"The Power That Governs." Good plays well acted are rare, and when a combination of attractive play and intelligent company are found the combination is noteworthy. Such is the case at the Marquam this week, where Creston Clarke is appearing in "The Power That Governs." Mr. Clarke has been seen here in many attractions, and this is one of his best. It is a modern drama and is constructed on lines which appeal to the intellect. Matinee Saturday.

"When We Were Twenty-One." One's ideal of a play is entirely realized in Henry V. Esmond's "When We Were Twenty-One."

The antiseptic qualities of Mexican Mustang Liniment

It expels all dangerous and foreign matter before beginning to heal the wound. Inflammation is kept down and the injured parts rendered painless. It soothes and relieves promptly and positively. Insist on getting what you ask for—substitutes disappoint. Burns, Scalds, Cuts and all Open Sores.

Miss Sallie Stembler, the Clever Comedienne With "Comin' Thro the Rye" at the Hellig Theatre.

Were Twenty-one, which is playing to splendid houses at the Baker this week. "Hazel Kirke" Tonight. One of the most interesting attractions of the week is offered at the Lyric where the Allen company is presenting that famous American classic, "Hazel Kirke." It is one of the finest offerings ever seen at popular prices. Great production and most interesting moving pictures between acts.

Empire Matinee Tomorrow. No play that has been here for a long time has attracted as much attention as the great Edwards Bros. and Holden production of "What Women Will Do," which is being seen at the Empire. It is a new and sensational melodrama founded on some of the incidents in Charles Dickens' famous novel "David Copperfield." Matinee tomorrow and Saturday.

"The Secret Dispatch." At the Star the French stock company is presenting a civil war drama new to Portland. KING WILL DINE WITH AMERICAN

Mrs. Potter-Palmer Sees Social Crown of Europe Within Reach.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Biarritz, Switzerland, March 24.—Mrs. Potter Palmer, society queen, is about to see the dream of her long and successful social career realized. After overcoming many obstacles, principally the opposition of Mrs. George Keppel, she will soon have the honor of acting as hostess to King Edward of England in her great villa, Etcheperrin. Having accomplished this, her future as the queen of European society will be assured. Mrs. Palmer has often expressed a wish to entertain King Edward under the roof of her own dwelling, but Mrs. Keppel, who is an influential member of the king's retinue, has always upset her plans. Now that Mrs. Keppel will not be at Biarritz this season, the Chicago woman is certain of gaining her fondest wish.

PAY FORTY THOUSAND FOR EIGHT CONCERTS

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 24.—Forty thousand dollars to sing eight nights. This is the remarkable offer that has been made to Enrico Caruso, the tenor, by a London manager. It is said to be the largest ever made a singer. The offer provides for $5,000 each for eight concerts. Caruso, however, will receive only $2,000 for each appearance, as his contract with the Conred Metropolitan opera house allows him only that amount. Caruso has just rejected an offer to sing at the Grand opera house in Paris for $2,500 per night on the ground that the engagement would break him down.
