

SUBMARINES FOR THE AUXILIARY FLEET.

EARLY LIVES

ORDER HERE

SHAW DAMNS REDD WITH FAINT PRAISE

Ex-Secretary of Treasury Intimates That Country Would Be Ruined if It Pursued the Roosevelt Policy— Astonishes Bankers.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.) Chicago, Feb. 15.—Leslie M. Shaw, presidential candidate, broke loose in an extemporaneous speech before the Bankers club of Chicago tonight and flayed President Roosevelt.

First he gave him faint praise; then, continuing, and without mentioning the president by name, he said that the country had learned its lesson and had had enough.

Turning to Taft, again without using the name, Shaw declared that should the country choose a successor to Roosevelt who would forward Roosevelt's ideas it would mean ruin.

Bankers Surprised. The application of the story to Roosevelt and Taft became so clear that the bankers looked at each other quickly, and there was a stir in the banquet hall.

COMING LIVESTOCK SHOW AWAKENS WIDE INTEREST

Portland Country Club Rushing Work on New Grounds—Meet Set for September 21-26—Speed Program Arranged With $1,500 Purse.

Contracts for clearing the entire 90-acre tract of the Portland Country Club and Livestock association's grounds in east Portland have been let, and the building of the track and permanent improvements is being pushed.

They therefore are toward elimination of the range and the substitution of the well cared for, well fenced, well improved breeding farm, attractive to the eye, and a development that is the pride of the community.

Portland Honored Today by First Session of B'nai B'rith Ever Held in This City—Elaborate Entertainment Planned.

Nearly 150 of the most prominent Jewish people in the western part of the United States will convene today in Portland when the forty-fifth annual session of the B'nai B'rith district grand lodge, No. 4, is called to order at 10 o'clock in the Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets.

There are two strong lodges of the B'nai B'rith in Portland. Portland lodge, No. 414, has a membership of 56 and is one of the strongest lodges in the district, both financially and in the personnel of membership.

Establish Orphan Asylum. One of the important matters that will receive the attention of the present convention is the establishment of an orphan asylum somewhere on the Pacific coast outside of San Francisco.

Elaborate Entertainment. The entertainment planned for the delegates by the Portland lodges is elaborate. Everything possible has been done to make the visit pleasant.

Speeches to Welcome Guests. A reception will be given the delegates to the grand lodge by the members of the local lodges in the lodge hall this evening.

There will be music by an orchestra, besides vocal and instrumental music by Mrs. Maurice Feinstein and Miss Paula Heller.

Election of new officers will take place at the regular session Tuesday afternoon. It is expected that Rabbi M. S. Levy will succeed Colonel Black as grand president.

Present officers of the district grand lodge are as follows: Grand president, George N. Black, Los Angeles; first grand vice-president, M. S. Levy, second, J. E. B. Smith, Portland; grand treasurer, Benjamin Harris, grand secretary, I. J. Aebelin, grand reporter, Julius F. Schatz, grand chaplain, Dr. S. B. Schatz, grand physician, Dr. S. B. Schatz, grand surgeon-at-arms, Louis Ehrlich, grand messenger, Solomon Greenbaum, grand scribe, Jacob Greenbaum, grand doorkeeper, Henry Schwartz, grand steward, J. E. B. Smith.

VETERANS OF MULTNOMAH CLUB HAVE JOYOUS TIME AT BANQUET

"We're not as young as we used to be" while not sung was the favorite song at the eighth reunion in celebration of the eighteenth anniversary of the veterans of the Multnomah Athletic club at the Hotel Portland last night.

Athlete's Opinion of Orelstein's. G. P. Dekum, "The Bull Terrier," R. L. Gilman, "An Oregon Snow Shoe Club," Don Zan, "An Old Song," H. M. Calkins, "A Salute to Japan," W. McMillan, "Football—Old and New," W. T. Muir, "The Ladies."

AH THERE, MR. AH LONG, SO LONG, SAYS BURGLAR

"He climbed right in. And turned around and climbed right out again." In the midst of pleasant dreams of last night to be his, a burglar who broke into Hall's restaurant, on Fourth street, between Washington and Alder, about 1:30 o'clock this morning, was scared out of half a year's growth by the sudden appearance of a Mongolian specter.

