

HYPNOTIZES VICTIMS TO GET MONEY

Claude Nasburg of Coos Bay Charges That Mrs. F. M. Austin of San Francisco Has His Mother and Brother in Her Power.

Attorney Rueben Lloyd's Name Alleged to Have Been Forged to Letter by Woman—Grand Jury to Hear Strange Story.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, March 28.—Love, hate, frenzied finance, alleged hypnotism and family differences are strangely interwoven in a story that will be unfolded to the grand jury by Mrs. F. M. Austin, a dashing widow living in magnificent apartments in this city, is called upon to explain how the name of Reuben H. Lloyd, a prominent San Francisco attorney, came to be on certain letters to Mrs. Austin. Lloyd says he did not write them.

The accusations against the woman come from Claude Nasburg, a real estate man of Coos bay, Oregon, who declares that his brother and mother are under the hypnotic power of Mrs. Austin, and that she has obtained sums of money from them. Nasburg says his brother Harry first met the woman five years ago in Coos bay and that before long she had a complete hold on him. Later, he says, his mother fell under her influence. Nasburg declares that he became suspicious of Mrs. Austin when she showed him a letter bearing the signature of Reuben H. Lloyd and addressed to her.

"I came to San Francisco," said Nasburg today, "and Mr. Lloyd told me that he had not signed the letter to Mrs. Austin. I also learned that she was not acquainted with the prominent men with whom she claimed to be friendly."

Mr. Nasburg says that Lloyd engaged an attorney, instructing him to present the matter to the grand jury.

Mrs. Austin declares that the whole affair is a plot to injure her.

"It arises out of differences in the Nasburg family," she said. "I did not write the letter which Claude Nasburg says I sent him and never saw it before. I have no scheme on hand to get the Nasburg money. The whole thing is incomprehensible to me."

UNION MEN OPPOSE PIECE WORK SCHEME

(United Press Leased Wire.) New Haven, Conn., March 28.—Officials of unions whose members are employed by the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and the executive officers of that road are in conference today in the hope of adjusting the differences that have arisen over the rule establishing piece work in the shops.

The shopmen are violently opposed to the rule and a strike would cause no surprise should the road seek to enforce it. The railroad's contention is that piece work, if fixed upon a fair basis, gives the men the maximum of wages and at the same time secures from them the maximum of efficiency.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF SILVERTON PIONEERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Silvertown, Or., March 28.—Having been married 50 years today, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mount celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in this city this afternoon, and more than 100 guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of that home.

March 28, 1858, H. D. Mount was married to Miss Rebecca Stevens in Silvertown, and they have since made their home in this vicinity. They are the proud parents of 13 children, namely: Judge Wallace Mount, chief justice of the state of Washington, R. J. of Spokane, Mrs. Shambrow of Portland, Mrs. Eva Mascher and W. C. of Silvertown, O. B. of Baker City, Mrs. Dr. Proudfoot of Portland, Dr. Hugh S. Mount of Oregon City, Mrs. Dr. Hall of Portland, Dr. Clyde Mount of Walla Walla, Dr. Guy Mount of Buffalo, New York, Dr. Albert Mount of Portland and Robert H. of this city. All were present to celebrate the event.

Mr. Mount has been a resident of Silvertown nearly all his life, and the same can be said of his good wife, who, however, was born in Iowa, in 1842, and came to Oregon with her parents in 1862. Mr. Mount is commander in chief of the Indian War Veterans' association, and is truly entitled to the honor bestowed upon him at two different meetings of the association, for he served in the war three years.

Born in Ohio, in 1832, he came to Oregon in 1851, and spent the following winter in Portland. In the spring he went to California, where he met with considerable success in the mines, and returned to Oregon in time to take part in the war, in which he commanded a company of volunteers, although much of his time was employed during this period of Oregon's history in carrying messages. His first experience in war was at the battle of Evans Creek, in 1853.

After the war Mr. Mount settled on a farm near here, and for many years was considered one of the most prominent hog growers of the Pacific coast. Three years ago he sold his farm and erected a beautiful residence in this city, where himself and wife and one son have since resided. Some years ago Mr. Mount served a term as county assessor, and has several times been elected justice of the peace in the Silvertown district.

As a manifestation of love and esteem, friends of the popular couple presented them with a beautiful gold clock. A most excellent dinner was served and taking everything in consideration it was the most pleasant event of that kind ever held in Silvertown.

