

THE STORE NOTED FOR BEST GOODS AT LOWEST PRICES

Portland Agents Paris Patterns—10c Each

Exhibit and Sale of NEW SPRINGSUITS Monday and Tuesday

A splendid opportunity for you to view the very latest style effects from New York and Paris. Monday and Tuesday we place on display a hundred and fifty new spring suits and coats, correct models in the very latest fabrics and colorings.

BLACK VOILE SKIRTS Fine black French voile skirts, in full box or cluster plaited styles, some plain and others with taffeta bands; splendid quality of material and regular $14 to $17 values. $11.45

WOMEN'S LONG COATS Women's Long Coats in brown and gray mixtures with velvet and braid trimmed collar and cuffs; well tailored throughout and best $30 values, Monday and Tuesday. $24.95

BLANKETS AND COMFORTERS

Extra quality white Wool Blankets, red, pink and blue borders, silk bound; regular $3.50 grade, Monday and Tuesday, pair. $2.65

Full-size white Wool Blankets, good weight, pink and blue borders and silk binding; best $5 values, special. $3.73

Heavy gray Wool Blankets, fancy colored borders and the same grade we have sold all season at $5 a pair, Monday and Tuesday. $3.95

Heavy stitched Comforters, dark colors only, covered with good grade creton; standard $1.35 grade, Monday and Tuesday. 98c

Full bed-size Comforters in light and dark colors, good and heavy and best regular $1.50 grade, Monday and Tuesday, each. $1.23

Full-size Comforters, filled with pure white laminated cotton, hand tufted; good assortment of light and dark $2.25 values. $1.65

Special Reductions on CREAM DRESS GOODS

Cream Dress Goods and Silks specially priced for Monday and Tuesday's selling. Orders by mail will be given the same careful attention as though you were shopping in person. Note carefully the following special bargains:

NUNS VEILING AT 47c 38-inch cream Nuns Veiling, a splendid quality and the identical grade sold at other stores at 65c a yard. On sale Monday and Tuesday at forty-seven cents a yard.

NUNS VEILING AT 63c 48-inch cream Nuns Veiling, warranted all pure wool and our best regular 75c grade, makes up beautifully; on sale Monday and Tuesday at sixty-three cents a yard.

CHIFFON PANAMA 97c 44-inch cream Chiffon Panama, fine even texture and finish; a splendid $1.25 quality and never sold for less, Monday and Tuesday at ninety-seven cents a yard.

TAFFETA SILK AT 59c 20-inch cream Taffeta Silk, warranted every thread pure silk, splendid weight and finish and equal to any 75c Taffeta in town. A great special bargain.

Mail Orders Given Prompt and Careful Attention McAllen & McDonnell Corner Third and Morrison Streets Mail Orders Given Prompt and Careful Attention were run from The Dalles and other neighboring points. Harold Chamberlain, who took so prominent a part in the Trinity choir here, took part as one of the soloists and became a favorite. Another of the soloists was Miss Nellie MacPherson, who is well known here because she was a graduate a few years ago from St. Helen's hall, and sang very prettily at that time.

Mrs. Chamberlain was much entertained while dining, and a house party was given for her by the Amosens, with whom her son is making his home.

Mrs. Richard Nunn entertained with 15 tables of bridge Wednesday afternoon. About the rooms were yellow daffodils and tulips. The tables were designated by colors and to the winner at each table was given a bouquet of flowers in the corresponding color—blue for violets, red for carnations, yellow for daffodils and so on. The tables were marked with colored ribbon instead of numbers. Miss Lucie Adams, Miss Clemantine Wilson and Miss Russell assisted the hostess.

The guests were Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Miss Von Bolton, Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. R. J. Chipman, Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain, Mrs. Harrison Corbett, Mrs. E. C. Crocker, Mrs. Henry E. King, Miss Gilsan, Mrs. George Good, Mrs. H. D. Green, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Miss Ella Hinch, Mrs. Morton H. Ingle, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. S. Stewart, Mrs. L. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. T. W. B. London, Mrs. E. C. Meares, Mrs. Arthur McCracken, Mrs. C. C. Nichols, Mrs. G. O. Pelgram, Mrs. A. C. Panton, Miss Panton, Miss Russell, Mrs. George Russell, Mrs. Lewis Russell, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Mrs. Henry E. King, Mrs. J. R. Sargent, Mrs. Fred G. Sykes, Mrs. Zora Snow, Mrs. John Shepard, Mrs. George S. Taylor, Mrs. G. L. B. Taylor, Mrs. T. Williams, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. F. G. Wheeler, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. Gordon Voorhes and Mrs. John Eben Young.

