

IN THE PATH OF THE FLEET

A RESIDENCE STREET IN LIMA.

CALLAS PHOTO OF SAN LORENZO, PERU.

By Orton E. Goodwin.
FROM Valparaiso north there are but few places visited by other than business men and those engaged in business in them, and true it is that barely one of them offers the slightest general interest to the visitor.

hand of man, sold by the galleon, was all that was available. So expensive was water that it is an old saying that citizens of Antofagasta and Iquique, which also has a long pipe line, used to drink champagne as "cheaper beverage" than water. However true this may be, it is certain that, although not yet "on the water wagon," west coast cities are not the "quion-flowing resorts" they one time were.

The rainless condition of the coast is responsible for the visibility of the enormous quantities of guano which are piled up by the Chilean soldiers during the Bolivian and Peruvian wars. Viva Chile can be constantly seen, but plainest of all does the water remain on the cliff above Arica the vast sign, "Viva Battalion No. 4." This sign was of especial significance, for Arica is the most northerly of the ports captured from Peru, and consequently the nearest to the Peruvian frontier. Some years ago a tidal wave swept Arica and is reported to have lifted ships in the harbor, broken their cables and carried them some distance—say, 500 yards inland.

This procedure than to cultivate the land. Two days' more steaming brings us to Callao, generally spoken of as the port for Lima, but in reality a far from unimportant city itself. From the harbor can be seen the glistening spires of Lima shining brightly against the dull desert background. Lima itself is a well built city after the Spanish style, the houses usually having the interior court or patio well arranged as a garden, on which all the rooms open out. Many of the most elaborate buildings are made of mud and sun-burned bricks, and are of a very solid construction. The cathedral, for instance, is of matchless architecture and possesses two fine towers not unlike a Turkish mosque, yet in every thing is cheap and sturdy.

All the valuables that Lima once possessed were looted by the Chileans, who have left but the remnants of the once fine library and museum. Similarly Lima contains far fewer actual Inca relics than one would be led to suspect from its association with the Inca kings. Out of doors the fashionable appearance of the women of Buenos Ayres and Valparaiso is somewhat wanting in Lima, with the exception of what the ladies of the foreign colonies do to brighten things up. The Peruvian ladies are always seen on the street in large black mantas, a type of universal, by enveloping shawl. At bullfights and every outdoor public function these mantas are absolutely de rigueur. There are a large number of Americans at Lima so that with them and her great natural advantages Lima will deserve passing mention in the histories that will reach home of the fleet's last South American place of call.

STRAY TOPICS FROM NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The building department found itself stumped the other day to classify the plans that were submitted by William K. Vanderbilt for a new building that he is to have constructed on Fifty-second street between Madison and Park avenues. The building may be either a garage or a two-family dwelling, or more likely both. The building which is to cost $150,000 will be flanked by a stable on either side; but the facade, nevertheless, is to be in the Italian renaissance style. The basement is to contain a garage and there will be a billiard room in the rear on the ground floor. A central winding staircase with a foyer, an electric elevator and a pergola that may be used for a summer garden are among the other features of the building, whose upper floors are arranged for duplex apartments. The structure is to be seven stories high.

On Monday next, Gotham's famous Eden Museum, which is devoted chiefly to exhibiting wax figures, will celebrate its 25th birthday. Although new exhibits have been added to the museum to time, the idea as originally planned has needed little change. Consequently the museum holds a unique place among New York's overhauling amusement resorts, and is quite as famous as Madame Tussaud's museum of wax figures in London. Since the museum is to be erected on the open plot in the rear.

120 FIRMS CAUGHT IN STORE SWINDLE

New York Police Say Fake Merchants Made $100,000 on Scheme.

New York, Feb. 18.—Edward Margolies, a former dealer in fur and silk goods at 48 East Ninth street, was held at police headquarters last night on a charge of grand larceny. The arrest of Margolies is the result, according to Assistant District Attorney E. Crosby Kindeberger, of his participation in one of the largest commercial swindling schemes that has cropped up in New York in a long time. While $40,000 worth of goods are known to have been obtained unpaid for in its operation, the total of profits from the scheme is asserted to have been upward of $100,000.

