W. C. Gibson will be placed on trial in the circuit court tomorrow on the charge of assault on Rob G. H. Kessler on January 9. The case was set for today, but the prosecuting witness had not appeared and Deputy District Attorney Adams told the court he had been informed that there had been some effort by the defense to get Kessler to leave town.

Dave Smith's trial on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of Jennie Sighera, a 17-year-old girl, was begun before a jury in Judge Gantenben's department of the circuit court this morning. Dr. William Eisen, who was jointly charged with Smith and with Ernest Heymans, of the X-ray institute, was recently convicted, and the case is now on appeal.

The state railroad commission will meet this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce to hear the testimony in the case of South Portland manufacturers against the Southern Pacific Railroad company. The point at issue is an effort on the part of the factory owners to secure connections between the Southern Pacific tracks and the United Railways lines at Columbia and Water streets.

William H. Garland will deliver an address on "Advertising Banks" at the regular meeting of the Ad club tomorrow evening. The address will be held in the board of trade rooms at 8 o'clock. The semi-annual election of officers will take place. The following nominations were made at the last meeting: President, Charles N. Black; first vice-president, E. J. Jagger; second vice-president, Scott W. Tucker.

The Portland Railway Light & Power company is to spend all of the surplus earnings above the actual operating expenses during 1935 for the various improvements which have been contemplated for months. In addition between $500,000 and $1,000,000 is to be expended by the company along the same lines.

The insurance and investment business has proved to be sufficiently attractive to win Joseph A. Boyce from his allegiance to the railroad business, and he has resigned from the position of contracting freight agent for the Great Northern to enter the offices of W. L. Morgan. He will be succeeded in General Agent William Harder's office by John I. Springer, at present traveling freight and passenger agent for the Great Northern.

A masquerade ball will be held at Kern Park on the Mount Scott carline tonight for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a chemical engine for the fire protection of the Mount Scott district. Arrangements were completed at the meeting of the Mount Scott improvement association last night.

The Montavilla board of trade, recently revived and rejuvenated, will meet this evening in the broom factory on Villa avenue. At the last meeting officers were elected and committees appointed to secure some needed improvements. The quarterly report and other new and important business will be taken up.

The Curtis Lumber company of Mill City and F. W. Spencer and E. Keene of Salem filed a petition in the United States court yesterday requesting that the Salem Box & Lumber company be declared an involuntary bankrupt. The liabilities of the firm are said to be $47,700 and the assets $4,000 according to the petitioners.

The New York state society will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening at the home of the president, Miss L. M. O'Brien, 147 North Twenty-first street. Business of importance will come before the meeting. All New Yorkers are cordially invited.

Last night Dr. Coburn preached at Taylor street Methodist church on "The Four Calls of God." There was a large attendance and much interest, with definite results. The 3 o'clock Bible reading by Dr. Coburn was especially good.

Articles lost and found on the streets: March 16: Fifteen umbrellas, 1 pin, 2 purses, 1 specification of a house, 1 jug, 1 can, 3 packages, 1 basket, 1 suitcase, 1 key. Call at the lost article room of the O. W. P. Railway station, corner First and Alder.

Tomorrow will be Neal Dow memorial day at Central W. C. T. U., in charge of Mrs. H. H. Hoyer. The quarterly reports of the officers and superintendents will also be read.

Mrs. Minnie Watson has begun suit for divorce from T. M. Watson in the circuit court. She alleges nonsupport and over fondness for bottled beer. They were married in 1887.

Judge Gantenben has denied a new trial in the case of J. J. Crawford, who was recently convicted on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Ivory Soap—it keeps the country clean.

There is no exaggeration about this statement. It is a fact.

Nearly every grocer sells Ivory Soap. Nearly every well-to-do American family uses it; for the bath, for the toilet or in the laundry—for the finer things.

Ivory Soap 99 1/2% Per Cent. Pure.

charge of assault upon B. Mickel with intent to rob. He will be sentenced in a few days. George Mauls was arraigned on the charge of passing a worthless check on D. L. Houston. He was allowed until Thursday afternoon to enter his plea.