Mrs. Guy Webster was the hostess at a pretty tea Tuesday afternoon, formally introducing her cousin, Mrs. Charles Bowman of Toledo, Ohio, who has recently come here to make her home. Receiving with them was Mrs. Harriet Greer of Peoria, Illinois, an old friend, who is visiting at the Hill for a few weeks. Mrs. Bowman is handsomely gowned in a net of white with Dresden figures of lavender and yellow, and with touches of the same colors in trimmings. Mrs. Greer wore a pale blue cloth gown hand embroidered in pink and white. Mrs. Bowman was gowned in white Persian silk flowered in pink.

In the dining room tea was poured by Mrs. Robert W. Lewis and Mrs. John Deben Young. Assisting them were Miss Iles Koehler, in lavender silk, and the Misses Barber and Hazel Crocker and the Misses Miriam Strong, a great number all in white frocks. In the reception room Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, in a handsome brown velvet costume, Mrs. William H. Duff, in a handsome blue and white costume, Mrs. Frank Freeman in pink and white silk, assisted.

Mrs. Frank Freeman entertained at bridge Wednesday afternoon her young unmarried friends, to meet her sister, Miss Bertha Tongue, who has come from Hillsboro to spend the winter. The prize winners were Miss Louise Flanders and Miss Susie Stott. Mrs. Freeman's guests were Miss Bertha Tongue, Miss Frances Lewis, Miss Lucia Young, Miss Louise Flanders, Miss Susie Stott, Miss Amy Heitsch, Miss Katherine Johnson of Vancouver barracks, Miss Hazel Crocker, Miss Barbara Crocker, Miss Mary Morris of Duluth, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Isabel Bryan, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Margaret Calkins, Miss Alice Stronm, Miss Gladys Weidner, Miss Edna Houghton, Miss Claire Houghton, Miss Josephine Smith and Miss Helen Eastham and Miss Dorothy Morrison.

Miss Jessie E. Morehead entertained a number of friends at her home, 393 Stanton street, Wednesday evening. Music and games were the feature of entertainment during the evening. Miss Chrystal Oakman won the first prize in the gingerbread man contest. A dainty luncheon was served, and flower lights were taken. Among those present were Miss Katherine O'Brien, Miss Gertrude Kinsey, Miss Tora Malm, Miss Frances Streib, Miss Ida How, Miss Emma Schwahn of St. Louis, Miss Grace Taylor, Miss Katherine Olander, Miss Edna Fanning, Miss Ida How, Miss Salmon of Omaha, Miss Martha Orth, Miss Rose DuBoise, Miss Grace Jones, Miss Helen and Chrystal Oakman, Miss Nell Mattinson, Mrs. Small, Mrs. Ragen and Mrs. M. F. Calkins, William Low was the mascot.

Mrs. W. C. Alvord arranged a charming surprise tea for her mother, Mrs. Philip Schuyler, Tuesday in compliment to the latter's seventieth birthday. All the older people called during the afternoon and some of Mrs. Schuyler's contemporaries assisted in doing the honors. The room was beautifully decorated with quantities of flowers sent in by friends. Mrs. Alvord received with Mrs. Schuyler, and assisting were Mrs. G. Wheeler, Mrs. Harrison Corbett and Miss Failing. In the dining-room Mrs. George W. Hoyt, Sr. and Mrs. Rodney Gilsan, poured tea, and in the library Mrs. W. S. Ladd and Mrs. H. W. Corbett served ice. A unique feature was the birthday cake, which was really little cakes, each with a candle of its own, brought in on a salver.

There is a good deal of interest in the engagement of Miss Laura Dunne to John Ker, which was announced last week by her parents, Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunne. Miss Dunne has long been prominent in the Dix crowd and has many friends among the young people. Mr. Ker was formerly of Mississippi and has recently made his home here. He is a nephew of Governor Chamberlain.