POINTS FIRST PICTURE OF CARNegie; REWARD

Pittsburg, Feb. 21.—Andrew Carnegie had his portrait painted 44 years ago by a Pittsburg artist, John Earle, still living. Mr. Carnegie was unable to pay for the painting. He did not get possession of it until recently, but has now rewarded the artist handsomely.

PRIEST HEIR TO HALF MILLION; FOR CHARITY

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 18.—Father Charles F. Kearful will devote all of an inheritance of $500,000 left to him by his uncle, Karl Kirkvogel, a prominent wool merchant, who died recently at Sydney, Australia, to charity. Father Kearful, who has served the Catholic church as a priest in Kansas and Missouri for nearly 40 years, has a fortune of his own. He will start at once for Sydney to claim the estate, going by way of Rome, where he will visit the pope.

If You Need Any Dental Work

Call this week at my office. Don't delay, now is the time. You will not regret the visit. No pain. No delay. Only the highest grade of skill.

DR. B. E. WRIGHT

GOOD SET OF TEETH ON RUBBER PLATE..... $5.00 BEST SET OF TEETH ON RUBBER PLATE..... $8.00

DR. B. E. WRIGHT PAINLESS DENTIST

342½ Washington Street, Corner Seventh

OFFICE HOURS—8 A. M. to 5 P. M.; 7:30 to 8:30 P. M.; SUNDAYS—9 A. M. to 1 P. M. PHONE MAIN 2110—TWELVE YEARS IN PORTLAND

TORTURE CHAMBERS IN PRISONS OF PORTUGAL

Tower of Silence Near Lisbon Fitted With Many Cruel Inventions.

Lisbon, Feb. 18.—In the dispatches covering the revolutionary ferment which culminated in the assassination of the king and crown prince, it was stated that the prisons were crowded with political suspects. The worst of the prisons is what may be called the "Tower of Silence." It is situated two or three miles from Lisbon and bears the name of the "Tower of Silence." Human ingenuity, aided by cruel thoughts, fitted this fortress with every possible contrivance for the torture of those incarcerated within its walls.

NEW BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY

The following list of books will be on inspection in the circulating department of the Public Library for one week and will go into circulation on March 2.

ADAMS—The History of England From the Norman Conquest to the Death of John, 1905.

ADAMS—The History of England From the Accession of Henry VII to the Death of Henry VIII, 1906.

ADAMS—The History of England From the Accession of Henry VIII to the Close of William IV's Reign, 1906.

ADAMS—National Problems, 1885-1897, 1907.

ADAMS—Reconstruction, Political and Economic, 1865-1877, 1907.

ADAMS—The History of England, 1907.

ADAMS—The Story of the English Language, 1907.

ADAMS—The Story of the English Language, 1907.

ADAMS—The Story of the English Language, 1907.

Dodd—Chemistry of the Household, 1907.

Dubelle—Soda Fountain Beverages, ed. 3, enl., 1905.

Elliott—Household Bacteriology, 1907.

Elliott—Household Hygiene, 1907.

Le Bosquet—Personal Hygiene, 1907.

Norton—Food and Dietetics, 1907.

Pittsburg—Carnegie Institute: Board of Trustees—Memorial of the Celebration of the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, April 11, 12, 13, 1907.

Pope—Home Care of the Sick, 1907.

Richey—The Building Mechanics' Ready Reference, Stone and Brick Masonry's ed., 1907.

Sanders and Others—Mine Timbering, 1907.

Terrill—Household Management, 1907.

Watson—Textiles and Clothing, 1907.

WORKS FOR CHILDREN.

Bright—The Story of the Atlantic Cable, 1907.

Hopkins—Experimental Science, ed. 25, rev. enl.

Horton—Frozen North, an account of Arctic Exploration.

Jones—Electricity for young people.

Kirk—Ballwin Primer.

Kingsley—The Princess and the Ploughman.

Osborne—The Adventurer.

Reynolds—A Dull Girl's Destiny.

FINE ARTS.

