

WAGON ROAD MEN WOULD BE SUED

Coos Bay Interest Wants Title Quiet—Opposes Fulton Measure.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, D. C., March 13.—Elijah Smith, president of the Coos Bay Wagon Road company, has asked the department of justice to sue his company as a party defendant with the Southern Pacific, to quiet title to its lands. He now personally opposes the Fulton legislation, before the house lands committee. The substance of the argument offered by him and other large owners of timber lands bought from the Southern Pacific is that the railroad's title is perfectly good. They uniformly hold that the government will lose the suit contemplated.

SAUSAGES FOR FLEET SAZORS

Pork Meat Will Bring Joy to Evans' Tars and Marines.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
San Diego, Cal., March 13.—The big supply ship Culgon arrived in this port today from Magdalena bay and at once began taking on board tons of provisions for the fleet, the "piece de delectation" being two carloads of sausages. Up to noon no communication by wireless with the battleships at Magdalena bay had been held, the last advice from the Mexican port stating that active preparations were making for the beginning of target practice.

MARINES WILL ACT AS POLICE

Sailor-Soldiers Detailed to Patrol Waterfront While Fleet Is in Harbor.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, March 13.—Marines from the great Atlantic fleet, instead of city policemen, will patrol East street on the bay front, after Rear Admiral Evans and his men arrive here, according to plans decided upon by the board of harbor commissioners.

A Fortune in Smoke

You know "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," who has been figuring in the bully series of stories in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST. J. Rufus Wallingford is the greatest character of the under-world since Raffles, and he operates in a higher plane. But in this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST J. Rufus gets his. He joins the most extensive club in the world, "The Down and Out Club."

The game looked good to start with. Meers, himself, told him, "You're an honor to the family. I didn't suppose there were many more games left, but you've sprung a new one, and it's a peach."

But life turns yellow to J. Rufus, and even his wife has to admit that "upon thistles grow no roses." The story is called a "Fortune in Smoke." It makes a hit with us, and it will with you.

Another story in this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST is "The White Light of Publicity," by Charles Belmont Davis, in which the hero asserts that "Women do not commit suicide," and toward the end, although he does not assert it, he seems on the point of committing matrimony.

850,000 people find it worth while to buy THE SATURDAY EVENING POST each week. Read this week's issue, and you will see why.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, March 13.—The local Asiatic Exclusion league has determined to circulate pledge petitions among the business firms and residents of the city, asking them to refuse to patronize firms or persons employing Japanese in stores or restaurants.

SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW TO BE MODIFIED

Legislation of Great Importance to Business World, to Railroads and Labor Organizations is Promised as Result of a Series of Conferences which have been held at the White House.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 13.—Legislation of great importance to the business world, to railroads and labor organizations is promised as the result of a series of conferences which have been held at the White House. These conferences have had to do with the proposed amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law, which, in the opinion of many public men, including the president, railroad managers, and many labor leaders, is too drastic in some places. Hence President Roosevelt, in line with his general policy of seeking consultation with conflicting interests, has encouraged conferences on the subject and considerable progress has been made, and it is probable a measure amending the anti-trust law will be introduced in the house very soon by Chairman Hepburn of the committee on interstate commerce.

ST. MARIES FIRE DESTROYS HOTEL

Several Business Blocks Burned Causing Loss of About $55,000.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Spokane, Wash., March 13.—A special fire from St. Maries, Idaho, says: Fire which broke out in the St. Maries hotel last evening, destroyed that building and several other business blocks. Three hundred men fought the flames with small hose cart equipment and buckets but their efforts were inadequate. The damage so far will approximate $55,000.

SEATTLE MAYOR BARS PUGILISTS

John Miller Announces That Prize Fights Will Be Suppressed.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, March 13.—"There will be no professional prize-fighting or boxing in Seattle during my administration," said Mayor-elect John F. Miller today. Professional pugilists need not come to Seattle will be encouraged here. I despise fake sports of any kind and I know that invariably it is the man of small means who becomes the victim of the promoters of this kind of game."