OREGON WIDOW TO GET HUSBAND

Woman Appeals to Mayor of Seattle and Finds Her Soul Mate.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, March 28.—Within a few days Oregon will have one less widow if everything goes right. Thursday Mayor Miller received a pathetic appeal from a widow in Oregon, (name of place kept secret) asking him to find her a good man. She stated that she was industrious, and would make any man a good wife. The letter was printed in a morning paper yesterday. Leopold Gosser, a rancher of Woodville, Washington, saw the letter. Gosser has been widowed for several years. He came to Seattle last night and at once hunted up Mayor Miller, stated his errand, and the late train for Portland carried a letter to the widow asking her to become his wife. He will wait here until an answer is received.

MOTHER HOPES TO SAVE BOY'S LIFE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Albany, N. Y., March 28.—Owing to a press of official business, Governor Hughes was forced to postpone an audience to the mother and attorneys of Chester Gillette this morning. The youth is condemned to go to the chair Monday morning. A plea for respite will be made at 4:30 this afternoon.

MRS. VANDERBILT DENIES STORIES

Wife of Millionaire Declares That She Will Not Seek Divorce.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 28.—Mrs. A. G. Vanderbilt declares that the report circulated to the effect that she contemplates divorce proceedings against her husband, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, is absolutely without foundation.

FOREIGNERS ARE LEAVING AMERICA

Fifty-Five Laborers Going Abroad to Every Twenty Coming Into Country.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 28.—From the first of this year down to date the foreign laborers leaving the United States greatly outnumber those coming over here.

The figures announced today by Gustav Schwab of the North German Lloyd Steamship company show that from January 1 to March 27, 55 foreign laborers left the country for 20 that entered. In all, 482 went back to their native land and 66,474 have arrived so far this year. Last year the outward movement numbered 52,453, against 205,310 entering. Thus far this year the immigration is 148,836 short of the same period last year.

HAYTIANS PLANNED TO KILL FOREIGNERS

Consuls Investigating Report That Massacre Was Leconte's Scheme.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Port Au Prince, March 28.—Representatives of the foreign governments here headed by the French consul, M. Cateyron and Minister Furnies, are today conducting a quiet investigation on their own account on well grounded rumors which reached Washington some days ago that certain officials of the Haytian government had all the details worked out for a general assassination of all the supposed enemies of the government during the recent trouble.

Many Europeans and some American citizens are said to have been in the list of marked men.

According to report, only the timely arrival of the Haytian government prevented the wholesale butchery. There had been no hint that President Alexis personally had knowledge of the plot, but will be given a severe sentence. He who engineered the assassination of the 10 revolutionists on the fatal Sunday, are being closely investigated.

PREFERS PRISON TO LIFE WITH HIS WIFE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Spokane, Wash., March 28.—Preferring the penitentiary to supporting his wife and five children, Frank Blusa, former traveling man for the Oliver-Deere Plow company, pleaded guilty to wife desertion in the superior court, and will be given a seven months term. He was told that if he would pledge himself to care for his family he would be given his freedom, but he refused, saying: "No, I prefer the penitentiary."

He is a member of a number of lodges. Blusa deserted his family last fall. He was arrested in Los Angeles and returned to Spokane this week.

OPERA BUFFET REVOLUTIONISTS

Alexis' Ragged Army Excites Mirth of American Visitors to Hayti.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 28.—A real opera buffet revolution, in the way American arrivals from Port Au Prince today characterize the recent revolt against the administration of President Alexis of Hayti.

According to the tourists, the best "comedy" of the plot from the Haytian point of view was the shooting of the 10 conspirators whose work was so crude as to result in their being caught red handed. President Alexis was roundly applauded for his cleverness.

"When we put into Jerusalem, a few days before the Sunday of assassinations," said one of the party of tourists, "we were not allowed to land (there were six Americans in our party) on the ground that we might be enemies of Alexis. This, despite the fact that Alexis had 4,000 troops stationed at that point."

"But such troops! The Haytian uniform consists of a red cap. The army was fully uniformed. Each man had a sword. Some of the men had trousers, and no shirts. Others had long shirts and no trousers."

"But the arms! Only about half the men were armed, and no two of these had the same sort of rifle, so nearly as we could learn the method of conducting a battle there is for the opposition. A single shot was fired by one of the other men. The man with the smaller force is declared 'overwhelmingly defeated.'"

