Rev. Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the White Temple, was recently selected as one of six prominent preachers in the United States to prepare an article for an eastern religious magazine on the subject of "How to Reach the People." He has received a number of other communications from preachers asking him to give them the secret of building up an attractive church. Dr. Brougher's congregation is one of the three largest on the Pacific coast and yet he has ambitions for his church far beyond anything they have thus far done. Tomorrow morning he will speak on "How to Make an Attractive Church." He expects to present a plan that will surpass anything in the line of religious work undertaken by any single church on the Pacific coast. At night he will discuss "Bargain Counter Ethics."

A large number of Peninsula residents appeared before the street committee of the city council yesterday and took part in the debate on the proposed change of grade of Portsmouth avenue. The measure was finally referred to City Engineer Taylor and City Attorney Kavanaugh for a report to be handed to the committee at its next meeting. Some of those present yesterday favor the opening of Portsmouth avenue to the river at a grade that will make the street useful for commercial purposes. Others present objected to the change of grade which will require in some cases a cut 90 feet deep. Those opposing the proposition and who spoke before the committee yesterday are P. L. Wills, Francis I. McKenna and Father Gallagher of Columbia university.

The four-cornered contest for the supremacy in collections and attendance between the Bible schools of Central Christian church of Spokane, First church of Tacoma, Seattle and Portland is creating quite an exciting interest in the four cities among these religious bodies. The Portland school has suddenly awakened to its interests, and its members will be glad to learn that the members are ahead in offerings and are making rapid gains in attendance. It is to be hoped that all members of the First Christian church, corner Park and Columbia, will help with their presence during the next four Sundays. A special program will be rendered each Sunday.

T. J. Kreider has entered the field as a candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner against W. L. Lightner, who desires to succeed himself in that position. In his declaration filed with the county clerk he promises to "exercise the greatest economy consistent with the best improvements," to give the county the best roads possible to build, to favor oiling of roads where conditions warrant, to favor early construction of first-class new bridges over the river and to favor closing of all bridge draws during rush hours, morning and evening.

The North East Side Improvement association will be the first to enter the field for the prize of $50 offered by the East Side Business Men's club for the best arch to be erected by an east side push club over the route of the parade on the east side during the rose festival. A committee consisting of R. E. Menefee, L. E. Adams, R. J. Sinnott, H. A. Heppner and D. L. Povey was appointed to take up the matter both of erecting an arch and providing a float for the parade.

Because her husband earns not over $6 per week and will not earn more, being content to get along on the smallest possible amount of exertion, Mrs. Jennie Marriman yesterday afternoon obtained a divorce from Victor Marriman. The decree was granted by Judge Cleland. The wife stated that for two months they lived in a barn in southern Oregon, and she has been compelled to work and make her own way for more than a year. She was married in Belgium in 1902.

"Child Labor; Its Results and Evils," will be shown by stereopticon pictures at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Some of these pictures were taken in glass factories, coal mines, cotton mills, and all the other multitudinous places where children are employed. Immediately after the pictures are shown Dr. Fisher will speak on "The Laws of God Written in Tablets of Flesh." The Pictures and address are both free to men only.

It was announced at the meeting of the North East Side Improvement association last night that the school board was dissatisfied with the Patton tract as a location for a high school. Among other things the board thinks the tract is too small and that it is too close to the gas tank on the peninsula. The views of the board were indorsed and as a result a new location for a high school will be chosen.

There will be a meeting of the alumni and friends of the University of Oregon in the parlors of the Portland Commercial club Monday, March 23, at 8 o'clock in the evening. Arrangements will be made at that time to carry on an active campaign in Multnomah county for the appropriation bill. The campaign committee is composed of C. N. McArthur, H. I. Keeney and H. D. Angel.

There will be a mass meeting in Milwaukie tonight to arouse interest in the pending 5-cent fare case that has been brought against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company. The hearing will take place before the circuit court of Marion county at Salem Monday. It is believed in Milwaukie that the street railway company intends fighting the case through to the supreme court.

At the People's Forum tomorrow night in Selling-Hirsch hall, Tenth and Washington streets, a man from Mars will discuss the Oregon constitution and the issues to be settled by the people at the June election. A cordial invitation is extended to all citizens to attend.

A free illustrated lecture will be given by Mrs. Millie Trumbull at the Third Presbyterian church Monday night. Mrs. Trumbull who is the secretary of the child labor commission of Oregon, will present the subject of child labor. The pictures are taken from life —scenes of children at work in the cotton mills of the south, in the Pennsylvania coal mines and in factories. The lecture will be under the auspices of the study club of that church which is making a study of Josiah Strong's "Challenge of the City." The general public is invited to attend the lecture.

