

WORKED HARD FOR EXPOSITION.

Senator Samuel H. Piles is an ardent worker for the Seattle exposition. His speech in favor of a government appropriation of $700,000 won the senate and the bill went through. The Seattle exposition will benefit all of the great northwest and Oregon can well afford to congratulate the senator on his good work.

YOUTHS ALL HAD NOSES IN FOAM

Officer Disguised as Soldier Arrests Numerous Minors in Saloons.

When is a soldier a policeman? The question was answered to the entire satisfaction of several persons last night when Patrolman G. E. Fuller, disguised as a soldier, visited a number of downtown saloons and arrested minors whom he found drinking in the resorts. The California saloon, Front and Morrison streets, was the first place to fall under the ban. Here the disguised policeman found Ted Larsen, 18 years old, drinking at the bar, contrary to the force and effect of the statutes in such cases made and provided. He was hailed to the city jail where a misdemeanor charge was placed opposite his name. Later in the evening C. E. Cramer, 19 years old, was arrested by Fuller in the Manhattan saloon on Alder street, between Second and Third streets. Still another minor, Thomas Dempsey, by name, was arrested at the bar of the Old Inn, on Alder street, between Second and Third streets. Fuller is one of the patrolmen recently appointed from the civil service list, and his face is not familiar to the keepers of downtown resorts. It was for this reason that he was selected by Captain of Detectives Brock for the task set him last night. The soldier's uniform was donned as an additional precaution in the line of disarming suspicion, as well as to preserve the yellow-back-dime-novel idea of effective detective work. While no statement to this effect was made public last night it is probable that the proprietors of the places where the arrests were made will be arrested on warrants charging them with selling liquor to minors.

JUDGE NORTHUP TO ERECT FINE HOME

Judge H. H. Northup has purchased the handsome residence site at Twentieth and Spring streets, Portland Heights, that formerly belonged to Dr. M. F. Fenton. The tract contains four building lots and is considered one of the slightest pieces on the Heights. Judge Northup is planning to build an elegant residence on the property during the coming summer, which will be a handsome and already containing a number of the finest homes in the city. An increased demand has recently sprung up for Portland Heights property, several important sales having been made in the past few weeks.

Prisoner Went to Supper Too.

From the Kansas City Times. A deputy sheriff in Muskogee county arrested a prisoner and took him to the courthouse last night. The deputy was hungry, so he handcuffed the man, tied him to a chair and went to supper. The prisoner decided that he wanted something to eat in the meantime, so he smashed the door, got free from the rope, slipped off his handcuffs and went to supper himself. When the deputy returned and found his prisoner gone there was a terrible furore around the courthouse and a search was organized. About this time the prisoner walked in, picking his teeth. He calmly announced that he had gone out to supper.

Hay's Hair Health. Never Fails to RESTORE GRAY or FADED HAIR to its NATURAL COLOR and BEAUTY. No matter how long it has been gray or faded. Promotes a luxuriant growth of healthy hair. Stops its falling out, and positively removes dandruff. Keeps hair soft and glossy. Re-use all substitutes. 2 1/2 times as much in $1.00 as 50c size. IS NOT A DYE. Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J. and 50c bottles, at druggists' WOODARD, CLARKE & CO.

MARKET DAYS IN HIGH FAVOR

Second Unqualified Success at Pendleton—Freewater Adopts Plan.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Feb. 8.—The second public market in this city was held today with over $5,000 worth of livestock and other property listed for sale. The sales began in the fair pavilion promptly at 10:30 this forenoon with Colonel J. M. Bentley and Colonel William F. Yohnka as auctioneers. Both auctioneers were kept busy until late in the afternoon disposing of the large quantities of property offered. The prices offered at this sale were somewhat better than at the first, a month ago, and all those who have taken part are highly satisfied with the results. The property listed with Manager Sam C. Bittner for today's sales included 48 horses and mares, 10 cattle, 10 sets of harness, 9 wagons and buggies, 20 hogs, several loads of hay and wood and numerous small articles. Freewater, Or., Feb. 8.—Following the successful venture of Pendleton this place has inaugurated a series of public market days, the first to be held here Saturday, February 15. At that time a large amount of property, including livestock, poultry, farming implements, hogs, milk, cows, wagons, harness and other surplus accumulations from the farming community adjacent will be offered for sale. Fred Efferth will be in charge of the sale. A vacant lot will be erected on a vacant lot in the town to accommodate the patrons of the market days. The series will be continued regularly. The people are taking great interest in the venture.