The troops tried that for a few days, but the situation was critical, owing to the hatred of the blacks for the whites. With the arrival of the foreign warships this feeling was quickly subdued.

CHILD DROWNED IN MILL FLUME

Cecil Inman Perishes at Camas as His Scared Playmates Flee.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., March 28.—Cecil Inman, the 11-year-old son of C. W. Inman, until recently of this city, was drowned in a flume at the Crown-Columbia paper mill at Camas last evening. Two companions who were with the boy had become so scared when they saw him fall into the flume that instead of notifying anyone, they ran away. The body was located two hours after the accident, at the mouth of the flume.

Young Inman and two schoolmates were playing ball near the paper mill having stopped on their way home from school. The ball rolled into the mill flume and Cecil endeavored to get it, but lost his balance and fell in. Had the alarm been given at once, he could undoubtedly have been saved. Although a physician was called as soon as the body was found, all chance of recovery had passed.

The drowned lad was well known in Vancouver, having attended school here. Until recently he resided here with his parents, his father having just gone into business at Camas.

SAILORS GUARDED

One item of expense that has figured against freight from the port has been the cost of engaging sailors, although the rate here is considerably lower than on the West coast.

Foreign representatives say it is not so much the price paid for shipping a sailor that is objectionable when the services of the landing house master have to be sought, but ship owners do object to paying for men whom they can hire themselves. They admit it might be worth every cent a sailor boarding house keeper gets when he has to furnish a crew, perhaps with much trouble, but at the same time they object to having to buy when not necessary.

In connection with this Rev. Bernays says that often times men go to the ships themselves in search of employment, but are refused owing to the existing condition of affairs.

PORTLAND YOUTH HAS WOE IN NEW YORK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New York, March 28.—Morris Smith, 23 years old, of Portland, Oregon, who is in the Worcester building, is held in $2,000 bail on a charge of snatching a girl's purse at a fashionable Fifth avenue hotel. He said he was broke, and it was steal or starve. When arrested he begged bystanders to shoot him.

Children should not be allowed to drink coffee. It contains a drug—Caffeine—which interferes with the child's natural growth.

Almost any doctor will tell you this. Many are now advising Postum—made from clean hard wheat—as a table beverage in place of coffee. When served hot with good cream, and sugar to taste, it is delicious, cheering and at the same time, healthful.

Postum contains no coffee or other harmful substance, but includes the "vital phosphates" from the wheat. "There's a Reason."

EVANSTON IS A LUCKY NAME

There is a whole lot in a name, but "the name must be backed up by the goods," as the merchant would say. Evanston is the name of a new Spanton subdivision on the W. W. carline just east of the Clinton Kelly school.

For a few days, prices will be away below anything in the neighborhood, just to get the sale under way. Take the W. W. car, get off at Francis avenue. Members of the Spanton Company will be at Evanston all afternoon (Sunday).

Get on the right car—"W. W."—take it at Third and Yamhill.

We will build a house for you and you may pay for this also on installments.

WELL! WELL! SEE WHO'S HERE NOW

The Loidy Isn't Half So Anxious to See Garfield My Good Man.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, March 28.—A simply dressed man was running up the steps to the interior department two at a time today, with the alacrity of a presidential messenger.

"My good man," she inquired, "is this the interior department?" "Yes," replied the young man, blushing and over-dressed woman stopped him.

"Is Secretary Garfield in his office now?" "I—I—don't know," replied the young man, blushing and over-dressed woman stopped him.

FATHER'S BLOOD SAVES INFANT

Remarkable Operation Performed by Surgeons at Rockefeller Institute.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 28.—A remarkable operation involving the transfusion of the blood of a father into the veins of his 5-day-old child, suffering from an attack of purpura, has just been successfully performed in the Rockefeller institute, an attracting consideration.

When the infant was brought to the institute, Dr. Alexis Carroll, after an examination, declared the tiny patient was a victim of purpura, which means a weakening of the walls of the arteries, and certain parts of the machine were used to pump the father's blood into the child's veins.

The surgeon said that transfusion of blood would be the only means of saving the child's life.

Dr. V. S. Lambert, the father, volunteered to supply it. One of his arteries was connected with the baby's blood vessels, the beneficial effect being almost instantaneous.

The child is on the road to recovery and is gaining flesh rapidly.

