FOOTPADS SANDBAG VICTIM; SECURE $154.

Saloonkeeper Knocked Senseless, Then Robbed Near His Home.

George Sabackl, proprietor of a saloon at 55 North Third street, was held up and robbed by two men at Overton and Seventeenth streets shortly after 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Sabackl was on his way home at the time and had just alighted from a streetcar.

He noticed two men skulking in the shadow of a building in Overton street, but paid no particular attention to them.

After he had passed the men approached him from behind, one of the thugs striking him over the head with a sandbag.

The blow knocked Sabackl back down, and while he was still stunned and unable to resist the thieves rifled his pockets.

Sabackl reported the robbery to the police, but was unable to give a clear description of his assailants.