BALFOUR ATTACKS ENGLAND'S CRITICS

Former Leader of House of Commons Says Nation Isn't Decadent. London, Feb. 8.—No public utterance in a long time has attracted such widespread interest as a lecture by Arthur Balfour at Banbridge the other day upon national decadence. Of course, no man in political life will admit that the English race and the British nation are degenerating, but there are not wanting students of political and social economy who affirm that such is the fact. Balfour discussed the question, whether death was inevitable in nations, as well as in men. His views were, of course, optimistic. He rejected the old assumption that every body politic may decay as Rome decayed. He disagreed with Macaulay, who conceived national greatness as periodic, and that when new Zealand had become great London would be in ruins. The nation which discovers the origin of decay and guards against it will have a higher vitality, Balfour argued. He touched on two or three causes of national decadence—slavery, a falling birth rate and lack of initiative. Today the wrong source, he said, from the problem is not beyond the reach of science. Moreover, the harmfulness of the conditions under which the poorest of the population are reared is exaggerated. This was in reply to Hyndman, a prominent Socialist, who has been warning the country that there is an appalling physical degeneration among due to permanent poverty. Other commentators, carrying the subject beyond the point reached by Balfour, argue that character is after that the chief danger to character. Hyndman and his sympathizers, Rome fell, not because hordes of barbarians arrived and humiliated her, but because her spirit, her ancient resisting power, in a word, her character, had departed. The Romans had lost their independence and pauperizing doles of the government, which played at being the universal Providence. On this subject, invokes the attention of British statesmen to the above, all to constitute a sweeping change that is quietly but rapidly taking place.

WOMAN HOLDS FORT AGAINST LAW AGENTS

With Club, Keeps Constable From Taking Away Her Friend's Furniture. Beverly, N. J., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Mary Butler held the fortress against entrance of officials yesterday, when they tried to take from her house goods claimed by Charles Zeigler. His daughter, according to Mr. Zeigler, confiscated them while he was away and stored them with her friend, Mrs. Butler. After the death of Mrs. Zeigler the husband left Beverly, and the oldest daughter, Lizzie, was left to take charge of a number of little ones. She married last October and after a month of stormy wedded life was deserted. Zeigler drifted into town yesterday and got a justice of the peace to issue an order for Mrs. Butler to surrender the goods. She refused. She kept the constable at bay with up to another justice of the peace, but Mrs. Butler barricaded her door and threatened to make any one who set stars if they dared to enter. Through the efforts of organized labor the manufacture of cigars in the prison at Marquette, Michigan, is to be abolished. The convicts are to begin the manufacture of overalls, so that the garment workers must now take up the fight.

Seventy-seven for Colds and GRIP. Humphreys' "Seventy-seven" meets the exigency of the prevailing epidemic of Grip, with all its symptoms of Influenza, Catarrh, pains and soreness in the Head and Chest, Cough, Sore Throat, General Prostration and Fever. Taken during its prevalence, it preoccupies the system and prevents its invasion, taken while suffering from it, relief is speedily realized and a complete cure assured. All Druggists sell "77," most Druggists recommend it. 25 Cents. Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Co., Cor. William and John Streets, New York.

$60,000 HORSE THEIF

Confessed Robber Man of Wealth, Owning Large Tracts of Land—Implicates Lynch Who Is Also Well-to-Do.

Stolen—Nine horses, four wagons and four sets of harness, taken from 17 different owners by wealthy horse-thieves. This is the thrilling record confessed by J. F. Hawkes, who was sentenced to the penitentiary at Salem a few days ago. Richard Lynch, whom he implicates in all of his exploits, will come before Judge Cleland in the circuit court to plead tomorrow. After pleading guilty and receiving his sentence, Hawkes made a full confession. Yesterday he accompanied Deputy Sheriff Bulger on a long ride and disclosed what the stolen property not yet recovered may be found. Two of the horses and some of the other property were stolen from Clackamas county and the places where the animals and wagons were cached were in various parts of Multnomah county, from Linnton to Canyon road. One of the surprising features of the case is the wealth of Hawkes, who is said to be worth at least $60,000. He owns large tracts of land and has been getting out wood in large quantities at Holbrook. Lynch, also, is in good circumstances, having a woodyard on the east side, and having men at work in the woods at Hoving. The men from whom the horses were stolen were: E. Johnson, E. A. Yonkers, M. M. Lee, W. T. E. Nicholson, W. C. Spence, Jones Lumber company, H. M. Hewitt, S. T. Tracy and Charles H. Raley, the two last named being residents of Clackamas county. Those who lost wagons were: A. C. Friable, Morrow Bros., V. D. Smith and C. Dangerfield, while those from whom sets of harness were stolen were: W. H. Stoope, C. R. Servis, Charles Riskey and W. J. Hillyard. Hawkes was run down and arrested as the result of work done by Sheriff Stevens and Deputy Sheriffs Leonard and Bulger, Leonard especially having done much hard work in securing the evidence on which the arrest was made. Since the arrest of Hawkes reports of stolen horses have been few and his confession shows that most of the recent jobs in that line were his.

