

SOCIETY

day after Easter to Horace Chapman. Miss Judith Spott will be the maid of honor and there will be four attendant matrons. Mrs. Walter Gadsby, Mrs. Amrose Scott, Mrs. Ben Gadsby and Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet. Mr. Sweet will be the best man and the usher will be Arnold Rothwell, Ben Gadsby, Walter Gadsby and Ambrose Scott.

A pretty wedding of a southern girl was celebrated Tuesday evening at the First Christian church when Miss Frances Graham Meacham was married to W. Frank Whitely recently of Seattle and formerly of Dallas, Texas. Dr. E. C. Muckley read the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and daffodils and yellow tulle. The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. M. B. Meacham. Four attendant maids were Mrs. D. M. C. Sylvia, Mrs. Nellie Thornhill, Miss Caroline Kamin and Miss Lucy Fields. The best man was W. G. Gullikson of Seattle and the four ushers were Edward Taylor, Robert Tipton, James McKinnon, and George Stovall.

The bride was handsomely dowered in white satin, ornamented with duchesse lace and long length veil with a wreath of lilies of the valley. Her shower bouquet was of lilies of the valley and fern. Mrs. Meacham wore white silk tulle over tulle with princess lace and carried white nardus. The bride's other attendants wore white point d'esprit with long length veil and carried yellow jonquils. Mrs. Kathyrne Linehan Johnson played the wedding march.

A reception followed at the M. B. Meacham home on the east side with about 60 guests in attendance. Mrs. James Martin Meacham is the bride's mother, received with the bridal party. Assisting the hostess were four young women, friends of the bride, Miss Leona Sanson, Miss Estelle Linehan, Miss Ethelwyn Bristow and Miss Bertha Krouse.

Mrs. and Mr. Whitely left immediately for Seattle, where they will visit till April 1 when they will sail to Alaska to make their home at Fairbanks.

Mrs. Whitely has lived in Portland for two years, and formerly came here from Tennessee. She has made many friends during her stay here. Mr. Whitely has made his home in the west for several years past.

The monthly tea at the Patton home, given on St. Patrick's day, was delightful in every respect. The concert hall was filled. Receipts were Mrs. A. H. Willett, Mrs. S. Patullo, Mrs. George Stapleton and Mrs. J. T. O'Donnell. In the dining-room Mrs. M. J. DeLahunt and Mrs. G. Tomasiol poured. Mrs. F. M. Branch had charge of the program, which was as follows:

Piano solo, "Sonata Pathétique"..... Miss E. Stark.....Beethoven
Chorus, "Forget Me Not".....Gelsa
Ladies' Club
Solo, "Irish Love Song".....Lang
Reading, "The Return".....
Mrs. G. W. Martin
Solo, "The Little Irish Boy".....Lohr
Mrs. E. Hampson
Chorus, "Drink to Me Only".....Old English
Ladies' Club
Solo.....Selected
Mme. D'Auria
Duet, "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms".....
Mrs. Riddell and Mrs. Hamilton
Solo, "Asthore".....Trotter
Mrs. F. Branch
Solo, "The Kerry Dance".....Molloy
Mrs. A. G. Riddell
Solo.....Selected
Chorus, "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton".....
Ladies' Club
Mrs. Percy Walton, accompanist.

Mrs. Philip Wasserman entertained Tuesday afternoon at the Norton in honor of Mrs. F. L. Ackerman of San Francisco. Bridge was played at several tables, arranged in the billiard room which was decorated with jonquils and wicker grape. The wedding was very simple and was celebrated at the home of the bride's friends at Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Ingram met her.

There was a large attendance at the Art Museum Thursday night for George F. Holman's lecture on "The Art of Illumination." Mr. Holman showed photographs of some excellent work that he has done in this branch of art in which he is an adept.

One of the parties at dinner at the Norton Tuesday evening was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantou. Their honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wheeler and they entertained Mr. and Mrs. John A. Keating, Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bealey.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Lewis returned recently from a six weeks' trip to New York.

Mrs. Philip Wasserman entertained Tuesday afternoon at the Norton in honor of Mrs. F. L. Ackerman of San Francisco. Bridge was played at several tables, arranged in the billiard room which was decorated with jonquils and wicker grape. The wedding was very simple and was celebrated at the home of the bride's friends at Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Ingram met her.

