

OVERCOME BY FORCE, OFFICER CRIES IN CELL

Policeman Suttter, Held for Killing Henry Shaffer, Paces Prison Room All Night. Star and Helmet Taken From Him; Must Face Murder Charge in Second Degree.

Realizing the seriousness of the situation more than he ever held a night in jail, Policeman N. H. Suttter, held without bond after the coroner's jury verdict that the killing of Henry Shaffer, a longshoreman, was unjustifiable, broke down in his cell at the city prison this morning and cried.

Suttter bore up well under the strain until he was arrested and his star and helmet taken from him. As time wore on it was apparent that he was worried and most of the night he paced the floor in his second and third cell on the floor at Second and Oak streets.

Mrs. Suttter has not seen her husband since he was arrested. This morning she telephoned and requested that she be allowed to talk to her husband over the wire. The humble request was granted.

When mention of his wife was made Suttter became deeply affected. Not only has he a wife at his home, 823 Madison avenue, but there are two small children beside.

Officer to Be Indicted.
Suttter is to be indicted upon information filed by District Attorney Manning with the circuit court charging him with murder in the second degree. The penalty for this offense is confinement in the penitentiary for life.

The verdict of the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon was to the effect that Shaffer's death had been caused by a gunshot wound inflicted by Suttter and from the evidence submitted the jurors did not believe the shooting was justifiable. The verdict was decided upon in less than 10 minutes.

The jurors were: E. H. Hollist, A. B. Stewart, F. N. Nary, J. M. Gilbert, O. H. Anderson and R. J. Fryka.

Several members of the birthday party at Suttter's home at the time of the shooting Sunday evening, were among the witnesses as well as Mrs. Shaffer, the widow, and J. Holzer, who first made complaint of the disturbance.

Holzer admitted that he did not like Shaffer, but that he had had slight disagreements at previous intervals. Shaffer lived in a two-roomed building just behind the house occupied by the longshoreman.

Had Witness for Himself.
It was the testimony of Suttter himself which convinced the jurors more fully than any other testimony that the shooting was unjustifiable.

HIKIE PROJECT IN NEW HANDS

Cleaver Brothers Take Over 10,000 Acres for Eastern Capitalists.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., March 3.—The second large deal in irrigated land to be recorded in the west end of Umatilla county within the past month was closed at Echo last evening when the Cleaver brothers, representing Chicago and Indiana capital, took over the Hinkle Ditch company's holdings at Echo.

The deal involves about 10,000 acres of arid and semi-arid land and 25 miles of canals and laterals and represents the sum of $100,000.

The other large deal was the purchase of half of the Burnside portion of the Hinkle ditch by Councilman J. T. Hinkle of this city and O. D. Teel of Echo with a number of associates. The Hinkle ditch, an ancient attempt at reclamation, was taken over and has been extended and enlarged until it is now one of the leading projects in the state.

The capitalists who have purchased it will colonize the land with eastern homesteaders.

UNION PACIFIC GETS SEATTLE FRANCHISES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Wash., March 3.—All of the Union Pacific franchise ordinances and the ordinances vacating portions of streets in both the southern and northern portions of the city as requested by the Harriman road passed the city council last night by a unanimous vote of 10 to 0.

The ordinances cover every detail asked by the Union Pacific in connection with its entrance to the city providing for the construction of a tunnel to parallel the Hill tunnel and consolidating the Harriman lands to be

"THE PROOFS"

What basis is there for the statement that there has been no real treatment for kidney diseases?

The medical term for kidney disease is NEPHRITIS, which means inflammation of the kidneys, and the remedy was there was nothing that would ally kidney inflammation.

There are many kidney medicines so-called, and many people with kidney trouble get well.

CROSS CONTINENT BACK TO MOTHER

Children Flee From Father in New York—To Hood River via New Orleans.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Hood River, Or., March 3.—Unhappy at being separated from their mother, Mrs. Willis Van Horn, Marion and Edward Philpott, who were given into the custody of their father by the federal court at Portland last December, succeeded in escaping from him about 10 days ago and arrived at their former home here today.

Anticipating that an effort would be made by their father to intercept them, the Philpott children, who have been living at Niagara Falls, New York, since the court's decision, took a circuitous 3,000-mile journey to avoid being stopped by telegraph.

After an affectionate meeting with their mother and Mr. Van Horn at the railroad station here, they were driven to the home of the wealthy apple grower, where they have since been resting from their long journey, which consumed nine days.

It is stated that the children escaped the vigilance of their father owing to the fact that they were allowed to visit their grandmother over Saturday and Sunday, not returning home until Monday evening. Instead of going to her home, however, they took a train for New Orleans and before it was discovered that they had departed on their long journey three days had elapsed.

