BAUER SEAT SALE OPENS TOMORROW The seat sale for the coming joint recital of Kreislser and Bauer will open at the Heilig box office tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, and as no event of the winter has equaled this in interest and high quality there will be an immense outpouring of music lovers and admirers of the two great artists. Kreislser is an intensely human player, pulsing with warm blood and possessing a consummate artistry. No period of style is a stranger to him and his predilection for the music of the old masters of the violin is especially notable. Bauer has played in Portland twice before and has a tremendous following here, for his playing is strong, manly playing and his tone is ringing clear. The joint recital is next Tuesday evening, March 17, at the Heilig theatre, under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman, and the seat sale opens tomorrow.