Mrs. George F. Russell and her little daughter, Nan, are preparing to go abroad in the summer. They will visit various points of interest throughout Europe and will probably remain abroad a year.

Mrs. Anne Beatrice Sheldon, after closing her engagement with "The Alaskan" has gone abroad again and is now in Paris. Mrs. Sheldon was formerly prominent here in musical and society circles.

The dancing club of the young married people had its fortnightly dance on Friday last week, postponed from Tuesday on account of the Bauer-Kreiser concert.

THE Bauer-Kreiser concert and the supper following at the Norton formed the principal social event of the week. There are a few out-of-town guests who are being entertained but all in a quiet fashion.

More card clubs are being formed and there is a new one called the Advanced Bridge club, which will devote its time to the study of the finer points of the game.

The Portland Symphony orchestra concert next Friday afternoon at the Marquam at 8:30 will be an event of some social prominence. The names of many of the most prominent society people of town head the subscription list and their presence at the concert is counted on to make the matinee important and fashionable functions as well as educational affairs. In Boston the symphony concerts are regular events in the fashion affairs of the season.

The opening of the New Norton dining-room and grill Tuesday evening occasioned a brilliant assemblage there before and after the Bauer-Kreiser concert. The grill was attractive with potted plants and flowers. About 200 guests visited the hotel throughout the evening. Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantou, Mrs. A. S. Norton, Mrs. Mrs. H. C. Bowers and W. D. Wheelwright had parties or friends at dinner. Mr. and Mrs.

W. Corbett, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. Henry Mason, Mrs. J. G. Gauld, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Puncley, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs. R. H. Wilson, Mrs. Rodney Gilman, Mrs. B. G. Whitcomb, Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver, Mrs. H. C. Bowers, Mrs. T. L. Elliot, Mrs. C. H. Prescott, Madam Von Bolton, Mrs. Henry E. Jones, Mrs. H. C. Allen, Miss A. L. Atwood, Mrs. E. Houghton, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. J. E. Dickson, Miss Mary F. Felling, Mrs. Cookingham, Mrs. Theodora Wygant, Miss Wyatt, Mrs. Whidden, Mrs. M. L. Myrick, Mrs. S. Helshu, Mrs. J. H. Page, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. E. P. Deady, Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. E. B. Hamilton and Miss Failing.

Mrs. Fletcher Linn returned last week from a delightful visit in Seattle, where she was the guest of Mrs. Albert S. Kerry. The Kerrys are prominently identified with the progressive movements of the sound city and are important subscribers to and supporters of the new symphony orchestra which has started there so auspiciously. They own one of the handsomest homes in Seattle and are charming entertainers. Mrs. Linn enjoyed hearing the orchestra and sang at the morning service at the new Presbyterian church, which contains one of the largest organs in the United States.

Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyers will leave tomorrow for Seattle to appear as the soloist with the symphony orchestra. She, too, will be a guest at the Kerry home. The orchestra is being given the advantage of the best talent to be procured, and Michael Keegre was brought out from the east to conduct. The concertmaster and a few others of the leading instrumentalists, too, were imported. Miss Sawyers, whose musicianship is known and recognized in Portland as ranking her with the best pianists on the coast, is to play the difficult and brilliant Saint-Saens concerto in G minor. Besides an excellent musician, she is a charming woman with a delightful manner, and makes friends readily.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rheinstrom announce the engagement of their daughter Mildred to J. A. Greenwald of Salt Lake City. They will be at home to their friends this afternoon from 3 to 5.

Miss Rheinstrom announced the engagement informally Tuesday to a few of her girl friends at luncheon at the Portland hotel. She is a pretty brunette of chic appearance, in a plianse of some accomplishment and very popular with the younger set. Mr. Greenwald visited in Portland last summer at that time met his fiancee. He is a man of wealth, in the furniture business in Salt Lake City and is a member of the governor's staff. The wedding will probably be late in June.