D. F. Hardman, Dave B. Mackle and Charles Cleveland have announced themselves as candidates for the legislature on the "Republican voters' choice" platform. John Miller of precinct 40 and J. J. Brown of 5 want to represent the Republicans of their precincts on the county committee, while J. H. Velle of 8, W. A. Conover of 22, W. Beckner of 60 and George B. Hardner of 67 have a similar ambition on the Democratic side, as shown by declarations filed with the county clerk today.

John Wynne, convicted of manslaughter for killing W. H. Du Puis, will be sentenced in a day or two by Judge O'Day. At the close of the trial last week his attorneys secured until Saturday to take further action, and Attorney L. B. Reeder, his chief counsel, now says that he does not expect to appear but will allow his client to be sentenced at once.

Leaving time from Grand avenue will be eight minutes later than the time given in time card from First and Alder streets.

AT THE THEATRES

"The ToyMaker" Thursday Night. The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for three nights, beginning next Thursday, March 19, with a popular price matinee Saturday afternoon, will be the famous San Francisco opera company, their ever-welcome company, with jolly Teddy Webb and charming Daphne Pollard, will present the dainty, delightful comic opera, "The ToyMaker." The advance seat sale opened this morning.

Musical Play Next Sunday. "Coming Thru the Rye," with a company of 50 people, will be the attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets for four nights, beginning next Sunday night, March 22, with a special price matinee Wednesday afternoon. This will be one of the biggest and best musical shows of the season. The advance seat sale will open next Friday morning at box office at the theatre.

"Dream City" Success. "Dream City" has captivated the town. It is at the Marquand and has been praised by all who have attended the Marquand this week. The show is a big musical affair which comes direct from Joe Weber's theatre, New York city, where it ran all last season. Little Chip and Mary Marble, two of the best known entertainers in the country, head the organization of singers and comedians and there is a singing chorus arrayed in beautiful costumes. Matinee Saturday.

"Zira" a Great Play. Miss Blanche Stoddard, the Baker stock company's leading woman, is making a splendid record this week in the star role of Zira, which Portland theatre-goers saw Florence Roberts in a short time ago. The play is a strong and intensely interesting one, being an adaptation of William Collins' "The New Magdalen." Saturday matinee.

Superior Vaudeville. The head of the Grand bill is held by Gilday and Fox, a couple of Hebrew impersonators who are repeating the hit they made in England. To those who want comedy a generous supply is provided. There are comedians, a monologist, a clever trick bicycle act, a "girl act," a funny specialty in which a comical automobile is introduced, and aside from these there are a number of other specialties.

"On Thanksgiving Day." A pastoral play which is the equal of "Way Down East," is the attraction at the Star theatre this week. The name of the new rural comedy is "On Thanksgiving Day" by Owen Davis. The French stock company is giving a splendid performance of "On Thanksgiving Day" and the bill is one which will find favor in the eyes of discriminating theatre-goers. Matinee Thursday and Saturday.

Matinee Tomorrow at Empire. For a big, hearty laugh, one should go to the Empire this week and see "Sis in New York." This is the title of a series of judicious adventures that befall Sis, the funny Indian girl, and her quaint friends on the occasion of their first trip to the big metropolis. Matinee tomorrow and Saturday.

Six-Day Races. The big six-day race opened last night at the Expo rink, with a large attendance, and the race was full of ginger from start to finish. A Waldstein, the Frisco boy, who won the big race in Chicago, was delayed by a washout and did not get in the race last night, but will be on hand tonight.

GETTING OFF WRONG

Our governor is lookin' o'er the mountain to that city where there's nothin' but one long, continuous feast—'An' th' poor man gets a sittin' an' th' dollars to him roll. 'Cause most everything that happens 'Goesn't happen 'thout toll. A man'll go to Washington who couldn't buy a beer. An' his job begins to "gross" him seven dollars to him roll. An' his' thing people knows about he's sailin' in the air, 'An' th' paper's "Willie" fell as a "prince" an' "millionaire." Oh, George, remain at home with us, 'An' be as ever you have been our heart's delight and joy; 'An' let the Union Laundry still your linen polish bright; Oh, governor, don't walk off into that "Eternal Night!" UNION LAUNDRY, 125 1/2 Morrison St., Second and Columbia.