Adams—Harpur's Outdoor Book for Boys, 1907.

Bartholomew—Pencil Drawing From Nature, 1894.

Baker—The House, Its Plan, Decoration and Care, 1907.

Breuer—Vocal Faults and Their Remedies, 1907.

Brickley—Gregorian Chant for the Teacher, the Choir, and the School, 1907.

Knowles—Dutch Pottery and Porcelain, 1904.

Morris—Art and Its Producers; and, The Arts and Crafts of Today, 1901.

Wyllie—Marine Painting in Water Colour, 1905.

HISTORY.

Adams—The History of England From the Norman Conquest to the Death of John, 1905.

Adams—The History of England From the Accession of Henry VII to the Death of Henry VIII, 1906.

Adams—The History of England From the Accession of Henry VIII to the Close of William IV's Reign, 1906.

Dewey—National Problems, 1885-1897, 1907.

Dunning—Reconstruction, Political and Economic, 1865-1877, 1907.

Edwards—The History of England, 1907.

Lewis—Tribes of the Columbia Valley and the Coast of Washington and Oregon, 1906.

Low and Sanders—History of England During the Reign of Victoria, 1907.

LITERATURE.

Benham—Cassell's Book of Quotations, Proverbs and Household Words, 1907.

Dunaway—Oregon, Land of Promise, 1907.

Gayley—Plays of Our Forefathers and Some of the Traditions Upon Which They Were Founded, 1907.

Lang—Tales of Troy and Greece, 1907.

Paine—From Van Dwellier to Columbus: the Story of a Strenuous Quest for a Home and a Little Heath and Garden, 1907.

Poeschl and Others—Occasional Verses and Sacred Songs, 1905.

PHILOSOPHY.

Cabot—Everyday Ethics, 1907.

SCIENCE.

Hammerton—A Text Book of Physical Chemistry, Ed. 4, 1906.

Schneider—Experimenting With Induction Coils, 1906.

SOCIOLOGY.

Colson—Postage Stamps and Their Collection, 1907.

Kirkup—Inquiry Into Socialism, ed. 3, rev. enl., 1905.

Mugger—Irish in America, ed. 4, 1867.

Washburne—Study of Child Life, 1907.

USEFUL ARTS.

Barrows—Principles of Cookery, 1907.

Beattie—Celery Culture, 1907.

Bjorling & Gising—Peat: Its Use and Manufacture, 1907.

Buckley—Public Roads, Their Improvement and Maintenance, n. d.

Carnegie Steel Company—Pocket Companion, 1907.

Cotton—Care of Children, 1907.

Dale—The Stable Handbook, 1907.

"HE'S HYPNOTIZED ME!" SHRIEKS BOY IN COURT

Arrested for Stealing, Youth Accuses Man of Influencing Him.

Seranton, Pa., Feb. 21.—Declaring that James Abbott, a young shoemaker at 217 Stone avenue, had compelled them to steal and bring the stolen articles to him, a group of boys, including James Creedon and Thomas Lee Ryan, who were held by the police upon the charge of burglary, created an exciting and dramatic scene in police headquarters this morning.

AN ALMANAC CHURCH.

Represents Months, Weeks, Days, Hours, Minutes and Seconds.

In the tower of St. Etolph's church, Boston, England, are 355 steps, corresponding to the days in the year; the church has 12 pillars, 52 windows, and 7 doors, representing the months, weeks and days in the week.

In the west porch, says the Church Electric, are 24 steps, ascending to the library above, representing the hours of the day. Again, on each side of the choir are 60 steps, leading to the roof, denoting on the one side the minutes and on the other the seconds of the hour.

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 24 SPECIAL ROSE SALE

FREE! ONE "FRAU KARL DRUSCHKI" ROSE BUSH

With every dozen Rosebushes purchased from us the coming week

Now Is the Time to plant Rosebushes, Vines and Shrubbery

J. B. PILKINGTON, Nurseryman

Fruit and Hardy Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Vines, Rosebushes, Etc.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL Phone Main 4219 Office and Salesrooms Yamhill St. wharf, foot of Yamhill St., north side