The Snowshoe club gave a dinner last night at the Sargent in honor of J. Wesley Ladd, one of the active members, who is host each year on a trip up Mount Hood. The other members are Rodney Gilman, Harry Corbett, John Carson, Horace Meeklin, Jordan Zan, Brandt Wickersham, Walter Honeyman, Marion Dolph, John K. Kollock, Morton H. Insley, Dr. Herbert S. Nicholas, Patterson, Effinger, Bert Ball and Charles Warrens.

Mrs. W. S. Ladd was receiving congratulations Wednesday on her 81st birthday. The North Pacific Board of Missions, of which she has been president for about 50 years, sent her 81 roses in bouquet. Many other friends sent in flowers.

Mrs. Edmond B. Gaze entertained the Vona Bridge club Monday evening at her pretty home on Irving street. There were 14 tables, and the prizewinners were Mrs. John Manning and George Simpson.

Miss Agnes Hill entertained her bridal party Thursday evening at her home. Cards formed the entertainment and a chafing dish supper followed. Miss Hill is to be married the Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin Winchester entertained Friday in honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Theodore Wygant. A few friends spent the early part of the afternoon in bridge and later more friends called for tea. Mrs. Edward Cookingham and Mrs. William Wilder poured. The guests were Mrs. P. C. Schuyler, Mrs. E. Wisner, Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. H. D. Green, Mrs. H.

R. B. Lamson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook and Miss Dorothy Holbrook. Judge Harry Hogue entertained Mr. Ariele and Mr. Bauer after the concert. Among those present there were: Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seller, Miss Amy Seller, Miss Flora Stern, Miss Flora Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, William D. Wheelwright, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantou, Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bierke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bealey, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook, Miss Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hara, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Burffum, Mrs. Sarah Forbes, Judge Hogue, Mrs. Clara Lewis, Miss Martha Hoyt, Miss May Failing, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn May and Mrs. Charles Bierke, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gifford Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Rauech, Mrs. Walter Reed, Miss Kathleen Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier.

Miss Bessie Henry of San Jose, whose engagement to Charles Edward Grellle was announced last week, has been the honor guest at a number of small affairs the past week. Mrs. William Warrens gave a small tea for her Wednesday, inviting in several of the young people. Mrs. Otis B. Wright entertained a few of her most intimate friends at cards for Miss Henry Friday evening. Mrs. Francis B. Rice gave another week as Mrs. Grellle's guest at the Percy Blyth home on King's Heights before returning to California to make her preparations for the wedding.

A party of prominent Portlanders was entertained with some eastern friends by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Page in Salem at the time of the formal opening of the Salem-Portland electric line. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Josey, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Miss Louise Morris, George Good and E. P. Clark of Los Angeles.

W. Corbett, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. Henry Mason, Mrs. J. G. Gauld, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Puncley, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs. R. H. Wilson, Mrs. Rodney Gilman, Mrs. B. G. Whitcomb, Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver, Mrs. H. C. Bowers, Mrs. T. L. Elliot, Mrs. C. H. Prescott, Madam Von Bolton, Mrs. Henry E. Jones, Mrs. H. C. Allen, Miss A. L. Atwood, Mrs. E. Houghton, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. J. E. Dickson, Miss Mary F. Felling, Mrs. Cookingham, Mrs. Theodora Wygant, Miss Wyatt, Mrs. Whidden, Mrs. M. L. Myrick, Mrs. S. Helshu, Mrs. J. H. Page, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. E. P. Deady, Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. E. B. Hamilton and Miss Failing.

Mrs. Fletcher Linn returned last week from a delightful visit in Seattle, where she was the guest of Mrs. Albert S. Kerry. The Kerrys are prominently identified with the progressive movements of the sound city and are important subscribers to and supporters of the new symphony orchestra which has started there so auspiciously. They own one of the handsomest homes in Seattle and are charming entertainers. Mrs. Linn enjoyed hearing the orchestra and sang at the morning service at the new Presbyterian church, which contains one of the largest organs in the United States.

Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyers will leave tomorrow for Seattle to appear as the soloist with the symphony orchestra. She, too, will be a guest at the Kerry home. The orchestra is being given the advantage of the best talent to be procured, and Michael Keegre was brought out from the east to conduct. The concertmaster and a few others of the leading instrumentalists, too, were imported. Miss Sawyers, whose musicianship is known and recognized in Portland as ranking her with the best pianists on the coast, is to play the difficult and brilliant Saint-Saens concerto in G minor. Besides an excellent musician, she is a charming woman with a delightful manner, and makes friends readily.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rheinstrom announce the engagement of their daughter Mildred to J. A. Greenwald of Salt Lake City. They will be at home to their friends this afternoon from 3 to 5.

Miss Rheinstrom announced the engagement informally Tuesday to a few of her girl friends at luncheon at the Portland hotel. She is a pretty brunette of chic appearance, in a plianse of some accomplishment and very popular with the younger set. Mr. Greenwald visited in Portland last summer at that time met his fiancee. He is a man of wealth, in the furniture business in Salt Lake City and is a member of the governor's staff. The wedding will probably be late in June.

The Snowshoe club gave a dinner last night at the Sargent in honor of J. Wesley Ladd, one of the active members, who is host each year on a trip up Mount Hood. The other members are Rodney Gilman, Harry Corbett, John Carson, Horace Meeklin, Jordan Zan, Brandt Wickersham, Walter Honeyman, Marion Dolph, John K. Kollock, Morton H. Insley, Dr. Herbert S. Nicholas, Patterson, Effinger, Bert Ball and Charles Warrens.

Mrs. W. S. Ladd was receiving congratulations Wednesday on her 81st birthday. The North Pacific Board of Missions, of which she has been president for about 50 years, sent her 81 roses in bouquet. Many other friends sent in flowers.

Mrs. Edmond B. Gaze entertained the Vona Bridge club Monday evening at her pretty home on Irving street. There were 14 tables, and the prizewinners were Mrs. John Manning and George Simpson.

Miss Agnes Hill entertained her bridal party Thursday evening at her home. Cards formed the entertainment and a chafing dish supper followed. Miss Hill is to be married the Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin Winchester entertained Friday in honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Theodore Wygant. A few friends spent the early part of the afternoon in bridge and later more friends called for tea. Mrs. Edward Cookingham and Mrs. William Wilder poured. The guests were Mrs. P. C. Schuyler, Mrs. E. Wisner, Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. H. D. Green, Mrs. H.

R. B. Lamson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook and Miss Dorothy Holbrook. Judge Harry Hogue entertained Mr. Ariele and Mr. Bauer after the concert. Among those present there were: Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seller, Miss Amy Seller, Miss Flora Stern, Miss Flora Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, William D. Wheelwright, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantou, Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bierke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bealey, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook, Miss Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hara, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Burffum, Mrs. Sarah Forbes, Judge Hogue, Mrs. Clara Lewis, Miss Martha Hoyt, Miss May Failing, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn May and Mrs. Charles Bierke, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gifford Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Rauech, Mrs. Walter Reed, Miss Kathleen Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier.

Miss Bessie Henry of San Jose, whose engagement to Charles Edward Grellle was announced last week, has been the honor guest at a number of small affairs the past week. Mrs. William Warrens gave a small tea for her Wednesday, inviting in several of the young people. Mrs. Otis B. Wright entertained a few of her most intimate friends at cards for Miss Henry Friday evening. Mrs. Francis B. Rice gave another week as Mrs. Grellle's guest at the Percy Blyth home on King's Heights before returning to California to make her preparations for the wedding.

A party of prominent Portlanders was entertained with some eastern friends by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Page in Salem at the time of the formal opening of the Salem-Portland electric line. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Josey, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Miss Louise Morris, George Good and E. P. Clark of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Martin Winchester entertained Friday in honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Theodore Wygant. A few friends spent the early part of the afternoon in bridge and later more friends called for tea. Mrs. Edward Cookingham and Mrs. William Wilder poured. The guests were Mrs. P. C. Schuyler, Mrs. E. Wisner, Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. H. D. Green, Mrs. H.

R. B. Lamson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook and Miss Dorothy Holbrook. Judge Harry Hogue entertained Mr. Ariele and Mr. Bauer after the concert. Among those present there were: Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seller, Miss Amy Seller, Miss Flora Stern, Miss Flora Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, William D. Wheelwright, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantou, Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bierke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bealey, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook, Miss Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hara, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Burffum, Mrs. Sarah Forbes, Judge Hogue, Mrs. Clara Lewis, Miss Martha Hoyt, Miss May Failing, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn May and Mrs. Charles Bierke, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gifford Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Rauech, Mrs. Walter Reed, Miss Kathleen Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier.

