A MUSEMENTS

"Buster Brown" at Hellig Tonight. Tonight, tomorrow and Saturday nights, at special prices, the attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, will be the famous musical cartoon comedy, "Buster Brown." A popular price matinee will be given Saturday afternoon. Master Reed will be seen as "Buster."

See "Parsifal." Those who have seen "Parsifal" say it is great. It is, too, for it is one of the grandest dramatic stories with an uplifting tone that has ever been presented on a stage in this country. The Marquon has been crowded at every performance to witness "Parsifal." There will be a matinee Saturday.

Clay Clement Coming. Clay Clement, the actor and dramatist, comes to the Marquon at the head of his own company next week. Three hills will be presented. There will be "The New Dominion," "The Bells" and "London Assurance." Seats are now selling.

"In the Bishop's Carriage." Another triumph has been achieved by the Baker stock company this week in the well high perfect production of "In the Bishop's Carriage," and every one who has witnessed the performance is most emphatic in pronouncing it far above the average. This play is one of the most novel and fascinating ever put on the local stage. Matinee Saturday.

"Dora Thorne" at Empire. There have been few, if any, better productions of Bartha M. Clay's celebrated love play, "Dora Thorne," seen in Portland than the one that is drawing large audiences all this week. Miss

Miss Ray Myers as Mary Jane in "Buster Brown," at the Hellig.

Dorothy Grey, in the famous character of Pearl, in bright and thorough actress, Matinee Saturday.

"The Nancy Hanks." An especially fine offering at the Lyric this week is the rollicking farce comedy, "The Nancy Hanks." It is a play which pleases all alike and is a continuous laugh from beginning to end. Matinee Saturday.

"Camille" at the Lyric. Those who attend the Lyric next week, commencing Monday night, will have the privilege that few theatres can boast of. They will see the youngest emotional actress in America in the role of "Camille," which is admitted to be the most difficult woman's role on the stage today. Verna Felton is the brilliant young leading woman who will make this bid to fame.

"King of the Cowboys." "King of the Cowboys," the new military and cowboy play at the Star theatre, is the talk of the town. The scenes are laid at the military academy at West Point and the principal characters are cadets until they appear later on the plains as cowboys and soldiers. The hero is a western sheriff and there are a few Indians, army officers and others strictly western types introduced in the course of the music.

Music at the Grand. This week's vaudeville entertainment at the Grand is well supplied with music. The five Hawaiian singers and instrumentalists have the top line on the program. They render native songs, one being composed by a former queen of the Islands. Zinell and Bouletie have an operatic comedy sketch which is novel and one of the hits of the entertainment.

Basketball on Skates. Friday night the Multnomah team of basketball players will meet a team from the Y. M. C. A. at the Exposition rink. The game is growing very popular, as it is very exciting. The price will remain 35 cents for admission and skates and 25 cents for spectators.

FAST AMATEURS AT TRACEY'S SMOKER

Dan Sullivan Takes Up Boxing Game and Will Meet Heavyweight.

The boxing exhibition at Tracey's Columbia Athletic club, in the Exposition building, tomorrow night, promises to be the best amateur affair ever pulled off in Portland.

Dan Sullivan, the wrestler who represented the American team at Athens in 1906, has taken up boxing and will meet Madden, the local heavyweight. Sullivan has worked out under Tracey, and Tom says he is the making of a good, fast boxer.

Gus Roscher, the crack lightweight, will meet Donahue, the Vancouver barracks soldier. Donahue has a great wallop, and in a boxing match at the barracks the other day put one of Uncle Sam's men out with a left haymaker.

PORTLAND PLAYS WITH TACOMA SATURDAY

Mortified at their unlucky defeat last week, the Y. M. C. A. basketball team will strain every nerve to whip Tacoma on Saturday. Tacoma men on their own floor are invincible as witness their defeat of the Canadians to the tune of 49 to 9 and their satisfactory disposal of the Portland team.

Captain Hartman explains the recent defeat by the staleness of his men. Although he is confident of victory, he promises a game that will be almost as productive of excitement as the Vancouver tussle.

The whistle will be in the capable hands of P. Freeman, who, while insisting on strictness, can be relied on not to indulge in too many "whistling solos."

Teams will line up:

HANLON TELLS OF OVERALL'S RELEASE

Smarting under the lash of severe criticism of alleged mistakes made while manager of the Cincinnati Reds, Edward Hanlon has just issued a signed statement of some length, in which he discloses numerous interesting facts.

He declares that he did not err when he released Pitcher Overall to the Chicago Cubs, for the reason that Overall declared repeatedly that he could not do the work in Porttown because of the abuse heaped upon him by critics and fans.

Hanlon also says that Overall, who became a close friend of Manager Chance of the Cubs while wintering in California, said that if he were not traded to Chicago he would not be of any material use to Cincinnati, so that rather than have an unwilling player on his hands, Hanlon made the deal.

Hanlon generally knows what he is
