OFFICER CAN'T KNOCK AS PRIVATE CITIZEN

Case Decision Is That for Purposes of Discipline He Always Has His Buttons On.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Olympia, Wash., Feb. 19.—Major Otto A. Case of the Washington National Guard has been let off with a reprimand, after being found guilty by general court-martial of censuring his superior officers to the prejudice of good order and discipline.

Last December, Major Case gave out an interview at Seattle in which he accused the army commission having in hand the construction of the Seattle armory, with absolute negligence. The delay in beginning the work gave rise to speculation that the general was guilty to having said the things with which he was charged, but pleaded that they were uttered as a private citizen and not as an officer of the guard.

The court-martial found him guilty and recommended that he be reprimanded. After holding up the findings for 40 days Governor Mead yesterday confirmed them. Major Case is released from arrest and restored to duty.

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company. Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriage, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
