past 25 years with kidney troucle, and spending more than $1,000 on doctors and medicine, I got no better. These different doctors that have been treating me have called my disease Rheumatism, Chronic Appendicitis, Fibrous Tumors and Heart Troubis, I called on Van Damme and obtained from him a bottle of his "Aidney Cure Tea." tained from him a bottle of his "kidney Cure Tea," about six weeks ago, and have since used four other bottles, making five in all, and today I consider myself a new person. For any further testimonials call at my home and I will gladly furnish them.

EASTER JEWELRY. Amethysts and Pearls Conspicuous in the Designs of the Season, Easter jewelry includes such things as brooches, consisting of a plain gold bar, in the center of which is a dove or a bell studded with pearls. A lover's knot, also set with pearls, or a wishknot, also set with pearls, or a wishbone, are other designs used to embellish this plain gold bar.

For those whose taste runs to flowers the enameler has wrought trinkets expressive of Easter greetings. One design in this class is a violet enameled in the natural color. Nestling in the center is a round pearl, while a barrous pearl is set on the bar close to the violet. The curved stem of the violet forms part of the bar of the pin.

LA Valliere chains are made with heart-shaped amethysts as the pendant. The amethyst may be plain or a conventionalized or art nouveau design of curves, most of which are set with pearls. Instead of amethysts many women wear as a pendant their birth stone—for January a garnet; February, an amethyst; March, a bloodstone, etc.

The favorite symbol of Easter jew-elry is of course the cross. Those set The favorite symbol of Easter jewelry is of course the cross. Those set with pearls seem to be most in demand.
A pretty combination is a cross set alternately with amethysts and pearls.
Eastern lily hatpins are both timely and smart. They are made in silver and gold, with a baroque pearl in the center. Collar supporters come set in amethysts, turquoises and pearls.
There are many spoons symbolic of the season. The handle of one spoon shows an Easter lily, another a cross with rays radiating from it. Still another spoon design consists of a little chicken depicted in the act of emerging from its egg. F. E. BEACH & CO., THE PIONEER

For the boy or girl there are napkin rings; also bearing a representation of the Easter chickens. For the baby there are sterling silver bib holders. The designs in scarfpins include the Easter lily, the fleur de lis, the crescent and the wishbone, all being set with pearls, amethysts or diamonds.

Foreign Students Have Hard Time

Mastering English Language,
From the News of the Young Men's Christian Association.
There is a group of very enthusiastic foreign young men studying English in the Toledo Y. M. C. A. Not long since each one in the class was asked to write a short essay on the "Benefits of English to Foreigners." Here are five uf their letters:

(1)—"Unce upon a time the nations were not mixt so much as they are now. In no other country are not gathered so much nations as in the United States of America. I want to learn the English language because it will be too useful to me. When I know this language I can find good work for myself, because here in America there are many laborers of my nation who do not know the English language, and I will help them when they need to find work or to send money at their country— The teache asked to stop and write any mor on this subject.

(2)—"I fam hir lorn English. I fid from Ameryka on ship. I liek hi pensel. Ort you rych. No oy am poor."

(3)—"When I will talk goog English. I will go in the nicest mean markets and vill get good vages, and II dont vast to be in business I vill get some norm position from the citi.

(4)—"I am very giat that I dont and to be young men's christian association and I hope all sochet one in the months and well be thingful fine work but we'll feath market and works but we'll feath market in months I hope that I will subject to the young men's christian association and I hope all sochet one in the months I hope that I will subject to the young men's christian association and I hope all sochet one in the months I hope that I will such and the position from the citi.