Miss Bessie Henry of San Jose, whose engagement to Charles Edward Grellle was announced last week, has been the honor guest at a number of small affairs the past week. Mrs. William Warrens gave a small tea for her Wednesday, inviting in several of the young people. Mrs. Otis B. Wright entertained a few of her most intimate friends at cards for Miss Henry Friday evening. Mrs. Francis B. Rice gave another week as Mrs. Grellle's guest at the Percy Blyth home on King's Heights before returning to California to make her preparations for the wedding.

A party of prominent Portlanders was entertained with some eastern friends by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Page in Salem at the time of the formal opening of the Salem-Portland electric line. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Josey, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Miss Louise Morris, George Good and E. P. Clark of Los Angeles.

75 New Sample Suits

Just received—no two alike—all colors—extra grade spring materials—beautifully tailored—each model representing the season's demands in cut, shade, trimming, and all the small fancies of finish that mark a suit the product of the best eastern or European style makers. Through a combination of circumstances we were enabled to make this purchase at 60 cents on the dollar, and are thus prepared to on your spring suit. See these at once; they will go quickly. Attention is also called to our special prices on the highest grade dress goods and superior makes of corsets. In comparison with every offering this season, these are beyond doubt the greatest values of all.

Save You From $5 to $15

Spring Dress Goods Specials

Any desired or imagined fabric suitable for spring and summer wear. The value and beauty is in the weave; we buy only the best guaranteed materials.

- 44-inch new woven and shadow striped Suits, all the spring colors, dainty and becoming. Special sale price..... $1.00
- 44-inch new Herringbone Suits in all the popular colors—Copenhagen, champagne, etc.—to be so much worn this season. Special, per yard..... $1.00
- 42-inch Prunella, soft, beautiful finish, in all the spring shades, summery and attractive. Sale price, per yard..... $1.00

Black Goods Specials

The stamp of highest approval is on every piece of these magnificent spring and summer goods—the approval of the great manufacturers who put their guarantee on nothing inferior and the approval of women who have tried them.

- 45-inch Black Ramphis or Herringbone, a beautiful new novelty, in wide and narrow diagonal-lined stripes, light weight, unusually good for spring and summer suiting. Special sale price..... 98c
- 44-inch Black Tamise, light weight wool, beautiful for dress or spring suits, extra good value. Special sale price, per yard..... 93c
- 45-inch Black Poplin, a lustrous silk and worsted material, durable for hard wear, shakes the dust, easily cleaned, a very popular suiting. Sale price, per yard..... 93c
- 46-inch Black Crepe Cloth, extra pretty weave, very dressy. Special sale price, per yard..... 77c
- 44-inch Black All Wool Taffeta, a new popular suiting for summer wear. Special sale price, per yard..... $1.15
- 44-inch Black Prunella, lovely all wool material, notably attractive to women who appreciate good wearing qualities. Special sale price..... $1.15
- 44-inch Black Melrose, all wool, fine for spring or summer wear, an elegant piece of cloth, and a bargain at..... $1.27
- 48-inch Raye Depoudre Suits, something wholly new and rarely beautiful, has the Raye stripes, light weight, exceptional value. Special sale price, per yard..... $1.35

Corset Specials

A Good Corset is the foundation of up-to-date dressing. Never has this been truer than at present. The long graceful lines required in the modern costumes can only be shown to advantage with the aid of a new modeled corset. These corsets are especially designed to suit the prevailing fashions.

- No. 166—Thompson, for a tall slender figure, high bust, short over hips, made of white coutil; regular $1.75 values, $1.50 for.....
- No. 260—Thompson, especially made for well developed rather stout figures, high bust, long back, suspender web supporters; regular $3 values, $2.50 for.....

Model 28—Redfern, the leader in correct corset styles. This particular number is in the long back and hip length, for stout figures, bust medium height, rubber button hose supporters; regular $5.00 values $4.00 for.....

