

A MUSEMENTS

"The Toymaker" Tonight.
The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow night will be the San Francisco Opera company in the delightful comic opera success, "The Toymaker." The jolly comedian, Teddy Webb, and the charming petite comedienne, Daphne Pollard, are with this favorite company. Seats are now selling at the theatre box office for the entire engagement.

Daphne Pollard, Who Appears in the "Toymaker" Tonight at the Hellig.

Popular Price Matinee Tomorrow.
A popular price matinee will be given at the Hellig theatre tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, when the San Francisco Opera company will present "The Toymaker." Curtain at 2:15 o'clock.

Seats Selling for Musical Play.
Seats are now selling at the box office of the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, for the big musical comedy, "Coming Thru the Rye." This merry offering will be the bill at the above theatre for four nights, beginning next Sunday, March 22. A special price matinee will be given Wednesday afternoon. This is one of the largest and best musical plays that Portland has had this season.

Seats for "Dream City."
Seats for "Dream City" at the Marquam are at a premium. No other musical show this season has made such a hit. Everyone is talking about it and the Marquam is crowded to suffocation every night. It is a real New York musical show direct from Joe Weber's theatre and with Little Chip, Mary Harbis and Johnny Johnson. It is a scream of merriment. There will be a matinee Saturday and you'll have to hurry to get seats.

Creston Clarke.
Creston Clarke, the talented young star, comes to the Marquam next week in his latest success, "The Power That Governs." Mr. Clarke is one of the most popular young men on the stage today and has a large following in Portland. He has never disappointed a local audience and this season his vehicle is said to be better than ever. A large and competent company supports him. Seats are now on sale.

"Zira" Drawing to a Close.
The week of "Zira" at the Baker is fast drawing to a close. The play is an intense strain on any company, especially the leading people, but Miss Stoddard and Mr. Homans are winning new laurels at every performance, as well as every member of this popular organization. Matinee Saturday.

Allison to Open in Great Role.
The part of Richard Carewe in Henry V. Esmond's beautiful play, "When We Were Twenty-one," is a splendid one for the opening of Mr. Allison, who returns Sunday afternoon as leading man with the Baker stock company. Dick Carewe is one of the noblest men the human mind ever created.

"Hazel Kirke" Coming.
Commencing Monday night the Allen company will present at the Lyric for the ensuing week a splendid production of that famous comedy-drama, "Hazel Kirke." This is one of the most successful plays of modern times and never grows old. The Allen company will appear to great advantage in it. A new series of moving pictures between acts.

"Sis in New York."
"Sis in New York," which has been at the Empire all this week, has certainly made a lot of friends in Portland whom she has given lots of cause to enjoy some good hearty laughs. A play of this kind must be well played or it becomes silly, and "Sis in New York" we are glad to say, is presented by an unusually clever company of character actors and actresses. Matinee Saturday.

"What Women Will Do."
A novel and interesting play, founded upon the story of "David Copperfield," by Charles Dickens, will be next week's attraction at the Empire, starting Sunday matinee. This is "What Women Will Do," and it contains many striking scenes and characters.

"The Stowaway" Succeeds.
One of the most brilliant successes of the present season at the Lyric has been the present production of that fine comedy-drama, "The Stowaway," which the Allen company presented for the first time Monday night. The company is distinguishing itself in the various parts, especially Verna Felton as "Chucky," the newswy. Moving pictures between acts.

Grand's High-Grade Acts.
People who attend the vaudeville shows are of the opinion that the bill at the Grand this week is a first-class article without a weak number on the program. Gilday and Fox are Hebrew delineators, who have caused the town to laugh all week, and there is a barn-

"On Thanksgiving Day."
The engagement of "On Thanksgiving Day" is rapidly drawing to a close at the Star theatre. There will be but three more performances—tonight, tomorrow afternoon and evening. This is the biggest scenic production ever put on the stage of this theatre and one of the scenes is a snow slide, down which boys and girls coast.

"The Secret Dispatch."
Beginning Sunday afternoon, the attraction at the Star theatre for the coming week will be the sensational and patriotic war drama, "The Secret Dispatch." This play is by the author of "At Piney Ridge" and other successes.

Vaudeville Novelty.
"The Marshal," a western melodrama in condensed form, will be the feature at the Grand next week. It is something new and will be played by Anita Hendrie and David Miles. Other features will be offered as well.

NEW CORPORATIONS FILE THEIR ARTICLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Or., March 20.—Articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the secretary of state as follows:

WAR'S EXCITEMENT NOTHING LIKE BEING PRISONER IN ELEVATOR

After serving nine years in the United States army, four years of which was in the Philippines at intervals and having been awarded a medal for sharpshooting and participated in various skirmishes, the most exciting experience of Lieutenant John C. French, Twenty-fourth infantry, who arrived at the Hotel Portland this morning, was in an elevator in a tall building in San Francisco.

Lieutenant French returned from the islands last week on the transport Sherman. He is on his way to Fort Madison, New York, where two battalions of his regiment are to be stationed. He is accompanied by his wife and child.

Two years ago last January Lieutenant French was held a prisoner in an elevator in the Flood building late in the evening when all the employees were leaving the building. Seven stories up the elevator got out of order, stuck between floors, and for some time there was no response to the repeated calls of the engaged ones for help.

Lieutenant French was accompanied by his wife. For a time it was thought the party would have to spend the night in the elevator. The transport which was to take the army officer to the Philippines was to sail early in the morning. The suspense was terrible—seven stories up and his regiment about to leave the good old U. S. A.

POOLSELLER PLEADS CITY ORDINANCE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, Wash., March 20.—In a decision regarding the poolroom case, wherein Sol Simon of this city was charged with selling pools contrary to the gambling laws of this state, Judge Brents of the superior court yesterday afternoon handed down a decision which is a body blow to poolselling in this city. Simon, had been operating a pool-selling establishment in the rear of his cigar store under a license granted by the city council. Several well-known Walla Wallans lost heavily on the California races and complaints were made against the shop. Simon claimed he had a right to operate the place, as he was licensed by the city. Judge Brents held that the city exceeded its authority in granting a license, and imposed a fine of $125 upon Simon. The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

Rhode Island for Bryan.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Providence, R. I., March 20.—All arrangements have been completed for the Democratic state convention which is to assemble in this city tomorrow afternoon to select the delegates-at-large to the Denver convention. The convention, which will meet in Music hall, promises to be a large and enthusiastic gathering. Bryan sentiment will predominate in the convention. The Ne-

The Easter Gown Need No Longer Be a Perplexing Problem to the Woman Who Reads The Sunday Journal for March Twenty-Second

The Woman's Section of the paper will on that date be printed in enlarged forms, so as to give to its readers the best selection of fashion material ever furnished by an American newspaper.

There is no lack of hints to the woman who makes her own garments. Articles, too, about the newest materials from the fabric factories, the colors and shades likely to have first call on popular favor, and even suggestions as to the style of trimmings and of fashions in shoes, stockings, parasols, and all the accessories that go to make a woman's wardrobe more attractive. The first view of the best productions of the best makers made this number possible. Fashion magazines, have had an opportunity to see it and follow its suggestions

A SPECIAL staff of artists and writers in Paris has found and presents what is best in the center of fashion creation. To illustrate what they write of the fashions there, JEANNETTE HOPE, the eminent fashion artist, has sent drawings for two newspaper pages. Henri MANUEL, first among photographers of fashions, has sent pictures that will decorate four other pages of the special number.
