Kidney-Cure Tea

Not medicine. For sale by W. J. Van Damme, 185 Morrison st., next to Pap's coffee house. Call and read the testimonials of those who have been cured of kidney troubles through the use of this tea.

I sell my kidney cure (just tea, no medicine) on the condition of "No cure, money refunded." The tea is put up in 60c and $1.10 bottles. A trial will convince.

NEW TESTIMONIALS.

Mr. A. L. Petty of 265 Portland boulevard, was doctoring for 15 years for what the physicians called rheumatism. He could not get around without the aid of a heavy cane, but after taking three bottles of Kidney Cure Tea he threw the cane away and went to work. Eight bottles completely cured him, which demonstrated that while the physicians were dosing him for rheumatism, he really had kidney trouble.

A. J. Wilks of 799 Williams avenue suffered for 10 or 12 years with kidney trouble, and a prominent physician wanted $200 to treat him. His back was as black as his hat, and his stomach so inflamed that he could not button his pants or vest. He was induced to try a bottle of Kidney Cure Tea. He immediately had some relief and by the time that he had taken 10 bottles he was completely cured. Where his clothing was too tight, there is now 10 inches of space between his vest and his pants.

BRIDE'S TEN CHILDREN CAUSE HIM TROUBLE

Maguire Tells Magistrate Job of Caring for Widow's Family Is Too Large.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—Although only a month has elapsed since William Maguire, who lives in Marshall street above Dauphin, married a widow with 10 children, he is already regretting the step he took.

Maguire was before Magistrate Scott in the central police court yesterday morning, accused by his bride, who was Mrs. Clark of 2,026 Hope street, with neglecting to support his family. In his defense Maguire told a story which frequently provoked loud laughter in the courtroom.

"When I got out the license to marry this woman and the clerk heard of her children, he told me I certainly had a big heart," said Maguire. "He spoke the truth, judge, but bless your heart, I realize now I have a big job, a bigger job on my hands than I can look out for."

From what Maguire said it appeared that all his trouble was due to miscalculations he made before the marriage as to just how he would support the widow and her big family. She had told him, he said, that three of her children—young men as big as Maguire—were working and that all he would have to do was to provide money to pay the rent of their home. Maguire consequently calculated that it would be comparatively easy sailing for him in looking after the family.

"But, judge," said Maguire, "I no sooner got married than these three sons of my wife quit work. Of course I kicked. I saw what was coming. These sons made it so unpleasant for me I had to get out. I am willing to take care of my wife."

"And you have only been married a month," commented the magistrate.

"Yes; and by gosh, here I am," said Maguire, "still on my honeymoon, spending it in a patrol wagon."

The magistrate said he was sorry for Maguire, and he released him upon his own recognizance to appear for trial.

State Loses Petition.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Salem, Feb. 5.—The application of the state public buildings board for a switch from the Southern Pacific at the site of the new state institution for the feeble minded, near this city, has been turned down by the company. The railroad commission has now taken up the fight, as it means a saving of many thousand dollars to the state on the contract price of the buildings, and has ordered the corporation to install the switch.
