Thursday, January 30. Sunnyside W. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. L. M. Walker, 1100 East Morrison street, for the regular monthly mother's meeting. Special invitations were given to a num-ber of the young mothers in the neigh-borhood. About 45 were present. Mrs. Hiddan of Central W. C. T. U. spoke on the subject of "Purity in Art and Literature." The speaker emphasized the thought that children are greatly influenced by the kind of reading given them as well as the foolish and almost valgar pictures in some of the newspa-pers. Mrs. Hidden cautoned mothers against allowing children to attend vau-deville shows and matinees. The mem-Walker, 1100 East Morrison street, for isgainst allowing children to attend vau-deville shows and matinees.