An engagement of interest to the younger people was announced last week when Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Mastick made public the engagement of their daughter Miss Edwina Baird Mastick to Gerald Anthony of Alameda, Cal.

Hornia. The wedding is to take place in the spring. Miss Mastick is one of the clearest and most popular girls of her set. She has a beautiful soprano voice, which, prior to her retirement from public musical work this fall, was bringing her to the front as one of the most prominent of the younger singers. During her stay in the city, she has been a member of the First Congregational choir she substituted, and last winter she was the soprano soloist of the First Unitarian church. She has a graduate's degree from the University of California. No sorority and a most charming young hostess who will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Albert Feldenheimer entertained with five tables of military whist Thursday afternoon. The table winning consisted of Mrs. Charles Kohn, Mrs. Herman Metzger, Mrs. Loewenberg and Mrs. Coblenz. The other guests were Mrs. Adolph Wolfe, Mrs. Solomon Rosenfeld, Mrs. Ethel Rosenfeld, Mrs. Charles Rosenfeld, Mrs. Fred Rothchild, Mrs. Emil Frank, Mrs. Julius Lang, Mrs. J. N. Lipman, Mrs. Newton Blum, Mrs. Mrs. Josephine Oshman, Rittenberger, Mrs. Oppenheimer, Mrs. Joseph D. Meyer, Miss Hilda Jacobs, Miss Dittenhofer and Mrs. Ben Neustader.

Mrs. Wallace McCamant is entertaining her mother, Mrs. William M. Davis and her sister, Miss Davis of Philadelphia, New Jersey. She is giving a series of parties for the benefit of the home, visiting in a few of her friends at a time. Last Monday and Friday afternoons a few called, and this Monday there will be some more.

Mr. and Mrs. Zora Snow entertained at dinner Friday evening in compliment to Judge and Mrs. William H. Hunt. Covers were laid for 10, the guests being Dr. and Mrs. Holt C. V. Ayer, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Judge and Mrs. Hunt, Miss Martha Hoyt and W. D. Wheelwright.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Adams and son Paul returned last week from a pleasant trip through the eastern states. They visited Chicago, Washington, New York, St. Louis, Salt Lake and Mount Vernon, and their children, who were, where they had not been for 14 years.

An elaborate affair was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wolfe in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Mrs. Florence Wolfe, at their handsome King's Heights home. Miss Wolfe and W. J. Lipman led the cotillon.

Miss George Warren entertained with a pretty luncheon Friday, in compliment to Miss Mary Morris of Duluth, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wells Gilbert. Covers were laid for 10 and yellow daffodils were the decoration.

Mrs. E. E. Merges of Everett street, returned from Seattle Friday, where she had been spending a fortnight with friends. Mr. Merges of Seattle will be Mrs. Merges' guest for a few weeks.

Next Tuesday Mrs. Isam White will entertain with a large dinner for the young people in honor of her nephew, Mr. Landeberger of San Francisco.

Mrs. Charles King entertained the bridge club at the Portland Friday, and Mrs. Julius Meier and Mrs. Charles Feldenheimer were the winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Nicolai, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. O'Gorman and Miss McCord were guests last week at Coronado Beach, California.

Mrs. A. Opendorfer entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Abe Meier, who is leaving for Europe.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The women of the Present Day club, with their husbands, and a few invited guests, numbering in all about 40, enjoyed a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bergen Tuesday night, with program and refreshments. J. E. Weirich, as Mrs. Weirich's proxy, introduced himself as president of the club, and announced the program. Miss Eva Graves, a young pianist, played Liszt's "Fifth Nocturne," in a most satisfactory manner, followed by F. S. Peirce, whose selection, Schubert's "Serenade," showed his pleasing voice to the best advantage. A solo, "Madonella," "To Wild Rose," by Miss Mary Cahill, gave evidence of real artistic feeling and splendid training, and was greatly enjoyed as was the baritone solo of H. Parrish, in De Koven's "Arnour's Song." Mrs. Alice B. Marshall followed Mr. Parrish with Chopin's "Waltz," and Mrs. Parrish's charming eversion with her artistic interpretation. Miss Sabina Dent sang "The Gettysburg Address" and "The Gettysburg Address" in a most impressive manner. Mrs. Staples and Miss Quigley were accompanists.