McAllen & McDonnell
Corner Third and Morrison Streets

- 44-inch Panama in light weight chiffon and heavy weaves, very fine quality; will make a beautiful Easter costume. Ask to see them. Sale price, per yard..... $1.00
- 44-inch all-wool Panama, light and serviceable; most desirable for a spring suit; all the new shades. Extra special, per yard..... 85c
- 42-inch imported all-wool Voiles in shades of champagne and gray; will make a beautiful dress, light and cool, pleasant for early summer. Sale price, per yard..... $1.00

35-inch black, guaranteed Taffeta Silk, our best $1.35 grade; a comfort for steady summer wear; shakes the dust and always looks fresh. Special price, per yard..... $1.10

(Continued on Page Three.)

tonia. The guests were Miss Roslyn Kingsley, Miss Marguerite Bosche, Miss Ethel Morris, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Gretchen Klosterman, Miss Greta Butterfield, Miss Genevieve Butterfield, Miss Margaret Bates and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas.

Miss Bessie Ghormley, the daughter of Rev. J. P. Ghormley, was married last Monday to Rev. D. E. Ingram, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Waco, Texas. The wedding was very simple and was celebrated at the home of the bride's friends at Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Ingram met her.

There was a large attendance at the Art Museum Thursday night for George F. Holman's lecture on "The Art of Illumination." Mr. Holman showed photographs of some excellent work that he has done in this branch of art in which he is an adept.

One of the parties at dinner at the Norton Tuesday evening was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantou. Their honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wheeler and they entertained Mr. and Mrs. John A. Keating, Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bealey.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Lewis returned recently from a six weeks' trip to New York.

Mrs. Philip Wasserman entertained Tuesday afternoon at the Norton in honor of Mrs. F. L. Ackerman of San Francisco. Bridge was played at several tables, arranged in the billiard room which was decorated with jonquils and wicker grape. The wedding was very simple and was celebrated at the home of the bride's friends at Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Ingram met her.

Mrs. George F. Russell and her little daughter, Nan, are preparing to go abroad in the summer. They will visit various points of interest throughout Europe and will probably remain abroad a year.

Mrs. Anne Beatrice Sheldon, after closing her engagement with "The Alaskan" has gone abroad again and is now in Paris. Mrs. Sheldon was formerly prominent here in musical and society circles.

The dancing club of the young married people had its fortnightly dance on Friday last week, postponed from Tuesday on account of the Bauer-Kreiser concert.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols are preparing to build a new home on Portland Heights on Twelfth street, between Carter and Jackson.

Out of the High Rent District

Cale Bros
HOME FURNISHERS
360 370 EAST MORRISON ST.
PORTLAND ORE

Confidential Credit

Dresser and Bed Specials

We have several carloads of Dressers and other goods on the road which are due to arrive April 1st or sooner. We must have room to place these goods and we must have money to discount the bills. It has always been to your advantage to trade with us—now, it is more to your advantage than ever.

Dresser and Bed Special No. 1

$20.00

Full sized Iron Bed, 11-16 inch posts, 6-16-inch fillings, brass trimmed, assorted colors.

Only $3.35

Dresser and Bed Special No. 2

$25.00

A bed which is the equal of any $12 bed in Portland. It has 11-16 inch continuous posts and fine husked brass spindle in head and foot boards. Regular $12 value.

Only $6.50

Free Scholarships of $350 Each

Including tuition in all branches, board, lodging and all necessary expenses.

Public contest for scholarships in piano, pipe organ, voice and violin takes place in Walla Walla.

APRIL 23 AND 24

Open to all students of music. Contestants entertained free.

Write for further information, but make application immediately.

ENTRIES CLOSE APRIL 2.

Apply to director of Whitman Conservatory of Music, Walla Walla, Wash.

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS

W. G. SMITH & CO.
WASHINGTON BUILDING

Special $16.65

A beautiful Dresser with full serpentine front, genuine quartered oak, 22 x28, French beveled plate, oval or pattern mirror. Exceptional value at $25.

Special $18.50

Handsome Dresser, full serpentine front in genuine quartered oak with 24x30 French beveled plate, pattern or oval mirror. Regular $27.50 value.