Kidney-Cure Tea

W. J. VAN DAMME,
185 Morrison street, near bridge, next to Pap's Coffee House.

NEW TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom It May Concern:
After suffering for the past 25 years with kidney trouble, and spending more than $1,000 on doctors and medicine, I got no better. These different doctors that have been treating me have called my disease Rheumatism, Chronic Appendicitis, Fibrous Tumors and Heart Trouble. I called on Van Damme and obtained from him a bottle of his "Kidney Cure Tea," about six weeks ago, and have since used four other bottles, making five in all, and today I consider myself a new person. For any further testimonials call at my home and I will gladly furnish them.

MRS. E. L. FITZGERALD,
885 Sandy Road.
Portland, Or., Feb. 20, 1908.

Put up in 60c and $1.10 bottles.

TRAIN KILLS TWO SAVED FROM RIVER

Rescuer in the First Mishap Is Probably Fatally Injured in the Second.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 29.—Saved after a terrible struggle from drowning in the Monongahela river and then being run down and killed by a train after reaching dry land was the fate of two government employes at lock No. 3. A companion who aided in the rescue was injured, probably fatally.

The dead are:
J. W. Draper of Greensboro.
Flovin B. Garrett of Rice's Landing.

The injured man is C. E. Stoner of Greensboro.

Shortly after the men quit work Draper fell into the water. Garrett plunged into the river to save him. The rescuer was numbed by the cold and sank, pulling Draper with him. Stoner saved them with a boat hook.

The three men started to walk toward Elizabeth to get dry clothing. While they were talking of their escape the train overtook them and tossed them high into the air.

LIFE-SAVING BY CABLE NEWEST SHIP DEVICE

Government Utilizes Coal-Loading Principle on Pacific Cutter.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Philadelphia, Feb. 9.—Within the next month a revenue cutter, now under construction in Wilmington, Delaware, will leave for the Pacific coast prepared to assist the passengers of wrecked vessels in a novel way, the new craft being equipped with the first lifesaving cableway ever used on a ship.

In making the plans of the new cutter, now simply known as No. 16, a number of prominent engineers were consulted and every invention adapted to lifesaving was tested. They finally selected Spencer Miller's invention, whose cableway device for coaling ships of war at sea has been approved by this and other governments.

Mr. Miller's invention is of the same principle as the hawser and the breeches buoy used by the coast lifesavers, but it differs in that it can be used by a rescuing vessel to aid a disabled or foundering ship even in midocean. A small line is shot to the distressed ship and fastened to the masthead. On the steamship bearing the controlling end of the cableway there is a steam reel, installed below decks, which under every conceivable condition maintains a constant tension on the cableway or hawser.

One of the tests required by the officials of the revenue cutter service is that the reel will automatically care for 1,000 feet of line running in either direction, should the ships suddenly move to or from each other. The tests are soon to take place at the Lidgewood testing works of Newark.

A Brazilian Convict Colony.

From the Chicago Tribune.

The penal colony of the State of Pernambuco, Brazil, is on an island 300 miles off the coast. There are 600 convicts at present. They arise at 5 a. m. and work till 2 p. m. for the state, cultivating cotton of a superior fine quality. After 2 o'clock they work for themselves. The island is one of the most orderly and productive bits of soil in Brazil. It is a model convict colony and the cheapest run of any in the world.

The group of islands to which the penal one belongs is where the equatorial and south equatorial currents divide, and it is surrounded by a triangular sheet of quiet sea full of all kinds of fish valuable commercially.

Men Who Make Blunders

Some of the smartest men that brightened the world with their presence made grave mistakes, and some of the most successful advertisers blighted their careers through blunders. The greatest blunder an advertiser can make is to rest on his oars after a spell of successful publicity. Many think that after a few months' or years' advertising they are sufficiently known by the public to reap the benefit of bygone advertising, never considering that a busy world is too much taken up with passing things to remember months or years back. The old adage, "Out of sight, out of mind," should be mirrored on the brain of every progressive business man. The busy people will not bother with the "has beens" no more than they will with the man or the horse who drops out of the race. Their careers are eclipsed, and the public will not buy field glasses to see how the lagging ones are coming or where they dropped out.

Of course the question of the most profitable advertising medium should be considered well. In Portland and in Oregon the best known way to reach the people is through the newspaper that reaches the most homes. The Journal is the one paper for all the people, having no political axes to grind and being no organ for any clique or party. The advertiser who is not making his announcements in The Journal is not getting the results he should. For real estate sales The Journal leads by three to one.

English as She Is Spoken.

From the London Daily News.

An amusing dialogue occurred yesterday between Judge Willis, K. C., and a plaintiff who sued a man for the value of a quantity of grain supplied.

His honor said he had received a letter from the defendant, who said he could only offer half a crown a month. "That," continued his honor, "will take six years to get rid of the debt."

Plaintiff (emphatically)—I would willingly forgive a poor man, but when you find he is a "swanker," and doing every one in the neighborhood, it puts your back up. (Laughter.) We have to cut things very fine in order to get a shilling or two, and then these gentry come "swanking" about the country as if they were toffs. (Laughter). I am told by others that he is nothing more than a "duck-shover." (Laughter).

His honor—A what shover? (Loud laughter).

Plaintiff—Duck-shover, your honor, a man who gets things on the bounce and the nod. (Renewed laughter).

His honor—You mean a man who gets people to let him have things on credit by representations that are not correct? Is that what you mean to convey by your big phrases—duck-shover and so forth? (Laughter).

Plaintiff—That's it—duck-shover and swanker. (Renewed laughter).

An order to pay 5s monthly was made.
