

WEDNESDAY

Maud Howell and Miss Ethel Shea, Mrs. George Willard Brown, Mrs. James Nicol, Miss Anne Shogren, Mrs. P. G. Spencer, Miss Laura Dunne and Mrs. Ambrose Cronin. Violets and tulips were the pretty table decorations. After the party entertained the party afterward at the Hellig matinee.

Mrs. S. A. Mulford of Elton Court, her sister, Mrs. Sherman, and her daughter, Miss Alice Mulford, spent the day at Hotel Moore at Seaside last week.

Mrs. G. Walter Gates and her little son, who are expected home Wednesday from a visit of several weeks in the south and in New York.

Mrs. Lewis Russell entertained informally at bridge Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. J. D. Hart and Mrs. A. L. Maxwell were the prize winners.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Blackwell and Miss Blackwell, prominent people of Coeur d'Alene, were guests at the Portland last week.

Mrs. I. N. Lipman entertained the whist club Friday and the prize winners were Mrs. Julius L. Meier and Mrs. Sol Rosenfeld.

Mrs. M. E. Teal entertained Mrs. Wilson of The Dalles last week, who has many friends among the older Portland people.

Mrs. Lincoln Pontius of Seattle is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ralph E. Moody of Willamette Heights.

Miss Mary Montgomery, who has been east for the past two months, expects to return home next month.

Mrs. L. H. Tarpley entertained very informally with two tables of bridge Thursday afternoon.

A number of parties are being planned for the Mary Manning engagement here this week.

Mrs. William S. Sibson returned Thursday from a prolonged stay abroad, where she chaperoned her daughter Alice till a few weeks ago, when the played during the evening, Miss Gertrude Getty and Dr. Fred Ziegler winning the prizes. Later in the evening supper was served in the dining room, which was decorated in red roses and greens. Those present were: Miss Eleanor Moore, Miss Annie Copland, Dr. Fred Ziegler, Miss Gertrude Getty, Miss Emily Getty, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Patton, Harry Copland, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Benton, Miss Jennie Benton, F. Weber, Miss Mae Hagemann and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hagemann.

One of the unique parties of the season was the progressive supper given last Thursday evening at the home of Neil Dorney, Ruth Bailey, Gretchen Provoked, Miss Lowell, Mrs. E. G. Fanning. Many original ideas were carried out by the service. Those present were: Misses Grace Giesbrecht, Mabel Woodworth, Gertrude Ballin, Nell Dorney, Stella Burger, Ruth Ballin, Gretchen Backus, Ella Chernis, Hazel Bickel, Lottie Ballin, Katherine Dorney, Louise Backus, Eva Fanning and Emory Cusick, Leo Shapier, Walter Backus, Charles E. Ryan, Mrs. J. H. Ryan, Ernest Heasler, Otto Keim, Louis Sharp, Jim Curran, Billy Kern, Jim Morris and Ben Gault.

Mrs. Barenstecher of North Sixteenth street entertained the literature department of the Portnomah club Wednesday afternoon. Some 30 women enjoyed a delightful program on Nathaniel Hawthorne. Mrs. E. R. Brown led the discussion and was followed by an informal talk that brought out the value of Hawthorne as a writer and thinker. The characters in "The Scarlet Letter" provoked lively debate. The occasion served to prove that Hawthorne is a favorite and familiar writer to the literary women of the city. A delightful luncheon and social hour followed the program.

A surprise was given William Vahl at his home, 831 Garfield avenue, in honor of his 25th birthday. Games, music, songs and dancing were enjoyed. At 11:30 a light supper was served. Those present were: Miss Marie A. Vahl, Miss Maxine Donis, Miss Enola Waskely, Miss Hazel Merese, Miss Arlie Ryker, Miss Louise Serling, Miss Ada Hagen, Mrs. J. Kennedy, Mrs. J. Odson, George F. Vahl, Peter Douglas, Mark Fiedler, Norman MacRae, Mathew Malpert, John Moore, Peter Davis, Fred Rosenau, Joe Kennedy, Jack Odson and Mr. and Mrs. Vahl.

