CELEBRATE DEATH OF JUDGE JIM HARGIS

Bonfires Burned on Tops of Mountains in Kentucky Last Night.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 8. — Bonfires blazed on mountain tops last night in celebration of the death of Jim Hargis, who was killed by his son, Beach, Thursday.

A rider dashed through the mountain district announcing the assassination of the feud leader, stopping at every cabin to shout the "good" news. Hence there was great rejoicing, it seemed, wherever the news was brought, as "Judge" Jim Hargis was feared by many. Everybody for miles around started fires on the mountain peaks and discussed the news for hours.

Judge Hargis was killed by his own son in a quarrel last Wednesday. Young Hargis had been drinking and was publicly upbraided by his father. Later the young man walked up to his parent and poured five shots from a revolver into the judge's body.

STARTS NORTH ON MAIDEN VOYAGE

Steamer Rose City Leaves San Francisco for Portland With Big Cargo.

LONGSHOREMEN WILL LOSE ON NEW BOAT

Earnings of Men Who Handle Cargoes Will Be Reduced to the Extent of About 25 Per Cent Because of Elimination of Overtime.

The Harriman liner Rose City left San Francisco today at 11 o'clock for Portland on her first run in the regular service between the Rose and Bay cities. She will be here Tuesday morning.

The Rose City is said to have been placed in fine shape and made as comfortable as a floating palace. She has accommodations for 200 first-class passengers and 125 in the steerage, and it is believed that she will bring nearly a full list on her first trip north, although passenger traffic by water is rather light this time of year. Local officials of the company say the steamer will bring 2,000 tons of freight.

The introduction of a seven-day schedule instead of the six-day service between Portland and San Francisco will save the company several thousand dollars a month in stevedoring fees. By giving the steamers four days at this end of the route and five days in San Francisco it will not be necessary to work freight overtime, which will mean a loss of about $25 a month to every longshoreman employed on the Harriman liners plying out of here, and that much of a saving to the company.

When the Costa Rica and Senator covered the route on the six-day schedule it was necessary to have a great deal of discharging and loading done at night, when the longshoremen were entitled to overtime. Henceforth the work will be done during regular working hours.

The steamer Hanalei arrived at Couch street dock last night from San Francisco with 400 tons of general merchandise, the largest cargo of its class brought here for some time by one of the independent coasters. She also had a good list of passengers. For a return cargo the Hanalei will take wheat at Oceanic dock.

The steam schooner Johan Poulsen, which also arrived up last night from San Francisco, is discharging a large shipment of paints and oils at the Oak street dock today, preparatory to loading wheat and lumber for a return cargo. The steam schooner R. D. Inman, which was expected up last night from San Francisco, stopped at the box factory at Astoria to take on a shipment of lumber. She will be in the local harbor this evening.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL.

Remains of Sailor Acrobat Ernest Himpel Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Ernest Himpel, the sailor acrobat who broke his neck in a fall while rehearsing at a local theatre, was held yesterday afternoon from Finley's undertaking parlors.

The funeral was largely attended and marked by impressive services. Rev. E. A. Roper of the Seamen's Friend society conducted the services and Mrs. Linehan-Johnson and Samuel Phillips sang two duets.

Himpel came to Portland on the British bark Formosa about eight months ago and after having worked on coasting vessels a while concluded to take athletic training by going on the vaudeville stage. He fell in doing a difficult stunt and broke his neck. An operation was performed and the broken vertebrae set, but the patient failed to rally.

SAVES TIME TO ORIENT.

Oriental Liner Alesia Takes Inside Passage Along Alaska.

Captain Ernst of the oriental liner Alesia, proved on his last voyage from here to Yokohama that much time can be saved by taking the inland passage along the Alaskan coast instead of remaining on the outside of the Aleutian islands as customary going west.

When the Alesia returned here Thursday night it was ascertained that she made the run from the mouth of the Columbia to Yokohama in 20 days, whereas the Numantia which left two days befofe took 30 days to cross the ocean. The Numantia took the outside passage. Officers of the Alesia say that the sea is perfectly smooth in the lea of the islands, which accounts for the saving of time.