At the time of the decision giving them into the custody of their father, the Philpott children objected strongly to being taken away from their mother and stated that they would return at the first opportunity.

Defends Dead Husband.
Mrs. Shaffer, who claims to have had hold of her husband's arm at the time he was killed, was also on the stand. She said her husband was endeavoring to get out of the back door and that he was not vicious nor attempting to attack her.

Other witnesses before the jury were Chas. Gammacher, who told of having issued special orders to all policemen with reference to using the revolver after Suttter's mix-up with Burkhardt last night; Mrs. Emma Spain, Mrs. Shaffer's sister, another witness, also testified.

Funeral services over the body of Suttter will be held at Finley's chapel Thursday afternoon. Interment will be in the Rose City cemetery.

Four German guests at Shaffer's house at the time of the killing, who pleaded guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct in the municipal court yesterday, have been sentenced to jail for an error. The men do not speak English fluently and in this way they allege they misunderstood the court.

Three others, who had been found guilty at the time. The hearing of the seven men was set for March 6.

BOILERMAKER SHOT BY DRUNKEN COMPANION

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., March 3.—As a result of a drunken row in the Anvil bar, Tom Ryan, a boilermaker 35 years of age, was shot and seriously wounded at 1 o'clock this morning by James O'Donnell, aged 50, a miner from Black Diamond.

The essential nature of the quarrel is not known, but both men had been drinking. Loud words were heard and the few people still congregated in the bar saw O'Donnell jerk a revolver from his pocket and fire directly at his companion.

Ryan fell with a groan and his assailant was grabbed by the crowd, later being placed under arrest.

Wing, trustees. W. R. Wing was appointed superintendent of the Sunday school. Rev. W. W. of Junction City will supply the pulpit for the present and organization will meet in the church building at Irving south until a new building can be erected.

RAILROAD TAXER FILES PETITION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., March 3.—C. P. Strain, who has been for two terms assessor of Umatilla county, has filed a petition for a great increase in the valuation of railroad property has been secured, has filed his petition for a third term and will probably not have any opposition. No other candidate has been mentioned so far.

Baker Wins Debate.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Baker, City, Or., March 3.—Before a large audience at the Elks' hall Friday evening, the representatives of the Baker City high school team defeated the team from Union in the debate on the question, "Resolved, that the Government should own and operate the railroads of the United States." The Baker team had the negative side of the question while Union upheld the affirmative.

Straw Vote at Theatre.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Aberdeen, Wash., March 3.—Manager E. B. Benn of the Grand theatre has arranged for the taking of a straw vote on the candidates for president at a forthcoming high-class performance, the result of which will be telegraphed to the interested parties and read between the acts to the audience.

Mardi Gras in Full Swing.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
New Orleans, March 3.—The Mardi Gras festivities are now in full swing, with an attendance of visitors from all parts of the continent. The elaborate parade today was witnessed by thousands who lined the principal thoroughfares. The city is gayly decorated, and the atmosphere is largely suspended and joyous enthusiasm are abundant.

CLERKS IN OFFICE OF ATTORNEY QUIT

Miss Vivian Flexner and Her Sister, Miss Amy, Send Resignations.

Miss Vivian Flexner, clerk in the United States attorney's office, has resigned, as has her sister, Miss Amy Flexner, special assistant clerk, and they will leave soon for their former home in Davenport, Iowa.

Ever since Miss Flexner was called upon by Francis J. Heney to testify in the Hill case, Miss Flexner has been in the office because Miss Flexner's testimony was directly opposite to that offered by the federal attorney.

Miss Flexner completed her services with Mr. Bristol shortly after he accepted the office and has provided a most valuable assistant in the district attorney's office. With a federal grand jury coming into office and the accompanying rush of business her services will be greatly missed.

Miss Flexner has been connected with the office since last spring and at the time she had been in the employ of the government has added greatly in the work of the department.

CONSPIRED TO MURDER

his attempt to assassinate Chief Shippy but 300 suspects are under surveillance. Averbuch's sweetheart, who is known as "Rosie," is the quarry whom the police are seeking today, but no trace of her can be found.

Censorship of all literature of the revolutionary societies will be established by the police and all violent anarchistic gatherings will be broken up.

Averbuch was an orthodox Jew. He prayed for hours in a small room before starting out to assassinate Chief Shippy.

Young Shippy Better.
Official bulletins from the Augustana hospital early today read: "Harry Shippy passed a good night, sleeping soundly from 1 a. m. until a few minutes after 3 o'clock. He awoke greatly refreshed. His condition slightly improved. His chances for recovery are more favorable. Driver James Foley passed a quiet night, his condition somewhat better. He is still in the hospital."