In honor of her birthday Miss Glen Mumma entertained a few of her friends at dinner Tuesday evening, at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. A. Spooner of 576 Lexington avenue. Pink and white were the prevailing colors and the table was prettily adorned with pink and white carnations. A large pink and white cake holding 19 candles told the age of the birthday girl. Those present were: Miss Ida Bennett, Miss Pearl Tamblin, Miss Glen Mumma, Miss Hamilton, Arthur Dorris, James Craig and Mrs. G. A. Spooner.

The Present Day club held one of the most enjoyable meetings of the season Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. B. Thibon, secretary of the club.

The program consisted of an able paper on "Tennyson" by Mrs. C. W. Pallett; a piano solo by Mrs. J. E. White; and a paper entitled "Living Writers of English Fiction" by Mrs. Eva B. Pillsbury. Next Tuesday the club meets for a social afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. R. Giltner, on Chapman street.

A pleasant surprise was given to Miss Virgeline Burtrand at her home, 769 Vancouver avenue, Saturday. Several piano selections were played by her schoolmates. Those present were: Miss St. Thomas, Miss Nona Woolf, Miss Helena Larson, Miss Katherine Bohn, Miss Lora Leedy, Miss Hazel McEntire, Mrs. J. E. White, Mrs. J. E. White, Ruth Boylan and Miss Rosie Fricker. Miss Burtrand has recently recovered from a long and severe illness.

A theatre party was given at the Hellig for Miss Maudie Halverson of North Dakota Wednesday evening. Supper followed at the Oregon grill. The chaperone was Mrs. John Golden, and the guests were: Miss Ruth E. Diller, Miss Johnnie T. Wilkins, Miss Gertrude Kurth, Miss Margaret Backus, Miss Ethel Stiles, Miss Carrie Bacon, Miss Isabelle Gibaugh, Miss Eva Strickler, Miss Lena Staley, Miss Myrtle E. Long, and Miss Halverson.

The Qui Vive club met at the home of Mrs. W. P. Pritchard, 313 East Third street, Thursday afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. W. W. Lyon, Mrs. Dautry, Mrs. Frailey, Mrs. Frisberg, Mrs. Monroe, Miss Laura Day, Mrs. W. Pritchard and Mrs. J. R. Wood. An interesting explanation of the plan of the United Artisans by Mrs. Pritchard, refreshments were served. The house was decorated with carnations and ferns.

The women of Lincoln-Garfield Women's Relief corps, No. 13, gave a pleasant surprise to the department chaplain, Mrs. Sarah Kemp, at her home in St. Johns last Tuesday. Several were present and a delightful day was enjoyed. Next Tuesday the corps will meet at Mrs. M. M. Meyer's at 234 Broadway, at 11:30. Take Brooklyn or W. W. car to Harrison street. All members are invited to be present.

The Philathea club of the Taylor Street M. E. church held a meeting at the home of Miss Eliza Stelmets Friday evening. The chair was occupied by an interesting explanation of the plan of the United Artisans by Mrs. Pritchard, refreshments were served. The house was decorated with carnations and ferns.

A young people's dance was given Friday evening at the Y. W. C. A. hall by Alice and her friends. Arthur and Otto Voelker. Dancing was the amusement, and refreshments were served.

WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wagner near Corvallis at noon Wednesday, when their only daughter, Miss Lucella Wagner, became the bride of F. A. Ellis of Spokane. The rooms were prettily decorated with Oregon grape, ivy and fern and the bride wore a gown of white tulle with a red sash. Wood performed the ceremony. Miss Leona Jackson played the wedding march and about 30 relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride came in with her father and she carried an arm bouquet of bride roses with a spray of orange blossoms in her hair. Numerous friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

One of the pretty weddings of this season was celebrated Wednesday evening, when Miss A. Louise Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Curry of 696 Madison street, was married to A. E. King of this city, by the Rev. J. J. Garrison, pastor of the Congregational church. The parlor was converted into a complete bower of floral and foliage decorations. The bride came in with her father and she carried an arm bouquet of bride roses with a spray of orange blossoms in her hair. Numerous friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

Miss Viva Tull, only daughter of W. S. Tull, Barlow, Oregon, and William E. Nason, formerly of Portland, were married at the residence of C. U. Barlow in Oakland, California, last Thursday. They will reside in that city.

