British Ship Clan Buchanan Arrives
From Santa Rosalia to Carry Wheat to Europe—Ship Clan Rob-to drift along for 90 days in light breezes and a scarcely ruffled sea with-

Captain Morgan declares it was one of the most uneventful voyages that

The ship lies at anchor in the bay off Astoria awaiting orders to proceed up the Columbia river. At that time conditions indicated still higher freights and her owners were not disposed to accept the offers then made.

Captain Morgan confirms the report brought by other navigators here from Valparaiso to the effect that the port is a very bad one as a result of the destructive earthquake of several months ago. Like the German ship

Nereus, the Leyland Bros. held there several months and used as a warehouse. The Nereus arrived here during the early part of the week.

Captain Muller reports that they had been detained there five months to get rid of a cargo of merchandise brought out from Europe. Even though the freight was in demand the consignees would not take it from the ship because they were not prepared to store it even for a few days.

The British ship Clan Buchanan, Captain Thomson, arrived in the harbor yesterday afternoon from Santa Rosalia in ballast under charter to carry wheat to Europe for the Northwest Warehouse Company. In direct contrast to the Leyland Bros. the Clan Buchanan is to run up the coast, covering the distance from the lower Californian port to the Columbia river in 34 days.

Captain Thomson says he speeded along before a fair wind all the way until off Tillamook Rock, when the ship fell into squalls and a confused sea. Fearful and anxious the crew stood out for a couple of days instead of attempting to enter the river under such condition. Captain Thomson was here 11 years ago in command of the British ship Clan Roberson, which was sold to a Norwegian company a few months ago and

TRAGEDY WHICH SHOCKED GERMANY.

The tragedy which resulted in the killing of Major von Schoenbeck, the suicide of Captain von Geoben and the incarceration in a madhouse of Madame von Schoenbeck, has created a sensation in German social circles second only to the exposure of the count Camarilla by Maximilian Harden. A picture of Frau von Schoenbeck is shown at the top. Below at the left is a photo of Captain von Geoben, and at the right of Major von Schoenbeck.

NO JOBS ENOUGH TO GO AROUND

Nearly Every Taxpayer in St. Johns Looking for Political Seat.

New tickets are being launched in St. Johns nearly every night by secret caucuses and star chamber conventions. It is the custom of St. Johns at about this time before each city election to make nominations. The citizen who takes an interest in politics expects each morning to hear that some ticket has sprung into being during the night.

It is reported that one meeting this week was held in the rear of a blacksmith's shop. While the secret session was in progress two of those present were delegated alternately to pound the anvil in order to make the town believe that nothing unusual was going on, that it was simply the blacksmith working over time. The men who wished the honors were promptly named and the ticket in return for their labor.

The secret conventions are a source of much amusement to those who do not keep them busy trying to keep track of everybody who wants an office.

A "taxpayer's ticket" was put into the city by a "dark session" Thursday night. It has not been learned what measures were taken to make the rest of the city believe that the ticket was something else. Anyhow nobody knew anything about it until the following morning, and then not until the next morning, when it was distributed among the following: For mayor, J. F. Hendricks; for recorder, J. E. Tanch; for treasurer, C. S. Thompson; for city attorney, G. J. Perkins; for first ward councilman, A. R. Jones and George

Epps; for second ward councilman, C. P. Bonham; for councilman at large, C. J. Muck and C. L. Johnson. When there are not enough names at a meeting the success to fill all the places they give the places to their "next friends." J. E.

Tanch was one of those who started knowing whether he will run for treasurer or recorder, now.

The election will occur on April 6, three weeks from next Monday.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., March 14.—The tered by burglars last night and between $300 and $400 worth of silver-

The robbers entered through a kitchen contents of the family silver chest and escaped unnoticed, marking on the door as they left, "McCredie, you're out—"

As yet the police have secured no clue.

The robbery was committed some time between midnight and early morning, as members of the family retired at the former hour. Evidently the men
