she who wrote the Venezuelan National Hymn.

Mme. Carreno uses the Everett piano. It is a piano of marvelous tone quality and is rapidly being recognized as one of the world's foremost pianos. The Grand piano which Mme. Carreno will use is now on exhibition in our window.

A New Departure The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company. Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside hearse or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriage, thus effecting a saving of $15 to $25 on each funeral.
