

TEEN OVER THE FOOTLIGHTS

CARTER DE HAVEN AND FLORA PARKER IN "GEO. WASHINGTON JR."

Hellig—"George Washington Jr." The curtain went up and displayed six chorus maidens (maidens; unmarried women) dancing and singing very hard, with as many men in blue uniforms also dancing and singing very hard. Mt. Vernon was in the background and the 12 hopped, skipped and jumped in the foreground, and sang "He Was a Wonderful Man." Everybody in the Hellig clapped and the woman in front of me exclaimed "Isn't that pretty?" When the dozen had finished and responded to several enthusiastic encores Flora Parker, who is pretty and petite and ridiculously self-conscious of it all stepped out and sang "Virginia." There were more exclamations of delight from all around. The man across the aisle started in to applaud not too hard but still hard enough to be heard. He didn't stop until the curtain went down and it was time to help his young lady on with her wraps. Carter DeHaven who made a name for himself in vaudeville, and who is playing the part of George Washington Jr., came out with a dash. Mr. DeHaven is slender and clever and graceful. He is much better than Cohan himself ever hoped to be. There was a great waving of American flags and George delivered himself of "The Grand Old Flag Is a Highflying Rag." Patriotic Portland was beside itself. The young lady now M. Ann, 17, almost went right up to the cannon's mouth. She exclaimed, as the last strains died away. Then the real humor began. George's papa and George had the funniest encounter. The house nearly split its sides laughing. The lady in the front thought she'd die. George told his father that he didn't have to mind him nor hold any respect for him but that he would stand right up and call him all the names he could think of. "I'm a good American I am," said George, "and I've signed the Declaration of Independence." This sentiment took down the house. It's good thing there weren't many Yellow Perils scattered around the audience or there might have been bloodshed. George had patriotically exhausted themselves vilifying one another there was some more singing by a large and well-trained Cohan troupe and pretty soon Aunt Stebbins who is Senator Stebbins' unmarried sister and a leader of American society came on and there was some more real good humor. When the senator says something that awntie doesn't like awntie puts on her most regal air and screams "about up" at him. As soon as she has finished she turns to the delighted audience and in still shriller tones and everybody, at least everybody who admires real independence, just applauds until her hands hurt. Awntie doesn't fall to follow up this advantage. In act 2 she makes herself still stronger with her admirers. Act 3 takes place in the Willard hotel in Washington, you know. They are holding a ball—one of those real swell diplomatic balls that you read about in the Sunday papers—and unfortunately two old gentlemen against whom awntie has a grudge get in awntie's path. But does this raise the relatives of George Washington Jr.? Oh no. Stepping right up to 'em and looking em square in the eye, just so, awntie

AMERICAN THROWS HIMSELF IN FRONT OF MACHINE ON STREETS OF PARIS.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Paris, Feb. 4.—Yesterday in the Champs Elysees an automobile struck an old man, killing him instantly. An examination by a policeman, who witnessed the affair, showed that the old man, who was an American, threw himself in front of the machine, evidently for the purpose of suicide. The minister Barthou presided at a meeting of the commission charged with arranging means for the conduct of the international congress on roads, to be held here in February. The city of Bordeaux has been thrown into confusion by the strike of the employees of the electrical company. France has to experience that strikes are not only French, or European, or American, but universal, and that they are in Asia as everywhere else in the world where men work. A great theft of works of art has occurred in the Picardy museum, among which are five famous pictures of Fraagonard, Bucherb and Vanloo.

EDUCATORS ON EASTERN TRIP

Ackerman and Kerr on Important Missions—Kerr's Plans for O. A. C. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Feb. 4.—State Superintendent Ackerman of the department of public instruction and President Kerr of O. A. C. will start east Wednesday to attend the national of superintendence of the National Education association, which meets at Washington, District of Columbia. While Mr. Ackerman will visit schools in eastern cities, President Kerr will look up instructors for the heads of the department of domestic economy and the industrial shops. He will spare no pains to secure the best material for these important positions. The O. A. C. college is to be taken entirely out of the competitive class in the line of literary and commercial courses. It is the ambition of President Kerr to make the agricultural college responsive to the needs of the state in the line of industrial and technical education.

CHINESE MISSION TO GIVE PROGRAM

The Methodist Episcopal Chinese mission will give an entertainment at the Taylor Street Methodist Episcopal church this evening at 8 o'clock for the benefit of the Chinese missionary work. The program will consist of solos, duets, quartets and recitations. Seid Back Jr., United States Chinese interpreter, who has returned from Washington, D. C., will give some special numbers. William Lal, the tenor, will also please the audience with his singing. There will be 16 characters, each representing a different class. Miss Marie Lalle Ment of the Oregon Conservatory of Music will act as accompanist. She will also give an instrumental solo. The entertainment is under the direction of Mrs. M. E. Hawley, an active worker in the Chinese work of this city.

SHOULD END TOMORROW.

By noon tomorrow we should dispose of every one of the remaining fine used pianos, quoted in our last Sunday's Journal announcement. We are offering an additional discount of 4 per cent from sale prices on every one of the remaining upright pianos, square pianos, organs and the pianola. Eilers Piano House.

