CLAIRVOYANTS AND PALMISTS

FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY.
A special $5 reading for 50c and $1.
PROF. SHELDON, CLAIRVOYANT.
NO CHARGE IF NOT SATISFIED WHEN READING IS OVER—YOU TO BE THE JUDGE.

I promise to tell you whether husband, wife or sweetheart is true or false; whom and when you will marry; I will tell you how to gain the love of the one you most desire, even though miles away; in fact, I will tell you every hope, fear or ambition better than you can tell yourself. I will tell you what business to engage in to best succeed; when to change; when to sell business, stocks or property; when to buy.

For a few days only my full $5 reading for 50 cents and $1.

DO YOU WISH TO KNOW—
How can I have good luck?
How can I succeed in business?
How can I make my home happy?
How can I conquer my enemies?
How can I marry my choice?
How can I conquer my rival?
How can I get a good position?
How can I remove bad influences?
How can I control any one?
How can I make my husband, wife or sweetheart be kind and true to me?

The name Sheldon a double guarantee. During the last year I have brought around through this wonderful power of personal control 648 marriages, 143 separations, without any after trouble, came by mutual consent of opposing party; located 15 buried treasures, located 33 wills and deeds, reunited 119 separated; brought financial success to 821 unlucky persons. There are many other cases of such a private nature I do not feel like classifying. In fact, it suffices to only say there is no heart so sad, or wish too great that your hopes cannot be speedily realized by the force of this wonderful power, and everything is in strict confidence, no name ever revealed. Success guaranteed or no charge for services.

LOW FEE. LOW FEE. LOW FEE.

PRECIOUS GIFT TO STATE UNIVERSITY

Botanical Collection That Represents 24 Years of Research by a Noted Expert.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 19.—The biological department of the university has been presented with a valuable collection of botanical specimens, which will be an invaluable aid in the study of botany. The collection consists of over 15,000 specimens and is the work of Mr. Leiberg, of Leaburg, Oregon. They are principally of Oregon and Idaho plant life, but other states of the Union and a few foreign countries are represented. As each specimen is classified and labeled the amount of work spent on the collection can be easily realized. Mr. Leiberg spent 24 years in completing the collection.

Mr. Leiberg was employed by the department of agriculture for 13 years. From 1897 to 1901 he was connected with the United States geological survey, doing forestry work exclusively. He rose in the service both in the United States and in the Philippine islands until he left the service in 1906. At that time he held the position of forest expert in the department of forestry.

An exact duplicate of this collection has been presented to the United States government and is at the Smithsonian institution.

CHILD INTERPRETER IS BURNED TO DEATH

Wonder of New York Ghetto Who Was Only Thirteen Years Old.

New York, Feb. 19.—Fannie Schendorf, 13 years old, known throughout the lower Ghetto as "the little interpreter," was fatally burned at her home in East Sixth street this morning. She was taken to Bellevue hospital, and died.

Mrs. Schendorf, the mother, left the home to purchase groceries. Fannie was the only one of the six children up, the others remaining in bed. Fannie swept the kitchen floor and threw the dust and dirt into the stove. A sheet of flame from beneath the lid caught her dress, and in an instant she was enveloped in flame.

"The little interpreter" was the most wonderful "hochum" in the Ghetto, despite her 13 years. Able to speak, read and write fluently in English, German, Yiddish and Hebrew, she spent her evenings tutoring and helping those who had just come to the new land. Jewish lawyers and business men often sought her services.

She was regarded as the brightest girl in public school No. 183, excelling in every study and holding the monitorship for three years. This month she was to have been graduated.

Colonial Masquerade Oaks Rink.

Saturday night, Washington's birthday, will be celebrated in an appropriate manner at the Oaks rink. A grand colonial and hard times masquerade will take place. Six elegant prizes will be awarded. Don't fail to see this great event at the Oaks rink Saturday night. Skates may be reserved by calling up Sellwood 260.

The unhealthiest occupation in the world is said to be that of the Sicilian sulphur miners. A recent examination showed that out of 4,000 of these miners only 200 were physically fit for military service.

FORGETS HOW MANY CHILDREN HE HAS

Indignant Wife Declares Hubby's Memory Has Been Damaged.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Omaha, Feb. 17.—William Winter, of Roseland, Nebraska, in a suit for divorce says there are eight children. His wife in her answer says they have twelve. She names them, one by one. Mrs. Winter says her husband is in love with another, and, owing to this fact has forgotten how many children he really has.

The judge will decide the number of children in the Winter family some time during the summer.

"MAN WITH 3 WIVES" DELIGHTING VIENNA

Franz Lehr's New Opera Is Said to Be a Warm Rival to the "Merry Widow."