The Oregon chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held a meeting Friday at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Duff, Twenty-second and Hoyt streets. Mrs. Duff has often tendered the hospitality of her home to the Oregon chapter. An interesting lecture of the "Life of Stonewall Jackson" was given by Captain James H. Critchfield, a member of the chapter. The audience with a violin solo. A course of historical study of the Confederate general was given by Mrs. Benjamin C. George H. Stovall. The life of Jefferson Davis is the first number of the series. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Stovall for her contribution of a substantial sum she presented to the Oregon chapter, realized from her charming lecture from Dixie land, recently given in Women of Woodcraft hall. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. J. Johnson, at Twenty-second and Clatskanie streets, the evening of February 14.

The Tuesday afternoon club met with Mrs. S. H. Hudson. After the business session the hostess took charge of the following program: Piano solo, Mrs. C. W. Frasse the second. Those present were Mrs. W. Frasse, Mrs. E. B. Roth, Mrs. W. W. Christie, Mrs. D. D. Love, Mrs. C. F. Frasse, Mrs. W. M. Kennedy, Mrs. A. Gill, Mrs. S. W. Ammer and Mrs. E. W. Benjamin. Dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Benjamin.

Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby gave a reception last Saturday evening at Fellowship headquarters, 51 S. Hill street, at which Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas Mills were guests of honor. Mr. Mills spoke very interestingly on "The Fellowship Idea." A good musical program was given by Mrs. Wigham, William L. and Miss Grace Story. Refreshments were served, the color scheme being yellow.

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. H. Ehlers by the Sunflower club at her home on Montana avenue Wednesday afternoon, January 22. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

A pleasant surprise party was given Saturday evening in honor of Roy Ward, at his home in Fulton. Many interesting regarding the much-admired author of "Alhambra." The discussion that followed the address and the quotations from the author under discussion that were given in response to roll call, made the afternoon one of great interest. A social hour followed the program.

The "Faithful Few," 17 in number, members of Fram assembly, No. 121, United Artisans, were tendered a banquet at the Vienna cafe, Tuesday evening. William Pritchard acted as toastmaster. Those present were: H. S. Hudson, Mrs. J. Leach and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. William Pritchard, Mrs. Emma McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Paddison, Mr. Galt, Mrs. Bentley, Miss Phipps, Miss Ada and Margaret Gordon, Mrs. W. W. Lyon and Mrs. J. B. Olmsted.

A largely attended and pretty reception of the week, was given by Mrs. M. Perlot to her many friends, at her home, 408 Mechanic street. The parlor and dining-room were decorated with Oregon grape and potted plants. Military whist was played and the first prizes were won by Mrs. B. Moritz and F. Moner. The second prizes were won by Mrs. Otto Wackow and Joe Moner. Refreshments were served, later an elaborate supper was served.

Mrs. Mary Steele celebrated her 70th birthday last Saturday evening, at her home near Mt. Oregon. Games and music were enjoyed during the evening. Dainty refreshments were served at 6 o'clock. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Riddiman, Mrs. N. D. Peterson, Mrs. William Pringle, David Kaye Masters, Earl and Henry Riddiman, Miss Grace Mann, Edlin Peterson, Lincoln Peterson, Misses Mabel and Reta Pringle, Miss Ruth Riddiman, L. H. Peterson, Robert Irving, Clause Messing and Mrs. Mary Steele.

The S. F. H. club met at the home of Mrs. Watter Webster Wednesday. Mrs. W. A. Gill won the first prize and Mrs. C. F. Frasse the second. Those present were Mrs. W. Frasse, Mrs. E. B. Roth, Mrs. W. W. Christie, Mrs. D. D. Love, Mrs. C. F. Frasse, Mrs. W. M. Kennedy, Mrs. A. Gill, Mrs. S. W. Ammer and Mrs. E. W. Benjamin. Dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Benjamin.

Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby gave a reception last Saturday evening at Fellowship headquarters, 51 S. Hill street, at which Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas Mills were guests of honor. Mr. Mills spoke very interestingly on "The Fellowship Idea." A good musical program was given by Mrs. Wigham, William L. and Miss Grace Story. Refreshments were served, the color scheme being yellow.