CONCERT MUCH ENJOYED.

Large Audience Hears Program at Seamen's Friend Society.

The Portland Seamen's Friend society concert hall was well filled with sailors last evening when the Portland boys' orchestra gave their entertainment. The boys played well and their efforts were well received. Master Archie Roth, the boy soprana, gave a good account of himself and the other artists were fine numbers. The program was as follows: Selections, march, "The Messenger Boy," intermezzo, "Nature's Garden"; piano solo, Miss Gertrude Tolstead; baritone solo, Lloyd Breed; waltz, orchestra; solo, Master Archie Roth; tenor solo, George Kilton; soprano solo, Miss E. V. Griffith; march, orchestra; reading, Miss Mary Rust; bass solo, R. R. Adams; march, orchestra; club swinging, Mrs. A. Roe.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The steamer Alliance will be at Couch street dock late tonight.

The British ship Arctic stream will be in the harbor this afternoon with a cargo of 10,700 barrels of cement and 500 tons of coke from Hamburg.

The French bark Emilie Galline reached Astoria yesterday, 124 days out from London. She brings 14,281 barrels of cement consigned to Meyer, Wilson & Co.

Gerald Bagley, assistant United States corps engineers, came up from Fort Stevens this morning where he is superintending the work on the Columbia river jetty, and reports the trestle work having withstood the winter storms in fine shape.

HOMER PIGEON LOST.

Valuable Bird Disappears From Ship Alexander Black.

Captain Griffith of the British bark Alexander Black is the loser of a slate colored homer pigeon that he prizes highly because of the history attached to it, and he would appreciate very much if anyone catching it will kindly communicate with him with the ultimate object of eventually returning the bird to the ship.

The homer disappeared from the ship when she passed St. Helens on the way to Portland. One of its wings was clipped but not enough to prevent it from taking to the tall timber that fringes the shore and day before yesterday was its last on the windjammer.

Captain Griffith says the homer joined his ship on a stormy day in the English channel. It was one of the 1,900 registered birds liberated at Nantes, France, to fly a race to London last July, but a storm prevented them from crossing the channel and all except 34 were lost. The one that found rest in the rigging of the Alexander Black is one of these, so Captain Griffith recently discovered. The bird has a silver band around one leg and the name of the Orland hotel, East Dulich, London, stamped across the unclipped wing.

The Alexander Black arrived here yesterday from San Diego to carry wheat to Europe after a smart voyage of 13 days. She delivered a general cargo from Rotterdam at the California port, and then started north. In San Diego the homer stayed with the ship without giving any trouble, but the scenery along the Columbia proved too inviting to be resisted.

The Alexander Black is at anchor in the stream. Coming up the coast she experienced good weather but her voyage from Rotterdam was one of the roughest on record.

MAY CLEAR WAY TO NEW CAPITOL

Attorney-General of United States May Help Washington Out of Troubles.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Olympia, Wash., Feb. 8.—There is now a good prospect that the legal obstacles to the sale of the warrants authorized by the last legislature for the completion of the capitol and the erection of an executive mansion in this city will be cleared away. The appropriation called for the issuance of $65,000 in warrants drawn on the capitol building fund, the interest to be guaranteed by the general fund. The capitol building fund is secured by the capitol land grant, still practically intact.

When it came to selling the warrants in advance of going ahead with construction a legal flaw was discovered in the fact that the appropriation called for the furnishings as well as construction. It was contended that furnishings were not included within the wording of the capitol land grant, which provides only for erection of buildings. Attempts to induce the United States attorney-general to make an issue in the matter and determine the legality of the appropriation so far have failed. The attorney-general has now received advices that the government will soon indicate its position in such a way that the legality of the appropriations can be settled.

The government is the only party in interest that could maintain an action to test the legality of the warrants. Assurances from it that the question would never be raised would probably clear away all objections of investors to the purchase of the warrants.
