POWER PLANT AT RED BOY IS SHUT DOWN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

from the power plant of the Fremont Power company of the Red Boy mines state that a break occurred a few days ago at the nozzle where the water is sent into the wheel, and for a time it was feared that results might be of a ery serious nature. Further investigation proved that the break was com-paratively slight. It was necessary to close down the plant while repairs were made, which at this particular time, when the work of pumping out the mine is in progress, was a drawback. The water has been lowered 70 feet in the Red Boy, according to reports, and it would have been a serious matter had the break been sufficient to incapacithe the machinery so that the pumps would have had to remain idle for any great length of time. The break allowed a 10-inch stream