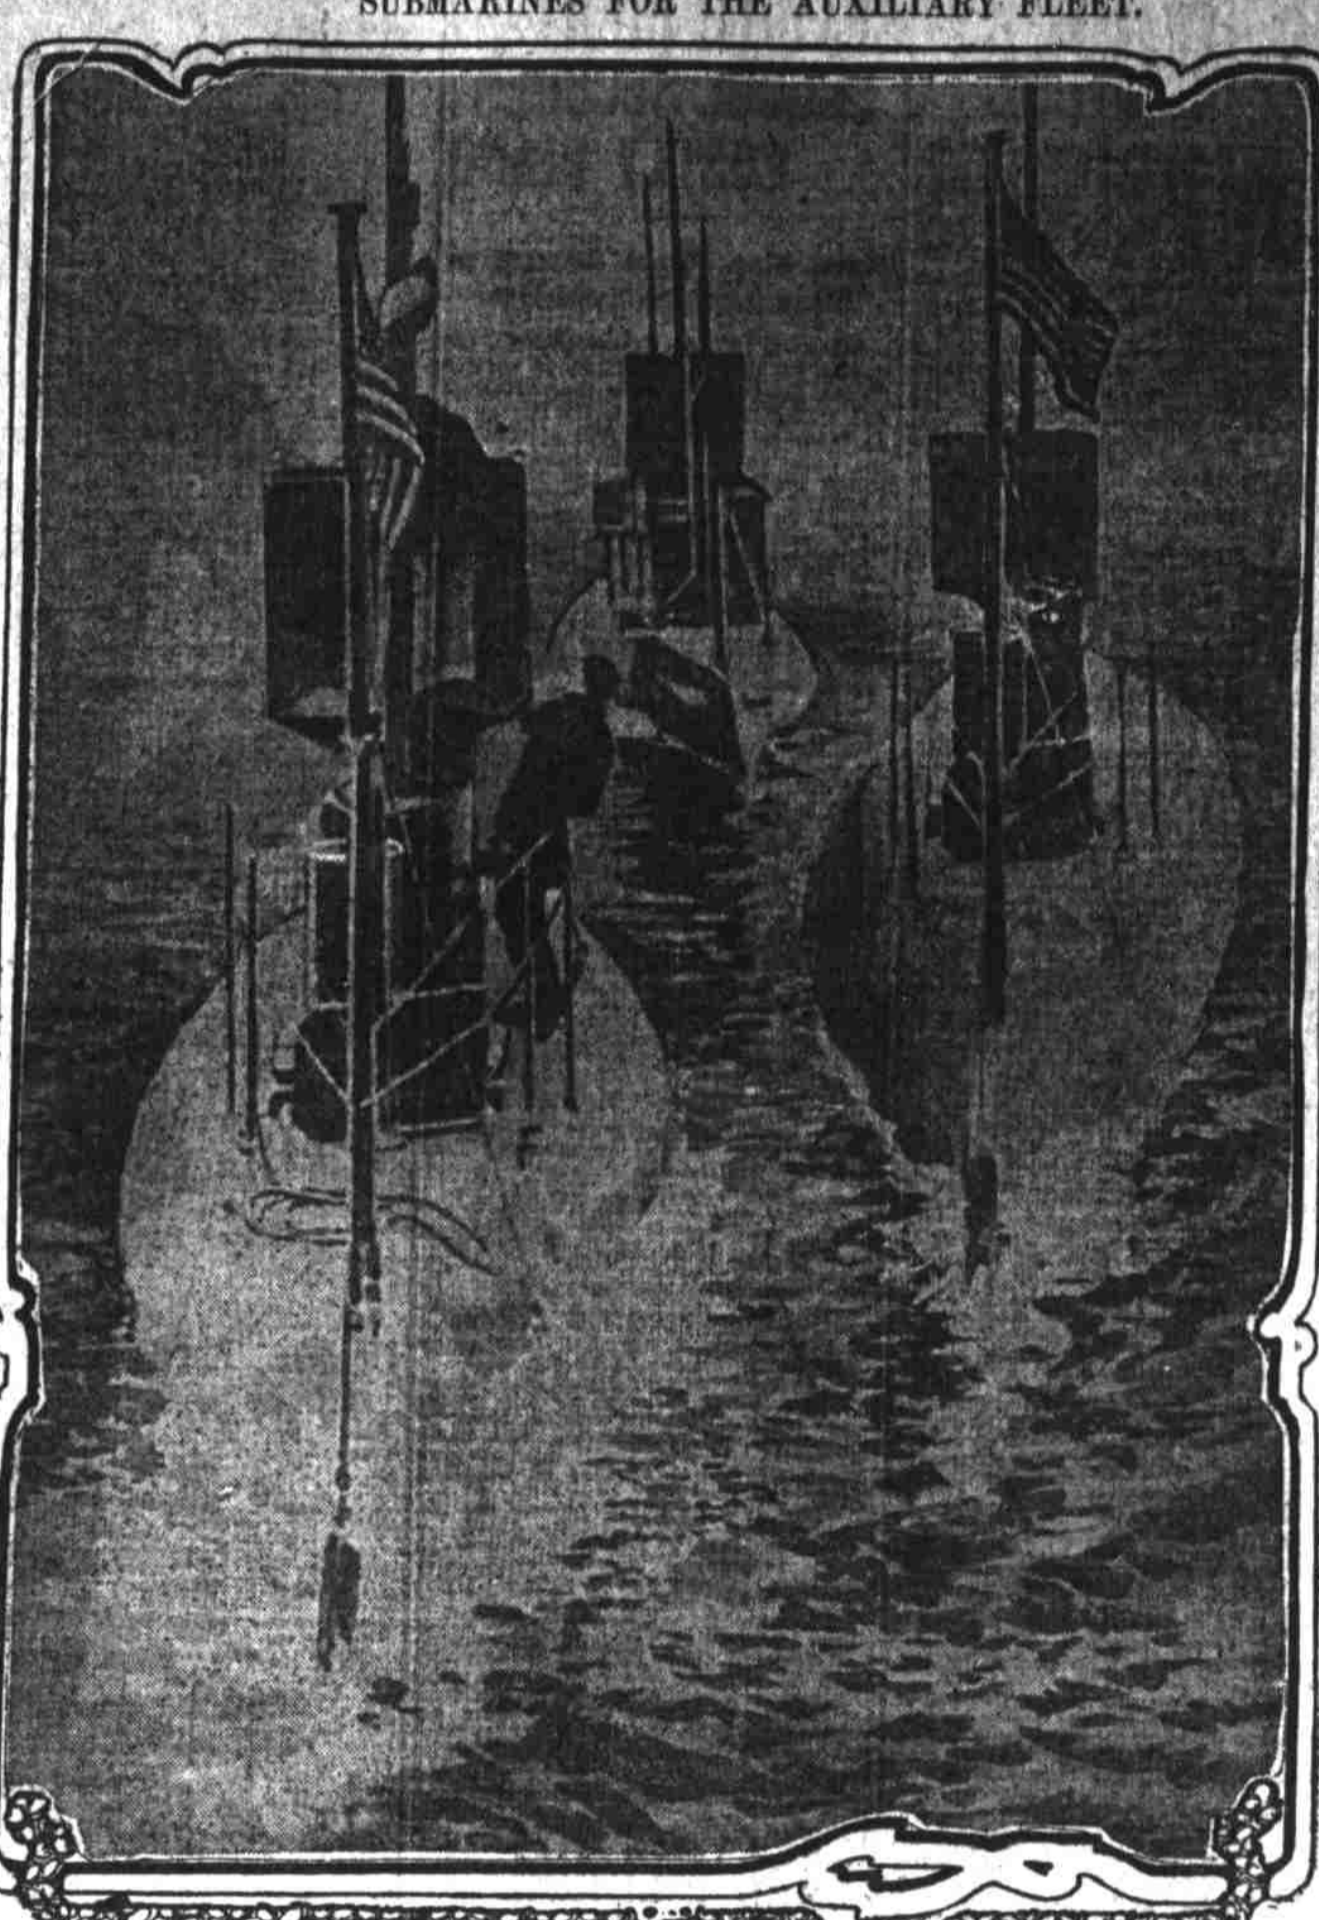

of valor, for he took to his heels and made record time out the window where he had effected his entrance, leaving silverware and till untouched. Ah Long was the hero of the occasion. He was scrubbing the kitchen when the burglar kicked in a side window and entered the dining-room. Armed himself with a large carving knife he rushed to the rescue of his "bosses' man's" cash.

SPANISH BANK NOTES. Expected to Baffle Counterfeiters Even More Than Rapid Changes.

To baffle the counterfeiters, who are both numerous and cunning in Madrid, the Bank of Spain has pursued the policy of changing its notes with great frequency and retiring each issue as fast as possible.

Absent-Minded Telephone Girl. From the San Francisco Chronicle.

"One of the first clerks I had," remarked Irving C. Ackerman, "was a fellow that wanted a divorce. 'Well, I said, 'what seem'd to be the trouble at your house?' 'Oh, we just naturally don't get along.' She was mad at me and threatened all the time to go home to her mother and I can't stand for some of the things she does. You see, she was a telephone girl, and every time I come home now and say, 'Hello, dearie,' she kind of absent-minded-like sits staring at the window and says 'Number Number.' And that makes me wild."

A formidable squadron of warships was prepared at the Brooklyn navy yard for the southern cruise. They are the submarines Tarantula, Viper and Cuttlefish, and comprise a portion of Uncle Sam's underwater naval strength. This is a picture of the three submarines as they were entering the Brooklyn navy yard.

MORSE WILL BE TAKEN TO JAIL WHEN STEAMSHIP ETRURIA ARRIVES FORMER ICE KING MUST FACE ARREST.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.) New York, Feb. 15.—Charles W. Morse, maker of mergers, banker and at one time a multi-millionaire, will be arrested tomorrow on the arrival in port of the steamship Etruria on which he is returning to this country. Warrants for his arrest are in the hands of the police and he, the first of the so-called rich malefactors, to be proscribed by the authorities of this country, will be taken from the steamer like an ordinary prisoner on returning to the country.

