TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS.

Helig. "The Walls of Jericho" Marquam. "The Wheel of Love" Baker. "No Mother to Guide Her" Grand. "By Right of Sword" Star. "Way Out West" Star.

Through error in an announcement from the Y. M. C. A. published in Sunday's Journal Dr. Allen Wilson, evangelist, was declared to be here to succeed Rev. E. R. Muckley in the First Christian church. Dr. Wilson, who was a college mate of Mr. Muckley, is here to hold evangelistic services at the First Christian church and is having most successful meetings. Last Sunday he began his second week of work after gaining 23 accessions to the church. The first week, 80 far 33 new members have joined the church. Dr. Wilson holds meetings every night excepting Monday and will continue his work indefinitely. This evening he will preach on "Faith: What It Is and How to Get It." Dr. Muckley was called to this pastorate in 1904 and his call has been renewed from year to year. This year, however, his call was extended indefinitely.

Supreme Grand Chancellor Judge Charles A. Barnes of the Knights of Pythias was tendered a reception last night in the Pythian temple at Eleventh and Alder streets. Several hundred Portland Knights, together with most of the officers of the grand lodge of Oregon, were present to pay their respects to the supreme chancellor. Following the reception a banquet was served in the temple banquet hall, at which addresses were made by the supreme chancellor, supreme representative W. M. Calk and William L. Bradshaw of the state of Washington and Grand Chancellor John M. Hall of Oregon. Judge Barnes and his wife left this morning for Seattle and after visiting the principal cities of Washington will go south for a trip through California.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Life Insurance company was held in the company's office in the new Corbett building yesterday afternoon. A. J. Miller read his annual report, and afterwards delivered an address to the large number of policyholders present, which he spoke of as "The Future of the company and its unparalleled prosperity during 1907." A board of 29 directors was elected, who will meet March 23 and select a president to manage the company for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Viola B. Shurtliff died yesterday afternoon at the residence of her son-in-law, Otto F. Brandes, 394 Clay street, after a long illness, resulting from a stroke of paralysis in 1901. Mrs. Shurtliff was a native of Kansas, where she was born in 1839. She, with her husband, F. N. Shurtliff, who died several years ago, came to Oregon in 1862, settling in Polk county. She leaves an only daughter, Mrs. Otto F. Brandes, who is now ill at the Good Samaritan hospital. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Owing to the failure of several of the bidders on the Y. M. C. A. building to make their bids clear, the building committee of the Y. M. C. A. decided to postpone the awarding of the contract until the bids were prepared and ready to be opened. Fifteen bids were submitted, covering the erection of a steel frame or reinforced concrete building.

Peter Sonsum has begun suit in the circuit court for $15,000 damages against the Portland Railway company. He says he was permanently injured by being thrown from a truck while driving at Sixth and Gilson streets, where his wagon collided with a streetcar. The accident took place on January 24, and he claims that it would not have taken place had the streetcar men operated their car as they should have done.

George S. Shepherd, candidate for congress from the second district, will open his campaign at Astoria tonight with an illustrated lecture showing the work done on the Columbia river by the Pacific Coast Admen's association, which meets here during the Rose show. A date for the annual banquet will probably be selected.

Members of the Portland Creditmen's association will give a dinner at Richard's hotel tonight, in honor of C. E. Meek of New York, secretary of the national organization. A number of addresses will be made, including one by the Creditmen's guest.

An examination for the position of draftsman in the office of the engineer of the Third Lighthouse district, will be held by the civil service commission April 8. Applications should be made to Z. A. Leigh at the postoffice.

Elijah Hawkins, an octogenarian pensioner, fainted at the courthouse this morning in the tri-monthly clerk of pensioners who go to the county clerk.

Will water harm it? No? Then Ivory Soap will not. That is the safe rule for the best cleansing of everything that is washable.

It applies to the hands, face and body; to fine furniture, laces, embroidered articles, curtains and a hundred other things.

to execute their vouchers. All morning the office of the society was crowded with veterans of the war and many of them are physically unable to withstand excitement or fatigue. Hawkins was carried into another room where he soon revived and was able to go on his way.

A. B. Manley has applied for letters on the estate of Omer B. Wirt, who died on February 27. The property is valued at $6,500 and the heirs are the widow, Sarah A. Wirt, and her minor children, Elizabeth and Ann Louise Wirt. As the widow is insane, Manley has been appointed guardian for her and for her children as well.

J. F. Dalton was acquitted of the charge of larceny by a jury in Judge Bronaugh's court yesterday afternoon. He was charged with stealing two chickens, valued at $18, from Mrs. Elsie Shephard of Jefferson street. The property was found upon him, but his explanation of the matter satisfied the jury.

The hardware store of Potter & Gould, Jersey street, St. Johns, has changed ownership, and D. R. Norton, a Hood River merchant, who has recently been engaged in the hardware business in Echo, is the new proprietor and takes immediate possession. Potter & Gould are entering the fruit business in the Rogue River valley region.

Mr. Charles E. Brown, grocer, successor to R. W. Parker, 91 Grand avenue, had years of experience in the grocery business. He carries a very fine line of coffees, but when it comes to cereal coffees, he says: "There is but one kind to use, viz.: Golden Grain Granules."

A New Departure

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriage, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