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. H. Ehlers by the Sunflower club at her home on Montana avenue Wednesday afternoon, January 22. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

ing and amusing games were played, after which light refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Pauline Whitaker, Grace Brackett, Agnes Harwar, Bertha Sabel, Mary Regner, Pearl Ward, Julia Riesel, Marie Meagher, Ella and Catherine Gaynor and Roy Ward, Edward Gaynor, Edward Johnson, William Keesey, Baylor Wynkoop, Frank Regner, Charles Schneider and William McCormick.

The Philathea club of the East Forty-fifth Street Baptist church met at the home of Winnie Shrake Friday. A very pleasant afternoon was spent in studying the missions in China. Mrs. Shrake served refreshments.

Miss Ialine Hookman entertained a few of her friends at a whist party at her home in Myrtle Park Thursday evening.

WEDDINGS

A very pretty home wedding took place last Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Biagen at Hoquiam, Washington, when their daughter, Florence, was united in marriage to William Harold Staiger of Portland, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George A. Bala, pastor of the First Baptist church of Hoquiam.

The bride was given away by her father. Her sister, Mrs. John Halle Blackburn, acted as maid of honor; her little sister, Christie, as ring bearer, and Elizabeth Adams was flower girl. The bridegroom was attended by Clifford Warren of Portland. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin with duchesse lace and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and orchids. Mrs. Blackburn wore her wedding gown, a lace robe, and carried a shower of bride roses and pink gage ribbons. The little ring bearer and flower girl were daintily dressed in fluffy white material. The ceremony took place before an altar of greens clothed with greens and white carnations, green and white being the color scheme of the bridal parlors.

The wedding supper was served by candlelight and the color scheme of the dining-room was white and pink. The bridal table was in green and white and many little incandescent lights were used among the greens. Mr. and Mrs. A. Staiger, Franklin Staiger and Mrs. Frederick Eggert, parents, brother and aunt of the groom, were in attendance from Portland. Amid a shower of pink rose petals and gold ribbons Mr. and Mrs. Staiger left for a short trip and will be at home at Alexandria Court after February 15.

Mrs. Staiger in coming to Portland is returning to the home of her girlhood. Her parents until recently resided here. Sidney B. Moore and Mellie C. Smith were married January 22, at the home of Mrs. Ella Gomez, sister of the bride. Rev. B. Clarence Cook officiating. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only immediate relatives and friends being present. The guests were Mrs. Ella

WARNER'S CORSETS

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets in medium, long skirt and medium long over abdomen, front and side support—95c

H. & W. Corset Waists for children, the best corset waist made, comes in ages 2 to 12; regular 35c grade, special, each—25c

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets for medium figures, high bust, full hip and round waist, long back and skirt, special—$1.35

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets for stout full figures, extra heavy boning with French sectional gore, hose supporters, special—$2.25

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets for the average figure, medium dip hip model, front and side supporters; $2 grade, special—$1.80

Redfern Corsets, style F model for well developed figures, low bust and long hip, hose supporters front and sides—$3.15

HAVE YOUR CALLING CARDS

WEDDING INVITATIONS AND MONOGRAM STATIONERY ENGRAVED AT RUSHTON'S 408 Stearns Building Corner Sixth and Morrison

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS

W. G. SMITH & CO. WASHINGTON BUILDING

Gomes, Mrs. E. Nordenson, Mrs. Mar Lawson, Mrs. J. E. Dunbar and litt Bertha Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be at home to their friends at 81 Clinton street.

Mrs. Anna Huguette of Vancouver, Washington, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Madeline to Albert J. Wroblecki of Vancouver. The wedding took place at St. James' cathedral, Vancouver, Wednesday, January 29. Rev. Father Verwilligan performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Wroblecki will be at home to their friends at 81 Gantenbein avenue, Portland, after February 15.

Monday afternoon, J. N. Ewing and Mrs. Sadie B. Cook, both of this city were united in marriage in the reception room of the White Temple. Dr. J. W. Comb Broucher officiating. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present.

Monday afternoon, at 371 Colfax street, Tobias Smith and Miss Sadie Hengeveld of Portland were married by Rev. Henry A. Barden. N. H. G. Schuch was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside at 309 North Seventh street.

A church wedding of some promise was celebrated last Sunday afternoon 2 o'clock when Miss Frida Heller, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. Heller, became the wife of Maur (Continued on Page Three.)

Miss Edwina Mastick. Her Engagement is Announced.