The marriage of Ona Senger and Miss Minnie Maxwell was celebrated at the bride's home in Corvallis Wednesday evening by Rev. C. H. Hurd in the presence of relatives and friends. The bride's costume was white, with veil and she carried bride roses. Following congratulations a dainty supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Senger went to Portland Thursday for a brief visit.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Jessie Hagemann on her birthday, Wednesday night, at her home on Willamette Heights. Five hundred was

THE STORE NOTED FOR BEST GOODS AT LOWEST PRICES

Portland Agents for Thomson's "Glove-Fitting" Corsets

Opening Sale Stylish Easter Apparel for Women

WE INVITE you to view our splendid display of Easter wearing apparel for women, misses and children Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The showing will be interesting to you, even though you do not intend to buy, for the garments we have are exclusive and shown by no other house in town. Included in this Great Easter Sale are 50 high grade Sample Suits which we have marked to sell at actual cost of making. Here's a rare chance to get an elegant suit and save considerable on the regular price. Complete lines of new Jackets, Black Voile and Panama Skirts, Silk and Net Waists, Coats, Silk Skirts, Children's White and Colored Dresses, Neckwear, Hosiery, Muslinwear, Corsets, Dress Goods, Silks, Parasols, Belts, Purses, etc.

$2.50 Lawn Waists $1.47
Fine White Lawn Waists, in several pretty lace and embroidery trimmed styles, open front or back, all sizes, and best $2.50 values. See window.

Sateen Petticoats 98c
Black Mercerized Sateen Petticoats, extra full, with plaited and stitched flounce, very best $1.50 quality. On sale Monday and Tuesday.

Cambric Skirts $1.29
Made good and full with deep knee flounce and under ruffle, 2 rows wide torchon insertion and edge; best regular $2 values. See these

Boys' Blouse Waists 25c
Boys' Blouse Waists, in light and dark colors, with or without sailor collar; also in black sateen; regular $30 values; ages 3 to 12.

50c Corset Covers 29c
Fine Cambric Corset Covers, trimmed with lace heading and ribbon, three different styles to choose from; regular 50c values. See window.

$2 Muslin Curtains $1.45
Made from the popular line-checked muslins, dainty for bedroom or cottage. A limited number only at this special low price.

Express Prepaid on Purchases of $5 or Over

McAlvay & McDonnell
Corner Third and Morrison Streets

Mail Orders Filled and Forwarded Promptly

THE PORTLAND SYMPHONY

concert Friday afternoon at the Marquam, served to awaken the people from the dulness of the Lenten season. There was a large audience and society was largely represented. Several hostesses entertained at luncheon first and took their parties afterward to the concert. Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox entertained Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. Howard Mather, Miss Claire Wilcox, Miss Marie Wheeler and Miss Evelyn Carey. W. D. Wheelwright entertained Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Miss Clark and Miss Collier of St. Helen's hall. In another box were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, with Mrs. Holt C. Wilson and Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett. Mrs. Sol Hirsch entertained a party, as did also Mrs. W. J. Burns.

An event about which the fortunate ones are still talking was the impromptu concert that followed the Haupt-Kreisler concert of the week before last. A large number of people went to the concert for supper and the two artists were being entertained there. Mr. Bauer thought the players in the orchestra must be tired and in the caprice of the moment and with the bubbling good nature for which he is famous he suggested supplanting them. And those who had come to dine sat enraptured and forgot their orders while the two world famed artists played and played and played as they play at their concerts but with the delightful informality of a home musicale. And those who were seated about the players in worshipful attitude.

Judge George H. Williams was receiving congratulations last week on his eighty-fifth birthday and many of his friends sent in flowers and messages of congratulations.

