COLE STANDS FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT IN RACE FOR MANNING'S PLACE

James Cole, Former Assistant United States District Attorney.

James Cole, former assistant United States attorney for Oregon, is in the race to secure the Republican nomination for and consequent election to the office of prosecuting attorney for the Fourth judicial district to succeed John Manning, the present incumbent. Mr. Cole made the anonuncement of his candidacy yesterday afternoon, after having considered for some time the ining considered for some time the insistent persuasion of personal friends, business and professional men and prominent politicians of the district. In making his announcement, Mr. Cole tattorney for the Fourth judicial district, it is my desire to express confidence in and the purpose to apply the spirit of American fair play as a confidence in and the purpose to apply the spirit of American fair play as a confidence in and the purpose to apply the spirit of American fair play as a confidence in the spirit of American fair play as a confidence in the politics and the purpose of apply the spirit of American fair play as a confidence in the politics and the purpose of allowing factor in the politics and the administration of public business of this community.

While serving as an assistant to William C. Bristol in the United States attorney's office, Mr. Cole achieved many victories in the federal courts that have won him a place among the leaders in righteous civic policy. His prosecution of the furniture associations; his manner in dealing with criminals, including some of the worst type of burgars, thugs and cutthroats, has established his reputation as a man of allaround capabilities in dealing with violators of the law that places him among the leadeng lawyers of the northwest.

Presiding Judge Cleland in the cir-cuit court yesterday overruled the motions to quash in the three cases against J. Thorburn Ross and other officers of the Title Guarantee & Trust company in which they are accused of company in which they are accused of finisusing the state funds intrusted to their care. Attorneys for the defendants announced that they intend to file demurrers next Monday, this being the time fixed for their clients to plead or demur. This will still further delay the setting of the cases for trial, as the demurrers will be argued at some later day. District Attorney Manning hotly represed against delay and said that the attorneys for the defense ought to be fined for putting in such ought to be fined for putting in such frivolous motions as they have presented. Wallace McCamant, attorney for Ross, denied that he has sought any unnecessary delay. He said that he is representing an innocent man and intends to take advantage of all the rights the law gives him in defending the case, including an application for change of venue on the ground that the defense cannot have a fair trial in Multnomah county.

Forced to Get Out

Graves & Co. Compelled to Vacate Present Quarters Owing to Exorbitant Demand in Rents,

Entire stock of Sheet Music, Talking Machines, Musical Instruments, etc., to be closed out at once. The most drastic price cutting ever known. Office Furniture, Typewriters, Desks, Rugs, Fixtfires, etc., go at what they'll bring.

Sale Commences Tomorrow Morning at 9 A. M.

It is doubtful whether a combination of unforeseen circumstances ever necessitated such drastic measures as confront Graves & Co. at the present moment. After occupying their present quarters at 328 Washington street for a number of years and building up the largest Sheet Music and Talking Machine and Musical Instrument business in the west, we are asked to pay an increase in rent that is an absolute impossibility. While we fully appreciate that realty values and rents have advanced in jumps and bounds, yet to pay the big rent now asked would mean to turn over practically our entire profits to the landlord.

A Thousand Dollars for a Location

We have scoured the city for a location, but without success, and we will willingly give a $1,000 bonus for suitable quarters. As matters now stand there is no alternative but to close out our present store. Much as we regret this step the entire stock of Graves & Co., unquestionably the largest and finest assortment of Sheet Music, Talking Machines, Violins, Banjos, Guitars, Mandolins, Music Cabinets, Music Bags, Band Instruments, Accordions, Drums, etc., etc., also a number of Pianos returned from renting, will be placed on sale, commencing tomorrow morning, at the