KING LEOPOLD MAY LOSE LIFE

Ruler of Belgium in Disfavor With Subjects Since Last Marriage. (United Press Leased Wire.) London, Feb. 8.—Is King Leopold, the picturesque monarch, whose rule of Belgium has been so filled with scandal to be the next victim of crazed regicides? According to a story printed in today's Weekly Times he is in grave danger of losing his life as a result of his failure to retain his old-time firm hold on the reins of government. According to the Brussels correspondent of the Times, the king has developed a craze almost amounting to mania for privacy and is swamping all cares of state. He insists upon taking long journeys into the remote country recess and accompanied by his new wife, the Baroness Vassian, every attempt to have him transact affairs of state made by his ministers is rebuffed and his rule is now said to be decidedly oppressive by his subjects. The Times correspondent concludes his despatch as follows: "Every foreign office in the world expects to hear shortly that Leopold has been deposed if not killed, and a republic proclaimed."

UNSIGNED PAPER SCANDAL OF CLUB

Pamphlet Aims Personalities at Members of London Organization. London, Feb. 8.—A good deal of excitement has been caused at a leading woman's club, where the American membership is considerable, by the private circulation of a pamphlet in which various members of the club are described by their Christian names and some exceedingly personal details mentioned regarding them. Many members included in this intimate and sometimes scandalous fashion are anxious to bring libel suits against the author of the pamphlet. The club committee is trying to appease the feelings of the injured ones and to quiet the scandal. Many English and American society women are sailing for America this week. It is becoming the fad to take a few weeks' trip to America at this time of the year, returning in plenty of time for London's spring awakening.

WOMAN HOLDS FORT AGAINST LAW AGENTS

With Club, Keeps Constable From Taking Away Her Friend's Furniture. Beverly, N. J., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Mary Butler held the fortress against entrance of officials yesterday, when they tried to take from her house goods claimed by Charles Zeigler. His daughter, according to Mr. Zeigler, confiscated them while he was away and stored them with her friend, Mrs. Butler. After the death of Mrs. Zeigler the husband left Beverly, and the oldest daughter, Lizzie, was left to take charge of a number of little ones. She married last October and after a month of stormy wedded life was deserted. Zeigler drifted into town yesterday and got a justice of the peace to issue an order for Mrs. Butler to surrender the goods. She refused. She kept the constable at bay with up to another justice of the peace, but Mrs. Butler barricaded her door and threatened to make any one who set stars if they dared to enter. Through the efforts of organized labor the manufacture of cigars in the prison at Marquette, Michigan, is to be abolished. The convicts are to begin the manufacture of overalls, so that the garment workers must now take up the fight.

Seventy-seven for Colds and GRIP. Humphreys' "Seventy-seven" meets the exigency of the prevailing epidemic of Grip, with all its symptoms of Influenza, Catarrh, pains and soreness in the Head and Chest, Cough, Sore Throat, General Prostration and Fever. Taken during its prevalence, it preoccupies the system and prevents its invasion, taken while suffering from it, relief is speedily realized and a complete cure assured. All Druggists sell "77," most Druggists recommend it. 25 Cents. Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Co., Cor. William and John Streets, New York.

Great Special Sale

Men's Blue and Black Suits

As an example of the great purchasing power of my combined FOUR Clothing Stores in this city, I will continue the sale ALL THIS WEEK of MEN'S BLUE AND BLACK SUITS—all new, desirable goods, built for 1908 trade—well made and trimmed, single and double-breasted, at low price of $12.50

These are the equal of any $20 Suits in town

BALANCE OF STOCK

Overcoats and Raincoats

Values Up to $20.00

Special $12.85

My Advertisements Never Contain Any Exaggeration

BEN SELLING LEADING CLOTHIER

EXCELLENT NUMBER OF CHAMBER BULLETIN

February Issue Most Complete Yet Published by Management.