JINGLE RIDE NO SOONER BEGINS THAN IT ENDS

"Golly," said the black horse. "Jingo," said the bay. "Ain't it an awful job to haul this sleigh?" "If it had not been for that bling blanged, canthooked, single jammed, eight mile an hour ordinance, I could have beat that ding busted, wobble wheeled frost cart to city limits," mourned Jack Esterson yesterday as he came into one of the Places and said to make it hot. "What's the matter, Jack?" sympathized the gent in the white coat who makes the circular motion over the long cherry slab. "Why do you mourn in this torrid and humid climate?" "O, the jig goggled flag tickled my horse's nose all the way down the stretch, and when I hit the bitulittle the friction started a hot box and I got shut out." The Innocent Spectator furnished the annotations to the tale.

MONTEVIDEO COURT HAS NEW DIVORCE LAW

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Montevideo, Feb. 4.—The court today tried its first divorce case under the new law. Several cases from Argentina presented themselves for divorces, but were refused the action of the court on the ground that no divorce granted by this court would be of value in a foreign country, unless the parties were married here. Masons to Reduce Tax. Albany, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons began its annual convocation here today with delegates present from all parts of the state. The Grand Chapter has accumulated a large surplus fund in its treasury, and as a consequence it is expected the convocation will act favorably on a proposition to reduce the per capita tax of the chapters. Cortelyou, Bryan and Day. New York, Feb. 4.—The Missouri society has secured noted speakers and otherwise arranged an elaborate program for its annual dinner at the Plaza hotel tonight. Foremost among those slated to address the exiled Missourians are William J. Bryan, Secretary of the Treasury, Chauncey D. Chandler Day of Syracuse university,

TYSON SAYS SIX MONTHS

The medical term for "kidney trouble" is Nephritis. Medical works agree that it is curable during the acute or first stage and that it is incurable in the second or chronic stage. When is the line crossed? One of the latest authorities, James Tyson, M. D., professor of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, says in his late work, page 121, that the changes have been observed as early as the tenth week and are probably established in all cases by the FIFTH MONTH. The name Nephritis means inflammation of the kidneys and the books having nothing for it physicians have been helpless (the deaths have grown to 170 daily), and Professor Tyson plainly says: Page 156 as to curative measures to restore the kidney to its normal condition, "I BELIEVE THERE ARE NONE." The inevitable logic of this situation is that Fulton's Renal Compound is the only thing known that reduces inflammation of the kidneys after it has become chronic. It is the only thing in the world that people can look to for recovery who have had kidney trouble longer than six months. Note the fact that it is the only thing that acts directly on kidney inflammation at any stage, first or last. But it naturally reduces it more quickly before than after it becomes chronic.) Literature mailed free. JOHN J. FULTON CO., Oakland, Cal. Fulton's Renal Compound can be had at all first-class drug stores.

PERU MAY START WAR WITH BRAZIL

Peruvian Soldiers Embark for Frontier on the Putumayo River. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Rio de Janeiro, Feb. 4.—Don Felipe Mello, Brazilian consul at Iquitos, in Peru on the upper Amazon has notified his government that the Peruvian steamer Cosmopolita, belonging to the house of Arana, and which has been employed in navigating the upper Amazon under the Brazilian flag, has embarked 400 Peruvian soldiers, with four cannons and much war material for the river Putumayo. The object is to attack the Brazilian ports. It is not believed here that Peru has any such project against the state has a portion of its northern boundary lying along the Putumayo river, it is thought she is going to protect her frontier, which is more easily reached by water than by marching troops through the hot equatorial region lying in that direction.

CHILE MUST NOT TRY TO PLACE BIG LOAN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Santiago, Chile, Feb. 4.—The Chilean minister in London counsels this government to avoid attempting to place a loan in Europe at present, as the late condition of our banks and public credit would prejudice the attempt. He thinks that a year of good crops sent abroad will justify an attempt in that direction. The minister also says that the Chilean government will justify any effort in the direction of a loan.

OPEN TEMPLE OF JUSTICE.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 4.—The handsome new building erected for the use of the Illinois supreme court was formally dedicated today with ceremonies appropriate to the occasion. The entire court building of the Illinois State Bar association and the leading participants included President James H. Matheny of that organization, Governor Deussen, General Benson Wood of Effingham, who delivered the dedicatory oration, and Chief Justice Hand, who made the response in behalf of the state judiciary.

TO ENJOIN RAILROAD COMMISSION.

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 4.—Hearing was begun in the federal court here today on the petition filed by the Iron Mountain railroad for an injunction restraining the Arkansas railroad commission from assisting in or bringing suits against the railroad company for alleged illegal discrimination in furnishing cars to the Western Coal and Mining company at Spadra, Arkansas. The suits in question are to collect state taxes, penalties amounting to nearly $1,000,000.

RECIPE FOR COLDS

Mix half pint of good whiskey with two ounces of glycerine and add one half ounce Concentrated oil of pine. The bottle is to be well shaken each time and used in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours. The Concentrated oil of pine comes in one-half ounce vials packed in tin screw-top cases, for which are intended to protect it from light and retain all the original ozone. Don't use bulk oil of pine or imitations of Concentrated. They are insoluble and work havoc to the kidneys. Any druggist has the Concentrated oil of pine. Concentrated oil of pine is the result of many years' experimenting with fine embryonic and budding and used in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours. It also makes an excellent salve to be applied externally on the chest or bruised parts. For this purpose mix one part of the oil with one part of vasoline and add to a saucerful of hot lard.
