

Exquisite Imported Laces

We call especial attention to our superb new importation of Laces from the leading markets of the world—the most exquisite laces ever shown in Portland. Our Mr. Schwager, formerly lace-buyer for B. Altman & Co., New York, has personally selected some exquisite, exclusive patterns.

 Good Merchandise Only—Quality Considered Our Prices Are Always the Lowest

Have You a Picture to Frame?

Artistic, suited-to-subject picture framing done here costs you considerably less than it does at an exclusive picture-framing store. Why? Because we do more of it and can buy production cheaper. Whichever you choose, leave it to us, and we'll guarantee satisfaction, or come and let us take counsel together. All the new mountings, moldings and mats.

To Inaugurate the Spring 1908 Season We Announce a Week of Unparalleled Value-Giving in Spring Merchandise

CHOICE NEW MERCHANDISE will be offered during this week at prices so low that thousands will flock to this store eager to share in the wonderful economies which will abound on every side. It is a sale planned and prepared for on a most extensive scale and demonstrates anew, in a most practical and convincing way, the wonderful price-making power of Portland's high grade dry goods store—AND THE BUYING ADVANTAGES WHICH SHOPPERS FIND HERE. EACH OF THESE SMALL ITEMS REPRESENTS AN UNUSUAL BARGAIN. READ EVERY ONE.

Over Thirty Departments Contribute to This Array of Matchless Values—Practically Every Class of Merchandise Is Represented We Are Determined to Do the Greatest Six Days' Business in Our History—Such Values as These Should Surely Accomplish It