PERFECT RECORD AT FORT CASEY

Reports of Target Practice of Coast Defense Shows Accuracy of Gunners.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, March 28.—Revised reports of the target practice of the gunners of the coast defense at Fort Casey, Washington, on January 23, show that every shot fired at a target four miles distant hit the mark.

A perfect score was completed when the gunners fired four shots at moving targets five yards high and 12 yards long, and every shot went through the canvas. The score was made by the war department coast artillery under Captain Sevier. Officials of the war department are gratified over the shooting.

WIFE TO NURSE FAITHLESS MAN

Famous Artist Returns Home to Recover Mind "Affinity" Wrecked.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, March 28.—With career shattered and mind unbalanced, Joseph Vittur, an artist of national fame, is returning to his wife, whom he deserted eight years ago.

At her home on West Erie street there awaits his coming Mrs. Charlotte Vittur, the wife from whom an "affinity" lured him away, ready to nurse him back to health, if she can, her recent spouse.

Mrs. Vittur began divorce proceedings against her husband last December, after he had opened a studio in Cleveland. Before he was served with the papers in the case, however, his mind gave way because of financial difficulties, and the suit was never pressed.

When the faithful wife heard that her husband's mental condition was not improving she wrote to the authorities at Cleveland, requesting them to send her husband to her.

ELOPES WITH JAP NOBLEMAN

Pasadena Girl Forgiven for Running Away With Baron Katowa's Brother.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Pasadena, Cal., March 28.—From society circles of Pasadena to membership in the Japanese nobility, is the experience of Gwendolyn A. Whitman, who has eloped with E. I. Katowa, brother of Baron Katowa, of Yokohama, Japan, member of the Japanese house of peers.

Despite the objections of the Whitmans, the pair obtained a license, boarded the launch Fashion and went to sea.

The mother of the girl, who is only 15 years old, has forgiven her and word has been received from Baron Katowa that he will gladly receive her in his family. Later the full Japanese rites will be performed in Yokohama.

Katowa, who is a graduate of Pasadena University, came here a year ago with letters of introduction. He was on his way to continue his studies at Yale college, but he fell in love with the bewitching Miss Whitman at first sight and decided to remain in Pasadena.

FESTIVAL DESIGN TO BE SPREAD BROADCAST

Ten Thousand Will Be Distributed in All Parts of the Country.

Handsome designs for the Rose Festival invitations, made from The Journal prize design, and bearing The Journal slogan, have been completed by the Oregon Engraving company and 10,000 of them will be sent to prominent men and women throughout the country, including President Roosevelt, cabinet members, foreign representatives, governors and prominent army and navy officers.

The invitations consist of envelopes, bearing on the cover four of the Rose Festival designs, one in each corner, and joined by pink and green ribbons, and double-folding invitations, with a design of a young woman, drawn by Artist Edward O'Neill of the Oregon Engraving company, and carrying the shield of the festival.

The postal cards have but the one design of the festival, the slogan, "Roses fragrant, roses fair, Portland roses everywhere," and a few words telling of the festival, its date and its extent. The work is all unusually handsome. The invitations and cards will be ready for distribution early next week. There are to be 10,000 special invitations, 25,000 programs and 100,000 postal cards sent out by the festival association.

Fire From Rubbish Heap. A fire that originated in a pile of rubbish in the basement of the building at 146 North Twenty-fourth street, at 9 o'clock last evening, caused a loss of about $200 before it was extinguished by the department. The building is occupied as an apartment house. The belongings of some of the tenants suffered slight damage by fire and water.

PEOPLE ALIVE TO STATEMENT NO. 1

Cake's Reception at Ashland Refutes Reported Antagonism There.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Ashland, Or., March 28.—Contrary to published reports, there is strong sentiment in this county for Statement No. 1. It was clearly in evidence last night during the address of H. M. Cake, who is touring the state in behalf of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

Mr. Cake explained his position with reference to popular elections of United States senators, and gave his reasons for his position. Those who believe in the people, he said, must necessarily believe in their right to elect their own senators.

The senatorial aspirant spoke at length on various subjects of public interest at this time. He was well received, and certain parts of the speech were enthusiastically applauded. That portion referring to the popular election of United States senators was especially interesting to the audience.

There was a good sized crowd at the meeting, but noticeably absent were many of the machine bosses who once dominated local politics. The machine throughout the state is said to be antagonistic to Mr. Cake's candidacy and to Statement No. 1.