Thursday evening a number of his friends gave a dinner in his honor at the Arlington club. The other guests were Governor George E. Chamberlain, Senator Charles W. Fulton, Judge George Cleland, Dr. A. John McCracken, Carl Harbaugh and Frank T. Dodge. The hosts from the club were Charles F. Adams, John M. Alsworth, General M. Anderson, N. E. Ayer, W. B. Ayer, General C. F. Beebe, T. Scott Brooks, Walter J. Burns, Walter E. Burrell, Judge Charles H. Carey, Colonel David Dunne, Judge W. D. Fenton, J. Couch Flanders, Ex-Senator J. M. Geary, W. B. Gilbert, George W. S. Lintin, John C. Lewis, John Lewis, S. B. Lintin, John C. Lewis, S. M. Meers, A. L. Mills, MacMaster, S. M. Meers, A. L. Mills, Wirt C. Minor, Ex-Senator F. W. Mulford, Dr. H. Page, S. G. Reed, H. W. Scott, Key, J. H. Page, S. G. Reed, H. W. Scott, Captain J. A. Baden, Zera Snow, Carl Spuhm, C. F. Swigert, George Taylor, Jr., Frank Watson, William D. Washburn, Dr. George F. Wilson, Dr. Holt C. Wilson, T. B. Wilcox, Judge Charles E. Wolverson, C. E. S. Wood and Major James McIl. Wood.

The marriage of Miss Maud Hahn to Clarence Booth Lamont of Seattle will be the principal social event of next week. The wedding is to be celebrated at St. Mark's Episcopal church at 8:30 Saturday evening, and a reception will follow at the handsome Hahn home on Cornell road. The wedding will not be as brilliant an affair as is planned, because the date was set earlier than the end of Lent.

Miss Della Hahn, the bride-elect's sister, will be in charge of honor, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Maud Howell and Miss Ethel Shea. F. Wynn Palmer is to be the best man. The groom is to be assisted by T. S. McCreedy and Ralph Hahn. Miss Hahn has been entertained a great deal the past week. Mrs. S. Norton was the hostess at an elaborate luncheon. Mrs. Newell Barnard entertained at bridge Monday and Miss Ethel Shea at bridge Tuesday afternoon. Miss Brown is to be among her entertainers this week. Miss Hahn is prominent in the national child welfare club, and the members are greatly regretting her coming removal from Portland. Last week she entertained the ladies of her home at her home after the luncheon.

The Consumers' league is planning a public meeting to be held Wednesday evening, April 8 at Trinity parish house. There will be an address by Dr. C. H. Chapman, and also a talk on "Child Labor" illustrated with stereopticon slides. These slides have been sent to Oregon by the national child welfare committee and are views of the little workers in cotton mills, coal mines and glass works. There will also be some slides of local work shown. Miss Mary Montgomery, the president has recently attended the annual meeting of the national league at Wilmington, Delaware and some interesting reports are looked for on her return.

All interested are invited to attend the open meeting.

Mrs. Allen Wright gave another of her informal series of bridge parties Thursday afternoon. Her guests were Mrs. Fred Page, Mrs. S. G. Wheeler, Mrs. Clemmie Hirsch, Miss Florence Kohn, Miss Susie Stott, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Alice Sanbury, Mrs. George Whitehead, Mrs. Arthur Shindler, Mrs. Howie, Miss Helen Van Schuyver, Miss Leslie Knapp and the Misses Alinsworth.

Mrs. Newell Barnard entertained at bridge Monday evening for Miss Maud Hahn and her guests were Miss Nellie Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McCormick, Mrs. Harry Humphrey, Miss Delta Watson, Miss Laura Dunne, Miss Ethel Shea, Miss Maud Howell, Clarence R. Lomont, Dr. Paul Frisling, John Kerr, William Castleman and James Alexander.

A. H. Eilers gave a dinner at Richard's cafe Thursday evening in honor of Harold Bauer, the eminent pianist, who passed through on route to California. It was attended by Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Whitehead, Mr. Wakefield, Louis Spruce and Mr. Terry of this city, J. Schell of Seattle, Bacon of Boston, and Mr. Beekman of New York.