The police have following suspects under arrest: Ignora Marna, 29 years of age, a Russian Jew, known as "curly-haired boy," of 218 Washburne avenue; Edward Berman, a cobbler of 573 West Twelfth street; Mary Adams, a saloonkeeper, 640 Canal street; Tony Komitros, boarder in Adams' home, and Olga Averbuch, sister of the dead assassin.

TRAINS RUN OVER PENDLETON CUT-OFF

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., March 3.—The O. R. & N. cut-off just west of this city, on which work has been in progress for the past two years, is now complete and trains are running over it. It shortens the distance from Pendleton to Portland by about 3,000 feet and gives the O. R. & N. a track and an easier grade into the city from the west. There is a steel bridge 300 feet long on the cut-off. The cost of the grade and bridge is estimated at $100,000.

Death From Diphtheria.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., March 3.—Walter Manker, 19 years old, died last evening after a week's illness with diphtheria. The case was especially severe. There have been a number of cases in this and other eastern Oregon towns, but everything possible is being done by physicians and health boards to prevent its spread.

Jefferson P. Myers Dead.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., March 3.—Jefferson P. Myers, 58 years of age, a retired Umatilla county farmer, died of grip at the Walla Walla hospital last evening after a brief illness. He had farmed for 25 years in the vicinity of this city, but a short time ago moved to Walla Walla to reside. He was an elder brother of Postmaster J. T. Brown of this city and a pioneer of Oregon.

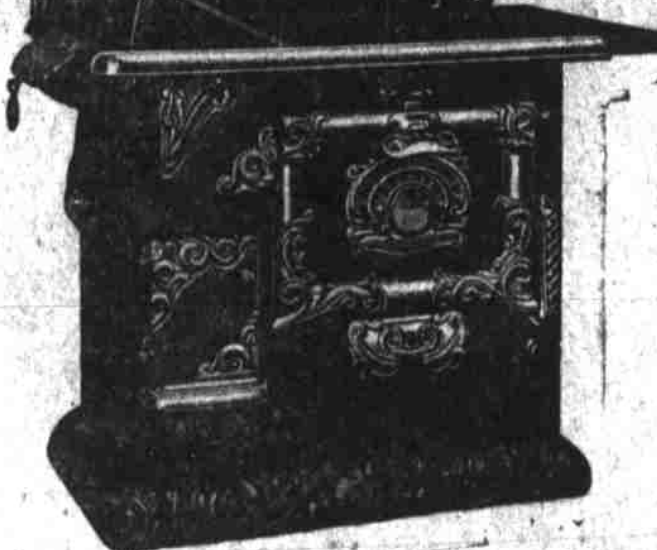

DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed by Portland Testimony.
Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.
Read the statements of Portland citizens.
And decide for yourself.
Here is one case of it:
Mrs. J. W. Painter of 4453 Market street, Portland, Oregon, says: "I have not lost any of my faith in Doan's Kidney Pills since I publicly recommended the remedy in February, 1903. As I stated at that time, a severe spell of sickness early in my life left me with weak kidneys, and as time went on I suffered more and more with spells of backache. The pain through the kidneys was torture and often I could not find a comfortable position to lie in. When able to be up and around I was troubled with headaches and dizziness and could not stoop or lift anything. I doctored and used various treatments, but nothing seemed to help me any until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The use of this remedy was very satisfactory. It gave me so much relief that I cannot hesitate to recommend it and will put in a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I find an opportunity."

FEDERAL DOCKET TO BE CLEARED

At the present time there are 16 men in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury for different offenses. Most of them, however, are being held for violation of the postal laws. Some six or seven other men are awaiting the action of the jury, but were able to put up bonds for their appearance before the jury when it was called.

Those in jail consist of the following men:
H. H. Higley, accused of having used the mails for illegal purposes.
Fred Kuhn and John Anderson, accused of counterfeiting.
George Wilson, Fred Johnson, John Simpson, Frank McPherson, all pleaded in the robbery of a substitution of the Portland postoffice.
G. D. Salnave, C. G. Hornsberger, for robbery of the mail.
Merle West, Dell Hayward, Earle Hanke, for robbery of the postoffice at Hillsdale.
Ed. Wells, J. N. Saylor, Frank Caviness, M. J. Dorsey for having used the mails to defraud by the use of fraudulent certificates of the old Planters bank of Georgia.

John S. Carroll, alias Sailor Jack, accused of having stolen a United States mail pouch, other consideration of his case has been postponed until March 9, and he is out on bonds until the hearing before the United States commissioner on that date.