CLIMBED DOWN TO BE ROBBED

Ben Sillinger, a resident of Hillsdale, was held up and robbed by two men on the Slavin road at 6:45 o'clock last evening. Sillinger was driving a team attached to a heavy farm wagon and was on his way to his home at the time the robbery occurred. When he reached the road he was stopped by two men who stepped into the road in front of the team and demanded that he hold up his hands and alight from the wagon.

DETERMINED TO HAVE JUST RATE

The relation between the railroads and the lumber industry of the Pacific coast was the main topic of the annual meeting and banquet of the Oregon & Washington Lumber Manufacturers' association held in this city yesterday. The meeting was held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, and in the evening the banquet was held at the Commodore club.

HENDERSON GETS NINE MONTHS' TERM

E. B. Henderson was convicted on the charge of larceny and was sentenced to the circuit court, after a trial that lasted the greater part of two days. The jury rendered the charge from grand jury, and Henderson was sentenced to serve nine months on the rock pile.

AMHERST MEN GET REMUNERATION, BUT THERE IS A LACK OF ENTHUSIASM.

There was a service on a recent Sunday in the Amherst college chapel, in which for the first time that was recalled there was no choir. This body of singers is made up of students, and although numbers have varied, ordinarily there have been enough to make up a considerable choir.

OFFENSES AGAINST THE EYES.

The first offense against the eyes is reading with a poor light. This requires the ciliary muscle to do extra work to sharpen sight. It applies to dim lights, twilight, being too far from the light. The second offense is one of posture—stooping or lying down congenitally work of the eye muscles.

UNFORTUNATE NAME FOR A DOCTOR.

Down in the little town of Franklin, in the southern part of this state, remarked a guest at a local hotel yesterday, "I saw on a sign in front of his house the name of a doctor who must have had an unusual share of human courage to take up the medical profession without changing his name."

WHAT BECOMES OF OLD SILK HATS.

People who wonder what becomes of old silk hats will be surprised to know that in England, at least, many of them are shipped to Africa. When silk hats get out of style the dealers also have resorted to the African trade, which does not mind minor variations in shape.

W. DOSCHER HELD UP IN THE SHADOW OF TREES NEAR HIS HOME.

Two highwaymen armed with revolvers held up and robbed W. Doscher at 10 o'clock last evening near his home at 617 Marshall street. Doscher had alighted from a car at Twenty-first street and was walking toward home when he was accosted by two men who stepped out from the dense shadow east by some trees.

AMERICAN ADMIRAL SENDS A WIRELESS MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT MONTT THANKING HIM FOR KINDNESS SHOWN OFFICERS AND SAILORS.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.) Valparaiso, Feb. 15.—Rear Admiral Evans in command of the American battleship fleet which was reviewed here yesterday, has sent two wireless messages of thanks for the honor paid him. The fleet is now well up the coast on its way to Callao. One of the messages from Evans is addressed to Rear Admiral Simpson of the Chilean navy, and says: "The commander of the Atlantic fleets begs to convey to President Montt, in the name of himself, his officers and men, the appreciation of the honor he has done them by reviewing the fleet off Valparaiso. To this I add expressions of my personal regard, and I hope I will have the pleasure of meeting you again. I send my good wishes—Evans."

"I beg to express to President Montt the thanks of the officers and men of my fleet for the many graceful acts of courtesy received at the hands of the Chilean government. I am sure the American people appreciate them and they will go far toward cementing the friendship between the two nations.—Evans." Admiral Simpson replied to his communication as follows: "Thank you, I am instructed to convey to you the personal thanks of President Montt for your good wishes. I and my officers all join in wishing Admiral Evans and the officers of the American fleet a hearty farewell and a successful and prosperous voyage." Mr. Hicks made the following answer: "I will deliver to President Montt your kind message. The whole review was all that anyone could have asked for and I am proud of our fleet. Good bye, and God bless you."

FOOTPADS CATCH VICTIM UNAWARES

The American cruiser Chicago which left here three days ago for the Atlantic station, passed the battleship fleet off Constellation. She saluted both admirals, the American commander and Rear Admiral Simpson.

PRAIRIE BLIZZARD.

How School Children of a Nebraska Town Were Helped Home. From Des Moines Register and Leader. "Last Sunday was the twentieth anniversary of the great blizzard of 1888 in Nebraska and northwestern Iowa, said G. D. Riggs the other day. 'I was living in O'Neill, Nebraska, at the time and had just left the office to go home for dinner when the blizzard struck. 'I started to cross the street to the drug store, but when I reached the other side I found myself half way back to the drug store, where the freezing point at noon to 26 degrees below zero that night. It was the worst blizzard I ever saw and never want to experience another like it.'"