Vienna, Feb. 19.—Another "Merry Widow" is delighting Vienna audiences at the Vienna theatre, and doubtless will soon be heard in New York. Franz Lehr, the composer of the "Merry Widow," has just produced his new comic opera, "The Man With Three Wives," which is as full of sparkling and melodious numbers as the famous predecessor.

The libretto, by Julius Bauer, has a most humorous idea underlying it, and bristles with witty lines. The much-married man is Hans Zipser, traveling conductor for a Vienna tourist's agency. Zipser has a wife in Vienna of whom he is very fond but having to be much abroad, he consoles himself for long absences from her side by setting up other homes in Paris and London. Thus besides his Vienna wife Lory, he has a Paris "wife," Coralie, and also a London "wife," Olivia.

The chief of the tourist bureau, Baron Huneburg, covets Lory for himself, and with the idea of winning her, he reveals to her the fact that her husband is "carrying on" in foreign cities. Together the Baron and Lory go to Paris, where they find Hans with Coralie.

Instead of squabbling, the two women become friends when they learn that there is a third "wife" in London, where Hans is impatiently awaited. Therefore everybody crosses over to the English capital. Poor Hans is thus confronted with all three "wives." Olivia rejects him, Coralie goes back to her former lover, and Lory insists that he shall give up the tourist business and return with her to Vienna.

REVISED "FAUST" IN PARIS SETTING

Opera Managers to Put On a Parody, on Noted Production With Mephisto as Quack Doctor.

Paris, Feb. 19.—The new managers of the Paris opera, Mme. Messager and Brossan, are to start their season with a new and magnificent setting to "Faust," which is to be remodeled as regards its mounting. This announcement has fired some of the young bloods of Montmatre, and a number of them are getting up a performance of "Faust" revised in the cause of charity, which is certain to have a notable success. Their "Faust" will be a parody placing the famous scenes of the tragedy in a modern Parisian setting. Faust is to be represented as an elderly rake in a tall hat with a monocle—a kind of Marquis de C. Marguerite will be a very wide-awake young woman in a tailor-made from Paquin; Siebel is to be a young cut-throat of generally doubtful morality, and Valentine a swagger officer of militia, who in civil life is a grocer, and tries to levy blackmail on Faust.

The funniest "conversion" of all will be Mephistopheles, a quack doctor who cannot get into the academy of medicine. The scenery will be modified as much as the characters, and one of the most thrilling "sets" is to be an American bar on the Brocken.

SEMINARY DEAN ILL; TEACHES IN HIS ROOM

Summons Students Three Times a Week to His Bedside Where He Hears Lessons.

Pittsburg, Feb. 19.—Because of nervous trouble, which has temporarily paralyzed him, the Rev. Dr. David B. Willson, dean of the faculty of the Reformed Presbyterian Theological seminary, has been confined to his bed for several weeks.

Not wishing to hold the students back in their studies, he has those in the first year class in Hebrew go to his room every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday to rehearse their lessons.

Dr. Willson is well known in the denomination, and has been in the seminary many years. Neighbors have watched with great interest the long line of students file into his sickroom three times a week, their books under their arms.

The seminary management has offered to provide a substitute for the teacher, but Dr. Willson has refused.

I CURE MEN
While I might with equal success turn my attention to the cure of all bodily ailments, I feel safer in confining my practice to the diseases that have claimed my entire time and energy in mastering for the past 25 years. My methods of treating men are a result of my own study and experience. They are the methods that have made me a successful specialist and are practiced by no physician other than myself.
MY FEE IS $10 | You Pay When Well
In Any Uncomplicated Case.
Improper treatment of contracted diseases can easily bring loss of power. An examination reveals this very cause in a large portion of the cases of weakness. Lingering inflammation centering in the prostate gland is sure to result in disordered functions, and the condition will never be corrected until the inflamed and swollen gland is restored to its normal state. I thoroughly cure every contracted disease I treat. The remedies I employ are known to myself alone, and no other physician has yet produced equally prompt and thorough cures.
Varicocele, Hydrocele, Specific Blood Poison, Piles and Stricture are included in the list of diseases I cure.
WHY MY CURES ARE LASTING
Because the methods I employ meet even the most minute details of those ailments to which they apply and are readily modified to meet the requirements of individual cases. Because my treatment is ample, scientific and thorough, my cures are complete and lasting, and my patients have no relapses, for the same reason I am usually able to cure in much less time than is commonly required in obtaining but partial results.
WEAKNESS
So long as physicians continue along the old lines of treatment of this disorder, men will continue to be disappointed time and again in their efforts to obtain a cure. I have found that disorders entirely local are responsible for prematureness, loss of power, etc., and that there is not even the slightest possibility of obtaining a cure through use of internal remedies. My treatment is directed toward the removal of all abnormal conditions throughout the organs involved, and I do not fail in a single instance to restore complete and permanent activity of all the functions.
I offer consultation free either at my office or by mail, and am always glad to render any advice that may be helpful. All correspondence strictly confidential.