The February number of the Portland Chamber of Commerce Bulletin contains not only all the proceedings and addresses of the annual meeting of the chamber, but a number of interesting articles by Portland writers on topics of live interest. The book is the best number of this publication ever issued, and is one of the year's valuable contributions to Portland's industrial literature. In addition to the official reports and addresses of the annual meeting, photographs of the retiring president, the new president, the trustees and various committees, there is an article by E. W. Wright on "The Flouring Industry of Portland," a story of "The Forest Resources of Oregon," by H. D. Langille; "Buy Oregon Made Goods," by Sidney B. Vincent; "The Metal Trades of Portland," by Charles M. Gunn; "Furniture Manufacturing in Portland," by Fletcher Linn; "Portland's Factories," by O. P. Hoff; "Manufacture of Clothing," by Charles Cooney; "Portland's Future Manufacturing Industry," by C. A. Warren; "Harness and Saddle Making in Portland," by E. J. Sharkey; and "Work of the Chamber in 1907," by Secretary Giltner. The statistical features of the Bulletin have been brought up to date, and a number of admirable features added. The illustrations are excellent, and the typographical appearance and editorial makeup is credit to the chamber's staff and to the Bulletin management. A large number of the February issue will be mailed to people in eastern states by members of the chamber.

WOMAN HOLDS FORT AGAINST LAW AGENTS

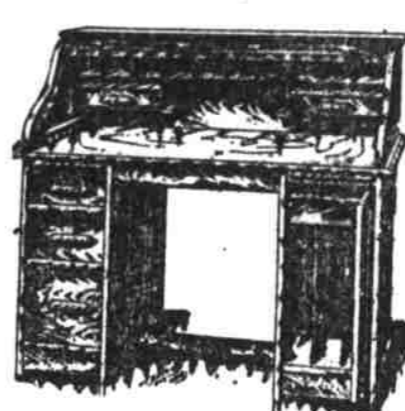

With Club, Keeps Constable From Taking Away Her Friend's Furniture.

Beverly, N. J., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Mary Butler held the fortress against entrance of officials yesterday, when they tried to take from her house goods claimed by Charles Zeigler. His daughter, according to Mr. Zeigler, confiscated them while he was away and stored them with her friend, Mrs. Butler. After the death of Mrs. Zeigler the husband left Beverly, and the oldest daughter, Lizzie, was left to take charge of a number of little ones. She married last October and after a month of stormy wedded life was deserted. Zeigler drifted into town yesterday and got a justice of the peace to issue an order for Mrs. Butler to surrender the goods. She refused. She kept the constable at bay with up to another justice of the peace, but Mrs. Butler barricaded her door and threatened to make any one who set stars if they dared to enter. Through the efforts of organized labor the manufacture of cigars in the prison at Marquette, Michigan, is to be abolished. The convicts are to begin the manufacture of overalls, so that the garment workers must now take up the fight.

Tomorrow (Monday) will positively be the last day for discount on west side gas bills. Portland Gas company.

Out of the High Rent District LOW RENT SPECIALS We Save $800 a Month On Rent Alone

Solid Oak Roll Top Desk

$37.50 Desk $25

A Solid Oak Roll Top Desk, 50 inches wide, with covered pigeon-holes and automatic drawer lock; excellent value at $37.50. Special price... $25.00

This is only one of a variety of bargains—elemental bargains—and if you are interested in office furniture you cannot afford to overlook this opportunity.

Golden Oak Library Table

$12 Library Table... $7.25

All genuine quartered oak with French legs and drawer in top. A table any high rent dealer will charge you $12.00 to $14.00 for. Our special price is... $7.25

LADIES' DESK SPECIAL

$15.00 Desk $10 Genuine birds-eye maple with full swell front and brass trimmings. Regular $15 value... $10.00

BRASS BED SPECIALS

$35.50 Brass Bed $22.50

Here is an exceptionally good offer in Brass Beds. Full 2-inch posts with 5/8-inch filling and particularly well made. No west side dealer could afford to sell this bed for less than $35.00 to $40.00. Our price... $22.50 $30.00 Brass Bed... $22.75 $42.50 Brass Bed... $31.75 $36.00 Brass Bed... $26.00 $64.00 Brass Bed... $49.00

Confidential Credit Cale Bros HOME FURNISHERS 300 310 EAST MORRISON ST. HA CALEF PROP. Low Prices Easy Terms