—the tailors' strike does not affect the Columbia Woolen Mills Co.

Why? Because these tailors are artists—the best in the city. Being artists—being the best in the city—they are, therefore, worth more to a first class tailoring establishment than the ordinary tailor. It has always been the rule of the Columbia Woolen Mills Company to pay a man all that he is worth.

—therefore absolutely nothing stands in the way of your ordering your Easter Suit now—getting perfectly measured—securing a stylish and satisfactory fit—selecting from the latest and best stock of woollens in Portland—and being assured that your suit will be ready for you just when it is promised.

—order your Easter Suit now. This shop is the largest in Portland and tailors more clothes than any other. The busy man is always busy and the busy man is the one to whom to give your business.