ENGLISH HOUSE OPPOSES UNIONS

Commons Refuse to Pass Bill Providing Salary for the Unemployed.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, March 13.—One of the most important bills introduced in the house of commons in recent years was rejected today, when by a vote of 241 to 85, the measure providing that municipal or local authorities give employment and union wages to men who prove they are unable to make a living otherwise was defeated. The labor and socialist parties are furious at the action taken by the majority of the house.

DESIGNER'S FIGHT ENDED BY DEATH

Man Who Planned Congressional Library Fought to Last for His Pay.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 13.—Death has claimed John Smithmyer, ending his years of fight to get the pay he claims he was entitled to for his services in designing the library of congress, one of the most magnificent buildings in the world. When the famous designer died yesterday he had under consideration a plan which, if thought, might induce congress to give some recognition to his claim.

DALLES RINK TO BE READY IN TWO WEEKS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., March 13.—It is expected that the amusement hall under construction here will be completed in two weeks. It has a floor space of nearly 100 feet square, and this will be used for dancing or skating. The rink will be in use as soon as completed. A gallery will be erected to seat several hundred people. It will require six arc lights to properly illuminate the large building.

DRYS IN FIGHT FOR UMATILLA

Prohibition Leaders Organize to Get Question Voted On in June.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., March 13.—At a meeting of the leaders of the prohibition forces held in this city last evening it was decided to have a county vote on prohibition at the coming June election and petitions for placing the question on the official ballots are now being circulated. A strong county organization has been effected, with Jerry Stone of Athena as chairman. An active campaign will be conducted for a dry county. There are now five dry precincts in Umatilla county, as follows: North Milton, south Milton, south Athena, Ruddock and Encampment. It is thought that this number can be doubled this year, even if the entire county does not go dry, which is now confidently expected by the leaders in the movement.

CLEVER RUSSIAN IS AMBASSADOR TO CHINA

(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Petersburg, March 13.—It is rumored today that General Wegack, one of the cleverest diplomats in the service of the czar, has been named as ambassador to China and will start soon to take charge of the Peking embassy. General Wegack has served as Russian military agent at both Tientsin and Tokio, and is thoroughly familiar with oriental politics.

his announcement pledge he would be thrown clear out of the running, therefore it is presumed from his present attitude that he has decided to flip a little and hedge against possibilities.

INDIANS TO LEARN ART OF FORESTRY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 13.—The interior department has asked congress for $90,000 with which to instruct Indians in the art of forestry in Indian forest reservations. The department desires the following corps for service of Washington reservations: One deputy supervisor, one forest assistant, seven rangers under nine guards.

MORE TROUBLE FOR C. W. MORSE

Receiver of National Bank of North America Files Petition Against Him.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, March 13.—The troubles of Charles W. Morse, former "ice king," millionaire and banker of New York, increased today, when Charles A. Hanna, receiver of the National Bank of North America, filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against him in the federal court. Hanna claims that Morse is indebted to the banking institution in the amount of $103,571. In the petition Frank C. Pringle says Morse owes him more than $8,000 for 20 shares of the capital stock of the bank and N. D. Shotwell claims a like amount. Judge Hough, who has been asked to appoint a receiver for Morse, has the matter under advisement.

COLLEGE GRADUATE

Found Clear Thinking Assured by Right Food.

A college student should know that clear thinking comes easiest from a brain well and properly fed. I have now been using Grape-Nuts steadily four years and having passed the experimental and over-enthusiastic stage, I feel sure of myself and have settled down to a solid basis of fact. This I have derived largely from that excellent little booklet, "The Road to Wellville," which I have largely adopted as my faithful guide in matters pertaining to eating, exercise and health in general.

POSTMASTERS NAMED FOR OREGON CITIES

BUILD PLANT SOON

certainly would not put up any bonds. We have come here without asking any bonus and we expect fair treatment," said he. "If we can't build here there are other places where we can build. Portland is our choice, but we don't have to locate here. It would sound better if they offered to put up a bonus if we would guarantee to spend twice the amount they put up. I'd be willing to do that, but not to put up any bonds."
