COMFORT IN A CORSET

The "LA GENORE" ELASTIC CORSET is not only a comfort to the wearer but is conducive to good health. It is the only corset made that allows DEEP BREATHING and FREE MOVEMENTS of the body. Hips and busts out of proportion are made uniform, by wearing this corset.

The perfect symmetry of form demanded by our fashionable dressmakers is easily obtained by wearing a "LA GENORE" CORSET. The unbearable pressure and stiffness of the ordinary corset is conspicuously absent in this latest improved corset.

The "LA GENORE" CORSET is MADE TO YOUR MEASURE, thus insuring a perfect fit.

A PHONE MESSAGE will bring our skilled lady attendant to your home, where the excellent qualities of the corset will be DEMONSTRATED to YOUR SATISFACTION.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Some very pleasant at home evenings of the past week were enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoss, 170 East Second street north, in honor of their brother, John Hoss, of Moline,

THE past week has been made quite gay with smaller events given in honor of the visiting guests. With Miss Ethel Carothers of Princeton as Mrs. E. C. Shevlin's guest; Mrs. Davis and Miss Davis of Phillipsburg, New Jersey, as Mrs. Wallace McCamant's guests; Mrs. Gue with her sister, Mrs. Alma D. Katz; Miss Mary Morris of Duluth, Mrs. Wells Gilbert's visitor; Miss Flora Stern with Mrs. Marcus Fleischner; and several others, the informal card parties and luncheons fill up most of the time.

There will be a good deal of entertaining this week as it is the last one before Lent. Then will follow a period of quiet, broken only as usual by the annual Old Ladies' home tea on Easter Monday at the Hobart Curtis, one of the largest and most fashionable semi-public events of the entire year.

The skating party given at the Oaks rink Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Oregon Yacht club quite fulfilled expectations. There was a very large attendance of members and friends of the yacht club, and many prominent society people, especially among the younger set, demonstrated that their interest in the club's welfare is not dead. Several unique features were introduced in the way of competitions. The hall presented an attractive gala appearance with the flags, emblems and pennants from the club decorating the walls. The committee managing the affair worked faithfully and made the affair a most pleasant one.

Floyd Everts, L. Y. Woodward and F. P. Young acted as floor committee.

The club is in a prosperous condition and by absorbing another small club has grown very substantially in membership lately. The clubhouse, built on a promontory overlooking the river at the Oaks, is a delightful place and admirably suited for entertaining. The members are planning to build up more the social end of the work and expect to do some gay entertaining soon. The officers are, commodore, W. A. Knight; vice-commodore, F. P. Young; port captain, L. V. Woodward; secretary, R. N. Parks; treasurer, Arthur Kornahrens.

A delightful affair was the dance and bridge given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns and Miss Carolyn Burns Thursday evening at their home. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Burns and Miss Carolyn Burns were two debutantes, Miss Frances Wilson and Miss Ilse Koehler who have recently had large coming out dances.

Mrs. Burns wore a handsome gown of rose-colored panne velvet. Miss Burns wore white dotted net with gold trimmings. Miss Wilson wore a white lace frock and Miss Koehler white point d'esprit with touches of blue. The older people danced bridge, while the younger ones danced. Among those present at Trinity church Wednesday evening, when Miss Helen Lucille Palmer and Martin Albert Schacht were married. The bride is an exceptionally handsome brunette and made a beautiful picture. She was gowned in white just cloth over satin trimmed with old point lace from her mother's wedding gown. Her ornament was a diamond brooch that had belonged to her grandmother. A spray of lilacs in the valley held her hair in place and she carried Bride roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Rose Schacht, wore pale blue messaline with touches of pipe lace, and carried Bride roses. The bride's mother, Mrs. Martin Schacht, served punch, and she wore black lace and silk. Miss Margaret Palmer, the bride's sister assisted and wore a frock of pale blue messaline with touches of pipe lace.

Mrs. MARTIN SCHACHT
A Popular Bride of Last Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Schacht have gone to the sound on their wedding trip and will be at home at 771 Everett street, Tuesday night. Mrs. Martin Schacht will soon return to her home in Braska, taking her daughter, Mrs. Margaret, with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohn were the hosts at one of the most beautiful dinners of the season at the Portland, Thursday evening. The table was laid for 27 in the main drawing room where palms and vases of violets made the room attractive. The table was lovely with graceful, long-stemmed daffodils and California violets.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Kohn, Miss Florence Kohn, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac White, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Mose Sichel, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Selling, Mrs. Sarah Appel, Miss Flora Stern of San Francisco, Miss Frances Jacobs, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Florence Wolfe, Miss Flora Fleischner, Marcus Mayer of New York, A. G. Jacobs of New York, Dr. Jonah B. Wise, Adolph Jacobs, Mr. Black of Los Angeles, Edgar Frank, Henry Metzger and Sophie Goldsmith.

Mrs. C. Henry Chambreau entertained elaborately yesterday afternoon with a reception for Miss Bessie Ghormley, the daughter of Rev. J. F. Ghormley, whose engagement has been announced to Rev. D. E. Ingram, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Waco, Texas.

Mrs. Chambreau was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Louis Montgomery, Mrs. W. F. Powell and Mrs. A. J. Fanno. Formerly in the dining-room were Mrs. R. M. Hall and Mrs. H. I. Winchell and the girls assisting them in serving were Miss Lulu Forrester, Miss Calla Chambreau, Miss Delta Chambreau and Miss Letha Reed.