Mrs. Lischen Miller, the clever literary woman who owns a charming suburban bungalow at Eugene, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Ingham. Mrs. Ingham has many friends here and is being extensively entertained. Thursday evening the Woman's Press club gave her reception at the Imperial hotel at which Mrs. Lucia Bacon Additor, Mrs. Emma Marshall, Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby, Mrs. Beattie G. Stone, Miss Frances Gotshall, Mrs. June McMillan Ordway and Miss Anna Shannon Monroe received. Mrs. Ingham and Mrs. Ordway have entertained for Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd entertained at luncheon yesterday afternoon, followed by a theatre party at the Baker. Mrs. Frank Vincent Dumond was the honor guest. Miss Flanders entertained at luncheon Thursday for Mrs. Dumond, Mrs. L. E. Ladd, Mrs. Robert W. Lewis, Mrs. William T. Muir, Mrs. William H. Warrens and Mrs. John C. Almsworth.

Mrs. Felix Friedlander entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon in compliment to the out-of-town guests of her set. Miss Daisy Rosener, Mrs. S. Lippman's guest, and Miss Amy Seller, Mrs. Fred Seller's guest, both of San Francisco were among the entertained. Miss Clementine Hirsch and Mrs. Julius L. Meier were the prize winners.

Congratulations are being extended Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Mrs. Bernard C. Jakway, the mother and sister of Wistar Johnson, who has just been awarded the Rhodes scholarship at Oxford from Oregon for 1908. Mr. Johnson was graduated last June from the University of Oregon, where he was a brilliant student, a clever athlete and a popular companion. He has been spending this season in his studies at the Boston School of Technology. This is the second of the three Rhodes scholarships in this state to be won by a University of Oregon man.

Miss Maud Hahn, Bride-Elect of This Week.

George Holman is soon to give his lecture on "The Art of Illumination" in Eugene before the Arts and Crafts society there. The lecture when given here about a fortnight since attracted a good deal of attention and was well attended. The bishop gave an interesting address Wednesday before the weekly assembly of the University of Oregon students on "Cathedrals of France."

Mrs. Fred Seller gave an informal musicale Wednesday evening in compliment to her sister, Miss Amy Seller, of San Francisco. About 20 guests were present. Don J. Zan, Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer and Miss Flora Fleischner sang and were enthusiastically applauded. Miss Seller played the accompaniments and also gave several delightful solo numbers.

Bishop Scadding was pleasantly entertained in Eugene last week by President P. L. Campbell and other members of the faculty while he made a short visit there. The bishop gave an interesting address Wednesday before the weekly assembly of the University of Oregon students on "Cathedrals of France."

Mrs. A. E. Rockey is visiting in San Francisco, the guest of Miss Ardella Mills at her home on Presidio avenue. Miss Mills gave a delightful dinner last week in honor of Mrs. Rockey, at which several officers of the West Virginia were guests.

Malcolm R. MacSwan, who is a favorite with the real young set, is being congratulated on his appointment as alternate for the West Point cadetship. His friends entertain hopes for his success.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fieschner are spending the week-end at the coast. Their guests are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman and Sol Ehrman of San Francisco.

Mrs. A. S. Norton gave a delightful luncheon Wednesday at the Nortons in honor of Miss Maud Hahn, whose marriage will be celebrated next Saturday evening. The guests were Miss Maud Hahn and her two bridesmaids, Miss

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The Lauriwood live guard team went to Linnton March 17, at the request of Deputy Supreme Commander Lady Alice Forger to assist her to install the officers of the live there. The ladies to be installed were: Commander, Lady Moon; past commander, Lady Alcott; lieutenant commander, Lady Harrington; recorder, Lady Jettico; F. Ant. Lady Pollock; chaplain, Lady Bock; leg. Lady Hay; master at A. Lady Stencil; sentry, Lady Campbell; pic. Lady Epperson. Upon arriving there dinner was served to all by the ladies of Linnton. The installing work was postponed and the guard team put on the fancy drill, which was done with credit to their captain, Lady Marshall. Mr. Sherwood and Mr. Jeffries spoke and Mr. Kenney sang. Dancing followed.

