Some persons are so fond of putting on a swell front in the street that they forget all about their backs. Consequently, the many colds in the winter

Millionaire in Feeling, on $10 a Week Salary.

Portland has a clerk—a man—who, when off duty, reminds one of a millionaire or of a cabinet member. But at work, his appearance, his haughtiness, his blasé manners, his air of "fitness," all disappear. His coat is off, his high hat on a nail and he is his true self. You wouldn't know him if you saw him in the street and a few minutes afterward in his office—or rather his boss's office.

When on parade it is just natural for this man to strut. If he were a millionaire he really would strut. Ward McAllister, Beau Brummel, or any of the other famous dressers checked almost without making a move. He has the millionaire instinct, but the poor man's job. But it isn't his fault. He simply missed his calling. And incidentally it may be mentioned that he missed it a long way.

This man hates to work. Naturally, he simply has to. Otherwise he would be strutting around, on dress parade, all the time. It is his recreation, his pleasure, his one aim in life is to walk and to strut and to swing his cane and to dream, dream, dream.

His dreams are when off duty. Every morning he arises at 6, hikes to the office, and all day he is a clerk. His dreams are shattered for the time being only. After business hours he is always the same haughty millionaire—in appearance.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY "ACTINA"

Ninety-five per cent of the cases of deafness brought to our attention are the result of chronic catarrh of the throat and middle ear. The air passages become clogged by catarrhal deposits, stopping the action of the vibratory bones. Un-all these deposits are removed, the hearing is impossible. The inner ear cannot be reached by probing or syringing, hence the inability of specialists to always give relief. That there is a scientific treatment for most forms of catarrh is demonstrated every day by the "Actina" treatment. The vapor generated by the "Actina" passes through the Eustachian tubes into the middle ear, removing the catarrhal deposits, and loosening up the bones (hammer, anvil and stirrup) in the inner ear, making them respond to the vibration of sound. "Actina" is also very successful in relieving head noises. We have known people afflicted with this distressing trouble for years to be completely relieved in a few weeks by this wonderful invention. "Actina" has also been very successful in the treatment of chronic sinusitis, bronchitis, sore throat, weak lungs, colds and headaches and other troubles that are directly or indirectly due to catarrh. "Actina" will be sent on trial postpaid. Write us about your case. Our advice will be sent free as well as a valuable book—Fruit, Wilson's Treatise on Diseases of the Ear, Throat and Nose, published by the Actina Appliance Co., Dept. 582, 311 Walnut st., Kansas City, Mo.

WILL ASK MISSOURI SOCIETY TO RAISE MONEY FOR MRS. WAYMIRE

Efforts are being made to call a meeting of the Missouri society in Portland to consider the proposition of raising a sum of money to aid Mrs. Belle Waymire in carrying her appeal to the state supreme court. Mrs. Waymire came from Missouri and the move to raise money from the society is based upon this fact.

Just who is behind the movement is unknown. Seneca Fouts, who aided in the defense of Mrs. Waymire prior to her conviction in the state court, said last night that several women connected with the society came to him and spoke about the matter. He refused to divulge the names of the women, but said that such assistance would be useful in carrying the appeal to the higher court.

NEW RURAL DELIVERY ROUTE TO SERVE PATRONS NORTH OF CITY

It is quite probable that an additional rural delivery route will be started out of Woodlawn soon, covering the district north of the city limits and part of the Montavilla territory. Postmaster Minto is anxious to have the new route added as soon as possible, as it will supply a large number of people with regular deliveries who are now practically without service.

During the summer it is possible that a steam launch rural service will be put on to accommodate the people living up the Willamette river. Postmaster Minto expects to hear from the department at Washington in the near future and the launch is to be allowed for this purpose.

ARGUE DEMURRER IN BANKING CASE

Judge Gantenbein Listens to Pleas of Attorneys for Bank Officials.

WOODMEN PLAN BIG LOG ROLLING

April Candidates All Over State Will Have Shins Barked.

During the month of April the Woodmen of the World will hold four mammoth log-rolling in Oregon. Head Consul I. J. Bank and associate head officers will be at each of these log-rolling, and they will conduct the initiatory work.

The log-rolling in Southern Oregon will be held at Roseburg, April 14, and will be in charge of Organizer Beatty. The committee in charge of arrangements expect a rousing Woodmen time, and at least 200 candidates to be initiated from the camps in the southern part of the state.

On April 18 all camps in eastern Oregon will assemble at Baker City, where the committee, assisted by A. G. Saunders, special organizer, is making an effort to supply at least 200 candidates to be initiated by the officers. They will hold about 20 log-rolling in the jurisdiction during the month of April. Arrangements are being made to run special excursions or have a special rate for those who wish to attend the events.

STILL SEARCHING FOR MISSING RAIL

Southern Pacific Officials Hunting for Steel Broken at Forest Grove.

In their efforts to determine the cause of the wreck at Forest Grove, February 11, the Southern Pacific officials are still searching for several pieces of the broken rail. About 14 inches of the steel is still missing. The pieces found are in the offices of William Hallon, division engineer, in the passenger station.

The upper part of the rail found near Forest Grove in Journal representative has been brought to Portland and fits into the two other pieces from which it was broken at the time. When found this particular piece to all appearance, was covered with rust. The cracks looked as if they had been old ones.

The corresponding pieces, however, picked up the night of the wreck and which have been kept indoors ever since, show the break more clearly and no rust appears. To all appearances the breaks in these particular pieces are new and there are no indications of cracks or rust of any kind.

Owing to these facts the railroad officials have come to the conclusion that without a doubt the accident was caused by a broken rail but not by one which had been cracked beforehand.

The recommendations of the railroad commissioners, however, will carry out The Journal's contention that the entire line should practically be rebuilt.