Father Peter C. Yorke will speak to the members of the Catholic Young Men's club in Albina this evening at 8 o'clock. His theme will be the value of athletic and social clubs among the young men. There will be music and the program will be very interesting throughout. P. E. Sullivan, president of the club, will preside. The auditorium of the Young Men's club is on Morris street near Williams avenue and the public is invited.

Articles lost and found on the streetcars on March 20: Two veils, 1 lunch pail, 5 pairs gloves, 1 pair mittens, 4 purses, 15 umbrellas, 1 suitcase, 2 keys, 1 paint bucket, 1 saw clasp, 1 fur collar, 1 package of books and papers, 4 packages, laundry, needles. Call at the lost article room of the O. W. P. railway station, First and Alder.

Last night was the last of the weeknight meetings of the series at Taylor Street church. Dr. Coburn took for his text "The Prodigal Son." The lecture room was well filled and the service was one of the best of the series. The work of Evangelist Coburn is greatly appreciated, especially the afternoon Bible reading and lecture.

New Republican candidates for precinct committeemen are Max G. Cohen in No. 8, F. E. Beach in 36, O. A. Peck in 47, E. C. Robbins in 79, T. J. McNamee in 62 and Jefferson Brooks in 109. On the Democratic side new names entered are those of Ray C. Wilkinson in 95, H. D. Wagnon in 34 and C. E. Carlson in 2.

D. C. Rogers has begun suit in the circuit court against the city of St. Johns to recover $250 damages, which he says his property has sustained by reason of a break in the sewer, which has backed the sewage into his yard. He lives at the corner of Ivanhoe and Baltimore streets.

As the time before the June election is passing the North East Side Improvement association decided last night to submit its petition for a high bridge across the river at Albina to the City auditor and the council at once. The petitions will be checked over and delivered next week.

Stanford Abolishes Whiskey

The student stood on the campus
The picture of utter despair,
His whiskey bottle broken,
And kinks at the roots of his hair.

"Oh, why should I longer tarry
In this bitterly cruel land?
I think I'll swallow an earthquake,
Or end it all with my hand."

But he changed his mind in a second,
Changed it in a wink—
For a fellow student passing
Said, "Pardner, have a drink!"

And a vessel came out of his pocket
Exactly the shape of a book,
And for a minute or two it gurgled
Like an Oregon mountain brook.

SKETCHES OF PORTLAND PASTORS

Rev. E. S. Muckley, pastor of the First Christian church, was born and raised in Ohio on a farm a few miles south of the city of Canton. His early education was received, therefore, in a country school. At the age of 16 he began teaching in the country schools, following this vocation for several years before entering college.

Mr. Muckley's alma mater is Bethany college, the institution founded by Alexander Campbell at Bethany in the panhandle of West Virginia. From this institution he graduated in 1891. It was his first intention, in contemplating a life-work, to enter the profession of the law, but he was diverted from this to the ministry. His first work in the ministry was a year's pastorate in Madisonville, Ohio, between his sophomore and junior years in college. After graduating he was called to the work in Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, where he held a short pastorate, from which he was called to the West Side Christian church, Kansas City, Missouri. This had been a difficult and backward field. It was the first mission of the First Christian church of that city and had remained a mission for seven years while several other children of the First church came into being and grew into self-support. But by hard work the church became self-supporting in a little over two years after he took the work. Nearly 350 were added during his pastorate of four and a half years with the West Side church, and the Christian Endeavor and Sunday school were quadrupled.

Rev. E. S. Muckley.

The first six months of 1896 Rev. Muckley evangelized in New York state. In June of that year he was called to the pastorate of the Church of Christ at Watertown, New York, where he remained four years, when he left to take the work in Bellefontaine, Ohio, in 1900. Here he spent only a year and three months, when he received a call to the First Christian church of Honolulu, Hawaii, from which field he was called to take the pastorate of the First Christian church of Portland.

Mr. Muckley began his work in this city on New Year's day, 1904. During the four years and three months he has worked in the city the First Christian church has had a steady and substantial growth in all departments of the work. It gives five times as much for missions through all of its departments as formerly. Over $5,000 has been applied on the church debt. The pastor's salary has been increased 33 1-3 per cent by the generosity of the First Christian church, without any request from him. A pipe organ was installed last May and the money pledged to pay for it. In the little over four years there have been 570 accessions to the church, and the Bible school has more than doubled. March 15 the school had three times as many in attendance as it had the first Sunday of 1904. The outlook for the church is bright and people are remarking that a new church will be needed before long if the work continues to prosper. This work has been made possible by the loyal support and hearty cooperation of the church. Mr. Muckley insists that no church in all his ministry has responded more heartily than the First Christian church of Portland.
