Chairman Belding has calledea meeting of the billboard committee of the city council for Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the members will get together and endeavor to draft an ordinance regulating the obnoxious struc-tures that are complained of as nui-sances. Although the committee was appointed some months ago, nothing appointed some months ago, nothing has ever been done, owing to the great press of city business. Councilmen Cot-tel and Cellars are the remaining press of city business. Counciling mem-tel and Cellars are the remaining mem-bers of the committee. Chairman Beld-ing stated yesterday that if any person ing stated relative to regulating the had ideas relative to regulating the nuisance he would be glad to have them attend Monday's meeting and state their

Detective Sergeant Bernard J. Flood of the New York City police department, arrived in Portland this morning with requisition papers for Howard C. Green, who is wanted in the eastern metropolis to answer to the charge of forgery and defilication. Green was arrested here several days ago through the Pinkerton detective agency and has been held a prisoner on a fugitive warrant pending the arrival of the New York officer. Green was formerly private secretary to President Adams of the American Express company, and it was while so employed that the alleged criminal acts were committed. The amount of money involved is said to be in the neighbor-hood of $10,000. of the New York City police department,

A stupendous shoe sale will open tomorrow at the Annex, Fifth and Alder. and Alder. We have bought over $,000 pairs, the entire surplus stock and samples of a big eastern manufacturer," said the manager this morning. "Shoes will be manager this morning. "Shoes will be sold at about the cost of leather alone. The stock embraces men's women's, misses' and children's shoes in all the misses and children's shoes in all the latest styles. This is a most fortunate shopping event for the people of Port-land. Those who wish to learn fur-ther particulars should read our dis-play ad in today's issue."

Superintendent Daggett of the crematory department is happy because of the allowance made by the city council yes-terday afternoon for $200 to be ex-pended in parking the crematory grounds with trees and rose bushes. Mr. Daggett has been endeavoring to secure this money for several months in order to hide the objectionable fea-tures of the grounds. He stated today that be would commence the work of setting out the trees and roses in order to have the latter in bloom at the time to have the latter in bloom at the time of the Rose Festival in June.

A man named Robert Spencer was arrested last evening in Oregon City and brought to this city on a charge of staling a bicycle from the Merchants' fofel. He had been allowed to remain about the hotel for some time, doing eodi tobs for his board and room, and repaid the kindness thus shown him by appropriating the property of a guest. He was arraigned in the police court this morning and the hearing of evi-

NEW TOWNS SPRING UP ON C. N. LINE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Klamath Falls, Or., Feb. 28.-The new town of Dorris, California, on the line of the California Northeastern Up, up it comes to the railway, is to have its first newspaper in about three weeks. W. H. Boham-man of Nevada will start the paper. The town is a lively little city, and the establishment of the railroad camps there as well as the terminus of the road while the line is being built across the marsh will make Dorris exceedingly the marsh will make Dorris exceedingly active for some time to come. The town of Picard, one of the oldest in Butte valley, is practically all moved to Dorris now, and there are many sub-stantial buildings completed. Lots in Dorris have been resold many times at advances over first figures The Bank of Dorris will open soon. FAVORABLE REPORTS

The cost of interments greatly reduced by the Holm greatly reduced by the Holman Under-taking company. Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a fu-neral. The Edward Holman Undertak-ing company, the leading funeral di-rectors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for enfbalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be re-quired of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus affecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