The Mysoph Social club gave a whist social March 19, at Mrs. Anna Thompson's home, 447 Benton street. Twelve games were played and Mrs. Knott and Mrs. Greenwood won the first prize and consolation. Refreshments were served at 4 o'clock. Those present were: Mrs. E. H. Nelson, Mrs. Knott, Mrs. Greenwood, Mrs. Parkins, Mrs. Downey, Mrs. Julian, Mrs. MacGregor, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Thurkelson, Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Coffey, Mrs. Kinley, Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Kincaid, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Hayner. The president requests the members to be present April 2 at Mrs. Moore's home, 532 East Ninth street.

The Ladies of the Macabees of Portland met March 18 at the home of Mrs. Nicholas, 269 North Eighteenth street, with the general chairman, Deputy Supreme Commander Lady Alice Forger in the chair. Various plans were discussed. The members will spend a good deal of time and money this year for their float for the Rose Festival.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Jessie Hagemann on her birthday, Wednesday night, at her home on Willamette Heights. Five hundred was

COLLEGE COURTESY.

Paul G. Wandrey and Miss Kathrine E. Horgan, the second daughter of Mrs. Joanna Horgan, were married Monday evening at 1151 East Morrison street, by Rev. Clarence True Wilson. The bride and groom were the bridesmaid and Lloyd Cooper the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Wandrey will be at home to their friends after April 1 at 1151 East Morrison street. They have gone to British Columbia on their wedding trip.

Benj. F. Laughlin and Clara Alice White were united in matrimony last Tuesday evening at a beautiful home wedding at 175 Ford street, by Clarence True Wilson, pastor of Centenary M. E. church. The home was prettily decorated and music and refreshments added to the pleasure of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin will return to Portland to reside in a few weeks.

Hugo Wandel and Mrs. A. Wells were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Congregational church by the Rev. J. J. Staub, Monday evening.

Saturday afternoon, March 21, Dr. E. Wright and Miss Edna Ellen Pfender were married at Wellington Court, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiating.

COMING EVENTS

The Oranda club, successor to the Oranda club, will give its opening party Monday evening, April 27, in the East Side Woodmen hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. The club members are E. C. C. Michelson, S. D. Bonner, F. Hayman and J. J. Healy. The patronesses are Mrs. L. Knudson, Mrs. D. A. Bonner, Mrs. J. E. Kane and Mrs. E. Healy.

Winslow Meade circle No. 7 will hold a dime social at their rooms in Drew hall, Tuesday evening. Refreshments will be served.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weteler announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gertrude D. Weteler, to J. B. Garrison. The wedding will take place April 21.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eastman, who have been touring through Oregon and Washington last Friday evening for their home in San Francisco. Mrs. Eastman's sister, Miss Gertrude Churchley, accompanied them to be gone for the summer.

HAVE YOUR CALLING CARDS WEDDING INVITATIONS AND MONOGRAM STATIONERY ENGRAVED AT RUSHTON'S

804 Buchanan Bldg., between Fourth and Fifth on Wash. St.

MUSIC STUDENTS!

Free Scholarships of $350 Each
Including tuition in all branches, board, lodging and all necessary expenses.
Public contest for scholarships in piano, pipe organ, voice and violin takes place in Walla Walla.

APRIL 23 AND 24
Open to all students of music. Contestants entertained free.
Write for further information, but make application immediately.
ENTRIES CLOSE APRIL 2.
Apply to director of Whitman Conservatory of Music, Walla Walla, Wash.

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS

W. G. SMITH & CO.
WASHINGTON BUILDING

that they readily will enter open windows of houses if they see the flowers within.
They even have been known to visit the artificial flowers on a woman's hat when she was walking out, and other writers speak of their taking sugar from between a person's lips. In a room they become confused, and being frail they are apt to injure themselves by striking against objects.
It is of no use to try to keep them in captivity, unless possibly they were in a greenhouse, where there were plenty of flowers, for no artificial food ever has been found which will nourish them. Yet even in a greenhouse they probably would kill themselves by flying against the glass.